Designed for both newer and veteran teachers alike, this straightforward book offers simple techniques and concrete strategies to nurture reading and writing skills through Shared, Guided, Independent Reading, and Writing activities. This resource gives teachers in-depth lessons, plans that take the guesswork out of what is needed in the Language Arts classroom to implement the Balanced Literacy approach. Teaching With Author

Web Sites, K-8 Rose Reissman, Mark Gura, 2010 Drawing on extensive classroom experience, the authors demonstrate how shy students, reluctant readers, English language learners, and students who may be less active during class discussion become energized when they explore rich Web sites available from popular, respected children's authors. This book illustrates how this easy, no-risk technology available at a keystroke offers wide-ranging benefits, including: Inviting students into a literacy community of readers and writers; Fostering the development of discrete test-mandated skills; Capitalizing on and deepening students' familiarity with the digital world in ways that enhance their literacy growth. Educating Literacy

Teachers Online Lane W. Clarke, Susan Watts-Taffe, 2014-12-04 This book is a comprehensive guide for literacy teacher educators and professional development trainers who teach and work in online settings. The authors provide tools, techniques, and resources for developing courses, workshops, and other online learning experiences, including blended/hybrid delivery formats that combine face-to-face meetings with online practices. Moving away from traditional discussions in which technology and delivery systems dominate the conversation, this book focuses on the literacy instructor with techniques for building effective learning communities. The authors outline the unique pedagogical challenges posed by online courses and offer guidance for making decisions about what tools to use for specific instructional purposes. More than simply a how-to
