Love Without a Story Arundhati Subramaniam, 2020 Here are poems that celebrate an expanding kinship of passion and friendship mythic quest and modern day longing in a world animated by dialogue and dissent delirium and silence Circling themes of intimacy and time they return to the urgency of conversation that fragile bridge across the frozen attitudes that divide our world But at the heart of the collection is a deeper preoccupation with those blurry places where humans might walk with gods where the body might touch the beyond where the enchanted might intersect effortlessly with the everyday Where one stumbles upon what the poet simply calls love without a story Arundhati Subramaniam s previous book from Bloodaxe When God Is a Traveller was shortlisted for the T S Eliot Prize Love Without a Story is her fourth collection of poetry Her earlier work is available in Where I Live New Selected Poems
