Baptism and Christian Identity Gordon S. Mikoski, 2009-07-02 In this book Gordon Mikoski examines how the sacrament of baptism the doctrine of the Trinity and the practice of Christian education together constitute a dynamic nexus that has the potential to foster congregations marked by the formation of both deep Christian identity and creative engagement in public arenas for the common good After establishing the necessity of holding baptism Trinity and ecclesial pedagogy together through his careful study of both Gregory of Nyssa and John Calvin Mikoski outlines how this nexus can function for contemporary Christian communities as they carry out the work of educational ministry He then explores the dynamics of faith formation in the contemporary American context concluding with a suggestive treatment of implications of the baptism Trinity pedagogy nexus for the educational ministry of a given congregation The Crisis of Christian

Nationalism Allen K. Shin, Larry R. Benfield, 2024-10-01 An urgent call for awareness of the dangers of Christian nationalism including the origins and implications In 2022 Bishop Curry charged the House of Bishops Theology Committee to study Christian nationalism an issue that has increasingly come to the forefront of conversations surrounding Christianity democracy and white supremacy The committee's methodology in an Anglican framework of scripture tradition reason and liturgy sheds light on the foundation of the movement and a path forward They argue that it is sinful and violates the first and second of the Ten Commandments Through careful examination of Christian Nationalism the Theology Committee warns members of the church not to fall into its trap but instead to be a light to the world How Youth Ministry Can Change

Theological Education - If We Let It Kenda Creasy Dean, Christy Lang Hearlson, 2016 Since 1993 forty nine theological seminaries have created opportunities for high school students to participate in on campus High School Theology Programs HSTPs that invite them to engage in serious biblical and theological study Many of the young people who take part in these programs go on to become pastoral or lay leaders in their churches What has made these programs so successful especially given the well documented crisis of faith among young people today In this book thirteen contributors many of whom have created or led one of these innovative theology programs investigate answers to this question They examine the pedagogical practices the HSTPs have in common and explore how they are contributing to the leadership of the church They then show how the lessons gleaned from these successful programs can help churches denominations and seminaries reimagine both theological education and youth ministry The Priesthood of All Believers and the Missio Dei Henry Joseph

Voss, 2016-10-25 The priesthood of all believers is a pillar undergirding Protestant ecclesiology Yet the doctrine has often been used to serve diverse agendas This book examines the doctrine's canonical catholic and contextual dimensions It first identifies the priesthood of all believers as a canonical doctrine based upon the royal priesthood of Christ and closely related to the believer's eschatological temple service and offering of spiritual sacrifices chapters 1-3 It secondly describes its catholic development by examining three paradigmatic shifts especially associated with Christendom chapters 4-6 and a suppression of the doctrine's missional component Finally the book argues that a Christian doctrine of the priesthood of all believers should be developed with a Christocentric Trinitarian understanding of the missio Dei This suggests there are especially appropriate ways for the royal priesthood to relate to the Father to the Son and to the Holy Spirit A canonically and catholically informed priesthood of all believers leads contextually to particular ecclesial practices These seven practices are 1 Baptism as public ordination to the royal priesthood 2 Prayer 3 Lectio Divina 4 Ministry 5 Church Discipline 6 Proclamation and 7 the Lord's Supper as the renewal of the royal priesthood

The Logic of the Spirit in Human Thought and Experience Dana R. Wright, Keith J. White, 2014-09-18 In March 2012 a small consultation convened on the campus of Princeton Theological Seminary where James E Loder Jr had served for forty years as the Mary D Synnott Professor of the Philosophy of Christian Education Members from the Child Theology Movement had begun to read Loder's work and they wanted to go further So they invited former students of Loder's to meet with them for conversations about things that really mattered to them and to Loder human beings and especially children the church's witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ and discerning the work of Spiritus Creator in the postmodern world The conversations proved rich and rewarding and some would even say they took on a life of their own serious scholarship set to the music of the Spirit's communion creating artistry forming new relationships inspiring new ideas and sustaining all of it amid much laughter joy and hope These essays taken from the papers delivered at the consultation are offered as a means of extending that conversation inspired by Loder's interdisciplinary practical theological science and his discernment of the logic of the Spirit They are offered with confidence that the same Spirit continues to work in all persons who hope for the Spirit's redemptive transformation of all creation beginning with children

