Hedy Mühleck, 2020-02-26 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of Heidelberg Anglistisches Seminar course Postmodernism Theory and Fiction language English abstract This paper aims to show how Alasdair Gray's famous first novel Lanark fits the postmodern label Although Alasdair Gray has often been considered the postmodern Scottish writer par excellence he does not necessarily fit that description nor does he intend to fit it In this paper I will try to show how his famous Lanark A Life in Four Books lives up to a postmodern label and where it differentiates from it For this purpose I will begin with an outline of the concept of postmodern paying special attention to developments in Great Britain This outline can by no means provide a definition and shall only serve as defining guideline to which I will then compare the most striking aspects of Lanark after giving a brief overview of its structure and the progress of its development A Grav Playbook Alasdair Grav, 2009

Fokkema, 1988-01-01 The great Crawford, Thom Nairn, 1991 diversity of contexts in which the term Postmodernism is currently encountered reflects the remarkable success of a coinage that has been in circulation for only about forty years It has been used by philosophers sociologists art critics and literary historians to become finally a household word in the language of advertising and politics Before letting it fade to a derelict clich an attempt is made in this volume of essays to use its potential as a cultural concept for the analysis and understanding of contemporary literature and thought Unlikely Stories, Mostly Alasdair Gray, 1997 Alasdair Gray s first book of short stories is a masterful collection that further established him as one of Scotland's most original writers. This edition marks the first appearance by Gray in the Canongate Classics list Bevond Postmodernism Klaus Stierstorfer, 2003 After the veritable hype concerning postmodernism in the 1980s and early 1990s when guestions about when it began what it means and which texts it comprises were apt to trigger heated discussions the excitement has notably cooled down at the turn of the century Voices are now beginning to be heard which seem to suggest a new episteme in the making which points beyond postmodernism while it remains at the same time very uncertain whether what appears as newness is not rather a return to traditional concepts theoretical premises and authorial practices Contributors to this volume propose to explore new openings and recent developments in anglophone literatures and cultural theories which engage with issues seen to be central in the construction of a postmodern paradigm but deal with them in ways that promise new openings or a new International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation. This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism The Ends of Our Tethers: Thirteen Sorry Stories Alasdair Gray, 2004 This is a collection of thirteen tales from critically acclaimed author Alasdair Gray which challenge prejudice question social imbalance and explore human foibles Alasdair Gray Rodge Glass, 2008 Autobiographies and biographies Alasdair Grav, 199? The Transgressive Iain Banks Martyn Colebrook, Katharine Cox, 2013-07-30 This collection of 12 new essays brings together prominent literary experts to explore the importance of Scottish writer Iain M Banks both his mainstream and science fiction work It considers Banks as a habitual border crosser who makes things fresh and new by subversive and transgressive strategies The essays are divided into four thematic areas the Scottish context the geographies of his writing the impact of genre and a combined focus on gender games and play and will be of particular interest to scholars of contemporary literature Scottish literature and science fiction Postmodernist Strategies in Alasdair Gray's Lanark, a Life in 4 Books Luis de Juan, 2003 This book shows how Alasdair Gray s first novel ltI Lanark A Life in 4 Books shares some of the thematic and formal concerns of postmodernist literature The analysis is preceded by an introductory chapter which relates Gray to both the English and the Scottish literary traditions Next the author focuses on ltI Lanark and explores the way the novel offers a representation of society in terms of ontological instability and dystopia as well as the implications to be drawn from its experimental nature
