Barbarian Days A Surfing Life:

Barbarian Days William Finnegan, 2015-08-06 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize and William Hill Sports Book of the Year Barbarian Days is a deeply rendered self portrait of a lifelong surfer looking for transcendence that recalls early James Salter Geoff Dyer Observer Surfing only looks like a sport To devotees it is something else entirely a beautiful addiction a mental and physical study a passionate way of life New Yorker writer William Finnegan first started surfing as a young boy in California and Hawaii Barbarian Days is his immersive memoir of a life spent travelling the world chasing waves through the South Pacific Australia Asia Africa and beyond Finnegan describes the edgy yet enduring brotherhood forged among the swell of the surf and recalling his own apprenticeship to the world's most famous and challenging waves he considers the intense relationship formed between man board and water Barbarian Days is an old school adventure story a social history an extraordinary exploration of one man's gradual mastering of an exacting and little understood art It is a memoir of dangerous obsession and enchantment Reading this guy on the subject of waves and water is like reading Hemingway on bullfighting William Burroughs on controlled substances Updike on adultery a coming of age story seen through the gloss resin coat of a Civil Liberties Union partners with award winning authors Michael Chabon and Ayelet Waldman to bring together many of our greatest living writers each contributing an original piece inspired by a historic ACLU case On January 19 1920 a small group of idealists and visionaries including Helen Keller Jane Addams Roger Baldwin and Crystal Eastman founded the American Civil Liberties Union A century after its creation the ACLU remains the nation's premier defender of the rights and freedoms guaranteed by the Constitution In collaboration with the ACLU authors Michael Chabon and Ayelet Waldman have curated an anthology of essays about landmark cases in the organization's one hundred year history Fight of the Century takes you inside the trials and the stories that have shaped modern life Some of the most prominent cases that the ACLU has been involved in Brown v Board of Education Roe v Wade Miranda v Arizona need little introduction Others you may never even have heard of yet their outcomes quietly defined the world we live in now Familiar or little known each case springs to vivid life in the hands of the acclaimed writers who dive into the history narrate their personal experiences and debate the questions at the heart of each issue Hector Tobar introduces us to Ernesto Miranda the felon whose wrongful conviction inspired the now iconic Miranda rights which the police would later read to the man suspected of killing him Yaa Gyasi confronts the legacy of Brown v Board of Education in which the ACLU submitted a friend of the court brief questioning why a nation that has sent men to the moon still has public schools so unequal that they may as well be on different planets True to the ACLU's spirit of principled dissent Scott Turow offers a blistering critique of the ACLU's stance on campaign finance These powerful stories along with essays from Neil Gaiman Meg Wolitzer Salman Rushdie Ann Patchett Viet Thanh Nguyen Louise Erdrich George Saunders and many more remind us that the issues the ACLU has engaged over the past one hundred years remain as vital as ever today and that we can never take our liberties for granted Chabon and Waldman are donating their advance to the ACLU and the contributors are forgoing payment

Surfing Spaces Jon Anderson, 2022-08-04 The act of surfing involves highly skilled humans gliding sliding or otherwise riding waves of energy as they pass through water As this book argues however this act of surfing does not exist in isolation It is defined by the cultures and geographies that synergize with it by the places ideas images and other representations which at once reflect create and commodify this spatial practice This book innovatively explores the spaces of surf and surf riding informed specifically by the perspective of human geography Based on a range of critical turns within the social sciences the book explores the locations relational sensibilities and transformative nature of surfing spaces and examines how the spatial practice has been scripted by dominant surfing cultures The book details how prescriptive borders of access entitlement and marginalization have been created and how with the advent of new craft media and ideals they are being actively challenged to redefine surfing spaces in the twenty first century