The Roman Catholic Church and Its Recognition of the Validity of Baptism in the Name of Jesus (Acts 2:38) from 100 A.D. to 500 A.D. Kulwant Singh Boora, 2011-08-08 The patristic period saw the shift towards baptism in the trinitarian form being a later liturgical development the original form being in the name of Jesus Christ Acts 2:38 It is granted that documentary evidence has been preserved quite remarkably from the patristic period to at least the fifth century that shows and demonstrates the recognition of baptism in the name of Jesus by the Roman Catholic Church To such an extent that even the Roman Catholic Church has noted the validity of baptism in the name of Jesus in a recent call for ecumenical dialogue

Roman Catholic scholars and theologians alike are in agreement with the baptismal formula of the name of Jesus and make no pretense about it to the degree that even during the Ante Nicene period we find a trial of individual s who baptized in the name of Jesus flowing from period of the early Greek apologist s The patristic era to the fifth century will present a large body of literature that convincingly shows baptism in the name of Jesus being validly recognized even within literature housed within the collection of writings of St Cyprian Bishop of Carthage who was said to oppose such a practice The Roman Catholic Church at large voiced through its religious leaders Church Fathers Pope and theologians within this period have noted the original form of baptism being in the name of Jesus thereby continuing to acknowledge its validity and recognition

The Sign of the Gospel W. Travis McMaken, 2013-08-01 The theology of the sacraments is one of the most contested parts in Barth's theology none more so than the doctrine of baptism Barth's proposals on baptism have generated intense conversation and disagreement not only on its application to Protestant and ecumenical theology but even on its own consistency with Barth's larger dogmatic project McMaken takes up this controversial question sets it in its proper context within the history of doctrine and Barth's systematic work and argues for a constructive reclamation of infant baptism that accords with Barth's overarching theological concerns and insights notably from Barth's mature theological commitments Pivotaly this volume claims that a reorientation of the doctrine of baptism opens up a new perspective on the practice of infant baptism on the basis of Barth's theology this new perspective as well holds the potential for wide ecumenical application as a form of the proclamation of the gospel and a vital dimension of the church's missional vocation A commanding volume for scholars and students in systematic theology ecumenical studies and sacramental theology

Leading through the Water Paul Galbreath, 2011-04-29 In Leading through the Water Paul Galbreath demonstrates one way of linking baptismal practice to daily life as congregations provide an alternative witness to the cultural voices around us At the same time it expands the vision of baptism from a single occasion to a distinctive way of life within a community of faith and a primary metaphor for Christian discipleship In concert with Leading from the Table Galbreath continues to explore how the sacraments of baptism and communion connect with the world around us He is concerned that we too often separate church life from daily life marginalizing the gospel and the good news that God is with us at all times and places in our lives Here Galbreath explores Christian discipleship through baptism imagery in Scripture history and experience and identifies patterns of baptismal formation that guide the choices we make each day He follows the individual's journey through baptism beginning with inquiry through the preparation for baptism the event of baptism itself and a time of discernment following baptism This book will prompt conversations in congregations and classrooms about the ways that our distinct communities of faith can embody the gospel in the world and point to God's faithful presence Who God Says

You Are Klyne R. Snodgrass, 2018-01-08 WHO ARE YOU For respected New Testament scholar Klyne Snodgrass this is the most important question a person can ask the question from which everything else in life flows Other questions follow What made you who you are Who gets to say who you are And perhaps most vital Who does God say you are In this book Snodgrass offers wise guidance to all who are wrestling with such universal human questions He examines nine factors including one's body personal history commitments and boundaries that shape human identity and he expertly draws out what the Bible tells us about who God says we are how we fit within God's purposes and how our God-given identity can and must impact the way
