Atlantic History A Critical Appraisal:

Atlantic History Jack P. Greene, Philip D. Morgan, 2008-12-31 This title offers an incisive look at how interpretations of the Atlantic world have changed over time and from a variety of national perspectives This volume discusses key areas of the Atlantic world including the British Dutch French Iberian and African Atlantic as well as the movement of ideas peoples and goods

William Beckford Perry Gauci, 2013-05-21 Chronicles the life of an 18th century Lord Mayor of London who was born and raised in the British colony of Jamaica while also offering a riveting look at how the expanding British empire challenged existing political social and cultural norms

The Rio de la Plata from Colony to Nations Fabrício Prado, Viviana L. Grieco, Alex Borucki, 2021-05-20 This edited volume brings together essays that examine recent scholarship on the history of the Rio de la Plata region present day Argentina Paraguay Uruguay and southern Brazil from the colonial period to the nineteenth century It illustrates new themes and historical methods that have transformed the historiography of Rio de la Plata including the use of new sources digital methodologies and techniques and innovative approaches to the already well studied themes of gender race commerce the slave trade indigenous history and economic political and military history Contributions privilege trans national and Atlantic approaches to the Rio de la Plata emphasizing the inter connections of processes beyond imperial and national lines and aiming at uncovering the history of Africans and Amerindians popular classes women urban groups as well as the partnerships created across the Spanish and Portuguese imperial borders which also involved other agents from Britain the Netherlands and the United States Furthermore each chapter offers historiographical introductions covering scholarship produced in the twenty first century This book will be an indispensable and unique tool for English speaking students of colonial and nineteenth century Rio de la Plata and for those with a broader interest in Latin American and Atlantic History

Calunga and the Legacy of an African Language in Brazil Steven Byrd, 2012-11-15 Although millions of slaves were forcibly transported from Africa to Brazil the languages the slaves brought with them remain little known Most studies have focused on African contributions to Brazilian Portuguese rather than on the African languages themselves This book is unusual in focusing on an African descended language The author describes and analyzes the Afro Brazilian speech community of Calunga in Minas Gerais Linguistically descended from West African Bantu Calunga is an endangered Afro Brazilian language spoken by a few hundred older Afro Brazilian men who use it only for specific secret communications Unlike most creole languages which are based largely on the vocabulary of the colonial language Calunga has a large proportion of African vocabulary items embedded in an essentially Portuguese grammar A hybrid language its formation can be seen as a form of cultural resistance Steven Byrd's study provides a comprehensive linguistic description of Calunga based on two years of interviews with speakers of the language He examines its history and historical context as well as its linguistic context its sociolinguistic profile and its lexical and grammatical outlines

The Elements in the Medieval World , 2024-08-19 The thirteen essays and the final poem contained in this volume reflect the fundamental importance of water across the whole breadth of medieval endeavour and understanding as both source of life and object of scholarly fascination whose manifestations were the source of rich symbolism and imaginings Ranging geographically from Ireland to the Arab world and from Iceland to Byzantium and chronologically from the fourth century CE to the sixteenth the essays explore perceptions and theories of water through a wide range of approaches Contributors are Michael Bintley Tom Birkett Laura Borghetti Rafa Borys awski Marilina Cesario Marusca Francini Kelly Grovier Deborah Hayden Simon Karstens Andreas Lammer David Livingstone Luca Loschiavo Hugh Magennis Colin Fitzpatrick Murtha Francois Quiviger Elisa Ramazzina and Karl Whittington

