Why We Teach Now dares to challenge current notions of what it means to be a highly qualified teacher a la No Child Left Behind and demonstrates the depth of commitment and care teachers bring to their work with students families and communities This sequel to Nieto s popular book Why We Teach features powerful stories of classroom teachers from across the country as they give witness to their hopes and struggles to teach our nation s children Why We Teach Now offers us the voices of teachers like 42 year veteran Mary Ginley who wonders Why would anyone with any brains and imagination ever want to be a teacher Who then answers her own question affirmatively It s because somehow even today even with all the insanity all the rules all the poorly designed textbooks all the directives to teach to the test there are kids out there who need good teachers At a time when politicians policymakers and philanthropists are quick to denigrate teachers work and arrogantly speak for the profession Why We Teach Now offers teachers the room and respect to speak for themselves Once again Nieto gives teachers and those who care about education the inspiration and energy to embrace their role as advocates a role that is vital not only for the well being of students but also for the future of the profession and our nation The

Observation Protocol for Academic Literacies Magaly Lavadenz, Elvira G. Armas, 2024-01-16 This book presents a validated observation instrument to support and further develop the pedagogic expertise of teachers of English Learners in US schools Based on sociocultural and second language teaching and learning theories the Observation Protocol for Academic Literacies OPAL has a variety of uses across teacher preparation programs pre K 12 classroom contexts and school districts This book leads the reader through the process of using OPAL with real classroom observations in the form of vignettes in order to develop confidence and reliability scoring evidence in research based practices The book provides examples of its non evaluative uses to conduct research support teachers and identify areas of strength and weakness in their professional development It also offers researchers and policymakers a tool for collecting classroom based evidence to inform the implementation and refinement of English Learner programs Competencies in Teaching, Learning and Educational Leadership in the Digital Age J. Michael Spector, Dirk Ifenthaler, Demetrios G. Sampson, Pedro Isaias, 2016-07-26 This book makes a contribution to a global conversation about the competencies challenges and changes being introduced as a result of digital technologies This volume consists of four parts with the first being elaborated from each of the featured panelists at CELDA Cognition and Exploratory Learning in the Digital Age 2014 Part One is an introduction to the global conversation about competencies and challenges for 21st century teachers and learners Part Two discusses the changes in learning and instructional paradigms Part Three is a discussion of assessments and analytics for teachers and decision makers Lastly Part Four analyzes the changing tools and learning environments teachers and learners must face Each of the four parts has six chapters In addition the book opens with a paper by the keynote speaker aimed at the broad considerations to take into account with regard to instructional design and learning in the digital age The volume closes with a reflective piece on the progress towards systemic and sustainable improvements in educational systems in the early part of the 21st century
