Banana Wars Steve Striffler, Mark Moberg, 2003-11-20 The history of banana cultivation and its huge impact on Latin American history politics and culture Banana Wars Steve Striffler, Mark Moberg, 2003-11-20 The history of banana cultivation and its huge impact on Latin American history politics and culture Roots of Resistance Suyapa G. Portillo Villeda, 2021-03-16 Winner of the 2021 Sara A Whaley Prize of the National Women's Studies Association NWSA A first of its kind study of the working class culture of resistance on the Honduran North Coast and the radical organizing that challenged US capital and foreign intervention at the onset of the Cold War examining gender race and place On May 1 1954 striking banana workers on the North Coast of Honduras brought the regional economy to a standstill invigorating the Honduran labor movement and placing a series of demands on the US controlled banana industry Their actions ultimately galvanized a broader working class struggle and reawakened long suppressed leftist ideals The first account of its kind in English Roots of Resistance explores contemporary Honduran labor history through the story of the great banana strike of 1954 and centers the role of women in the narrative of the labor movement Drawing on extensive firsthand oral history and archival research Suyapa G Portillo Villeda examines the radical organizing that challenged US capital and foreign intervention in Honduras at the onset of the Cold War She reveals the everyday acts of resistance that laid the groundwork for the 1954 strike and argues that these often overlooked forms of resistance should inform analyses of present day labor and community organizing Roots of Resistance highlights the complexities of transnational company hierarchies gender and race relations and labor organizing that led to the banana workers strike and how these dynamics continue to reverberate in Honduras today

Global Unions Kate Bronfenbrenner, 2011-05-02 To meet the challenges of globalization unions must improve their understanding of the changing nature of corporate ownership structures and practices and they must develop alliances and strategies appropriate to the new environment Global Unions includes original research from scholars around the world on the range of innovative strategies that unions use to adapt to different circumstances industries countries and corporations in taking on the challenge of mounting cross border campaigns against global firms This collection emerges from a landmark conference where unionists academics and representatives of nongovernmental organizations from the Global South and the Global North met to devise strategies for labor to use when confronting the most powerful corporations such as Wal Mart and Exxon Mobil The workplaces discussed here include agriculture bananas maritime labor dock workers manufacturing apparel automobiles medical supplies food processing and services school bus drivers Kate Bronfenbrenner's introduction sets the stage followed by contributions describing specific examples from Asia Latin America and Europe Bronfenbrenner's conclusion focuses on the key lessons for strengthening union power in relation to global capital Mentoring, Methods, and Movements: Colloquium in Honor of Terence K.