African Islands Toyin Falola,R. Joseph Parrott,Danielle Porter Sanchez,2019 Explores the culturally complex and cosmopolitan histories of islands off the African coast Slavery and Politics Rafael Marquese,Tâmis Parron,Berbel Márcia,2016-03-15 The politics of slavery and slave trade in nineteenth century Cuba and Brazil is the subject of this acclaimed study first published in Brazil in 2010 and now available for the first time in English Cubans and Brazilians were geographically separate from each other but they faced common global challenges that unified the way they re created their slave systems between 1790 and 1850 on a basis completely departed from centuries old colonial slavery Here the authors examine the early arguments and strategies in favor of slavery and the slave trade and show how they were affected by the expansion of the global market for tropical goods the American Revolution the Haitian Revolution the collapse of Iberian monarchies British abolitionism and the international pressure opposing the transatlantic slave trade This comprehensive survey contributes to the comparative history of slavery placing the subject in a global context rather than simply comparing the two societies as isolated units Tudor Stuart Britain and the Wider World, 1485-1685: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Oxford University Press,2010-06-01 This ebook is a selective guide designed to help scholars and students of the ancient world find reliable sources of information by directing them to the best available scholarly materials in whatever form or format they appear from books chapters and journal articles to online archives electronic data sets and blogs Written by a leading international authority on the subject the ebook provides bibliographic information supported by direct recommendations about which sources to consult and editorial commentary to make it clear how the cited sources are interrelated This ebook is just one of many articles from Oxford Bibliographies Online Atlantic History a continuously updated and growing online resource designed to provide authoritative guidance through the scholarship and other materials relevant to the study of Atlantic History the study of the transnational interconnections between Europe North America South America and Africa particularly in the early modern and colonial period Oxford Bibliographies Online covers most subject disciplines within the social science and humanities for more information visit www.oxfordbibliographies.com

In Asian Waters Eric Tagliacozzo,2024-10-29 A sweeping account of how the sea routes of Asia have transformed a vast expanse of the globe over the past five hundred years powerfully shaping the modern world In the centuries leading up to our own the volume of traffic across Asian sea routes an area stretching from

East Africa and the Middle East to Japan grew dramatically eventually making them the busiest in the world The result was a massive circulation of people commodities religion culture technology and ideas In this book Eric Tagliacozzo chronicles how the seas and oceans of Asia have shaped the history of the largest continent for the past half millennium leaving an indelible mark on the modern world in the process Paying special attention to migration trade the environment and cities In Asian Waters examines the long history of contact between China and East Africa the spread of Hinduism and Buddhism across the Bay of Bengal and the intertwined histories of Islam and Christianity in the Philippines The book illustrates how India became central to the spice trade how the Indian Ocean became a British lake between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries and how lighthouses and sea mapping played important roles in imperialism The volume ends by asking what may happen if China comes to rule the waves of Asia as Britain once did A novel account showing how Asian history can be seen as a whole when seen from the water In Asian Waters presents a voyage into a past that is still alive in the present

Global Goods and the Spanish Empire, 1492-1824 B. Aram, B. Yun-Casalilla, 2014-11-18 Drawing upon economic history cultural studies intellectual history and the history of science and medicine this collection of case studies examines the transatlantic transfer and transformation of goods and ideas with particular emphasis on their reception in Europe

A Post-Exceptionalist Perspective on Early American History Carroll P. Kakel III, 2019-08-16 This book argues that early American history is best understood as the story of a settler colonial supplanting society a society intent on a vast land grab of American Indian space and driven by a logic of elimination and a genocidal imperative to rid the new white settler living space of its existing Indigenous inhabitants Challenging the still strongly held notion of American history as somehow exceptional or unique it locates the history of the United States and its colonial antecedents as a central part of rather than an exception to the emerging global histories of imperialism colonialism and genocide It also explores early American history in an imperial transnational and global frame showing how the precedent of the North American West and its colonial trope of Indian wars were used by like minded American and European expansionists to inspire and legitimate other imperial colonial adventures from the late nineteenth through the mid twentieth centuries

The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories John Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire

Transatlantic Abolitionism in the Age of Revolution J. R. Oldfield, 2013-08-08 An in depth comparative study of transatlantic abolitionism in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries

Early Modern Europe, 1450-1789 Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks, 2022-08-25 Covering European history from the invention of the printing press to the French Revolution the third edition of this best selling textbook is thoroughly updated with new scholarship and an emphasis on environmental history travel and migration race and cultural blending and the circulation of goods and knowledge Summaries timelines maps illustrations and discussion questions illuminate the narrative and support the student

Enhanced online content and sections on sources and methodology give students the tools they need to study early modern European history. Leading historian Merry Wiesner Hanks skillfully balances breadth and depth of coverage to create a strong narrative paying particular attention to the global context of European developments. She integrates discussion of gender, class, regional, and ethnic differences across the entirety of Europe and its overseas colonies, as well as the economic, political, religious, and cultural history of the period.
