Primitive Christianity William Cave, 1839

Nation and Religion Peter van der Veer, Hartmut Lehmann, 2020-10-06

Does modernity make religion politically irrelevant Conventional scholarly and popular wisdom says that it does The prevailing view assumes that the onset of western modernity characterized by the rise of nationalism the dominance of capitalism and the emergence of powerful state institutions favors secularism and relegates religion to the purely private realm This collection of essays on nationalism and religion in Europe and Asia challenges that view Contributors show that religion and politics are mixed together in complex and vitally important ways not just in the East but in the West as well The book focuses on four societies India Japan Britain and the Netherlands It shows that religion and nationalism in these societies combined to produce such notions as the nation being chosen for a historical task imperialism for example the possibility of national revival and political leadership as a form of salvation The volume also examines the qualities of religious discourse and practice that can be used for nationalist purposes paying special attention to how religion can help to give meaning to sacrifice in national struggle The book's comparative approach underscores that developments in colonizing and colonized countries too often considered separately are subtly interrelated In addition to the editors the contributors are Benedict R Anderson Talal Asad Susan Bayly Partha Chatterjee Frans Groot Harry Harootunian Hugh McLeod Barbara Metcalf and Peter van Rooden

Conflicted Power in Malawian Christianity

Fiedler, Klaus, 2015-12-01 The volume constitutes Klaus Fiedler's crowning contribution to scholarship Essays in the first half of the book focus on Malawian Christianity and how contrasting Powers Gospel and Secular engage each other creating social political and cultural conflict in the process In the second half Fiedler examines general missiological themes These essays provide a broader missiological background offering a theoretical framework necessary for appreciating the essays in the first half He concludes with a chapter that reviews selected seminal books on themes under study Throughout the volume Fiedler applies the restorationist revival theory he constructed in The Story of Faith Missions an earlier 1994 work putting emphasis on non classical missions and churches not systematically covered in earlier scholarship This volume the first of its kind on Malawian Christianity will long remain an indispensable text for those interested in Missiology and Malawian Christianity Lectures on the Evidences of Christianity, 1853 The Foundations of Christian England Anthony Maret-Crosby, 1997 The Christian Parlor Magazine, 1850 Popular Christianity Frederick Joseph Foxton, 1849 Lectures on the Evidences of Christianity William Henry Ruffner, 1852 General History of the Christian Religion and Church August Neander, 1850

Creating a Prodigal-Friendly Church Jeff Lucas, 2009-05-26 Most of us have prodigals in our lives whether a child brother sister husband wife or friend The ache for these dear ones is like no other They may hurt us and disappoint us but somehow we cannot stop loving them And yet we cannot live their lives for them The Prodigal Friendly Church looks at why people leave the church how we can retain them how we can reach those who have already gone and how we can help those who return feel like they belong Jeff Lucas offers no easy recipes for success but plenty of truth-telling hope and encouragement This book discusses the principles of Reach How do we reach those who've already left the church Return How do we help people return to the church Retain How do we retain the people we've worked so hard to reach Ultimately we are called to bring our prodigals to the cross of Christ for there we find the mingling of our own utter helplessness and God's total power to intervene and save When the Father's house is filled with the Father's love there is hope that the prodigals will come home
