Travel With A Gavel Willie McCarney, 2022-05-31 I was a most unlikely traveller. Growing up in County Tyrone, Northern Ireland, I had no great ambitions to travel other than to visit friends and family within a two or three mile radius. From the age of 11, I had to take the bus each day to the nearest grammar school, 10 miles away in Omagh. Apart from that, there was an annual one-day bus trip to Bundoran, a small seaside town in County Donegal. That was more than enough travelling for me. At the age of 19, I had never been to Belfast or Dublin and didn't feel I had missed anything. Sixty-two years later, when I sat down to write this travelogue, I realised that in the intervening years, I had visited seventy-five countries and all five continents, many of the countries visited multiple times. How had I morphed from someone with little interest in travel into someone who was ready to fly off to anywhere in the world at the drop of a hat? Were the wanderlust seeds sown in my formative years, or was I bitten by the travel bug after accepting an offer to represent Northern Ireland at an international conference? I begin by trying to answer that question before going on to recount my unique experiences and perceptions gathered from over 30 years of travel, along with insights into different countries, places, and peoples. I hope you will agree that the outcome presents as a rich and illuminating read.

Shift Matt Brown, 2007-09-12 Kevin Wilkins was on the verge of superstardom. He was peaking as an athlete, enjoying a meteoric rise to the upper echelon of professional hockey. But with his sights set on success and all of its glitter, he lost sight of the things that had been of central importance: his marriage, his family, his values, and the pure joy of the game. As his personal life unraveled, it began spilling over into his game triggering a search for what had been lost Shift is the story of Kevin's journey back to himself He is challenged to overcome his own recent history his insecurities and his greatest fears But the incentive is substantial true intimacy a clear mind and conscience comfort in his own skin and the ability to surrender to and savor the moment he is in With the help of an ailing old friend he resets his focus attempting to restore the most important relationships in his life including the one with himself Shift was inspired by the graduate research of the author While there are innumerable examples of elite performers who self destruct in the face of success developing a sense of entitlement and becoming intolerably self centered there are other examples of those who remain humble and well grounded These people inspire and enrich the lives of those around them They are able to enjoy sustainable performance and a purity of experience that eludes many of us Matt Brown sought out such examples and attempted to tap their wisdom This story is an amalgam of their insights
