exclusive artistic vehicle to promote proletariat art model theater raises important questions about the complex relationships between women memory nation state revolution and visual culture Throughout this study Chen argues that dramatic norms inform both theatrical performance and everyday political behavior in contemporary China The "inscrutably Chinese" Church

Nathan Faries,2010-01-01 The first half of the twenty first century promises to be a time of great change for the Christian church in the People s Republic of China The situation is complex and fluid and the information gap between those on the inside and those outside of China is still significant though shrinking The Inscrutably Chinese Church moves readers nearer to the Chinese Christian experience as Nathan Faries helps foreign readers to see with greater clarity just how Chinese Christians view their government and themselves in relation to those ruling powers There still exists a measure of inscrutability about China and its complex relationship with religion that must be explained to the outsider It is this gap in understanding between insider points of view within China and those outsiders seeking knowledge about the Christian faith in China that Faries seeks to close Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing

Memoirs Christine Velde,2016-08-03 Although there have been many discussions about challenges faced by individuals going through East to West migrations there are few literary accounts about those moving from the West to the East Yet these migrations are becoming more frequent now due to advances in technology and the fact that a writer s work can now involve an increasingly global audience One way of expressing these challenges is through writing memoirs Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs exemplifies the craft of memoirs written while living in a foreign country and explains how this is different from writing from home The book is a theoretical analysis of xenotropism based on the work of three prominent writers in China s history Emily Hahn Nien Cheng and Qiu Xiaolong The author explores the relationship between xenotropism turning towards foreign ideals and practices its complexities and challenges and the writing of a memoir and its impact on mental health This discourse will contribute to new knowledge in the field of creative writing and Asian studies by illustrating how xenotropism or turning towards foreign ideals and practices results in both personal and artistic development and builds an understanding and acceptance of different cultures within an individual These processes of change and understanding in turn facilitate the writing of a memoir which is a cathartic process having a positive effect on one s mental state Readers interested in creative writing or Asian literary studies will be able to understand the creative process behind writing memoirs from a combination of personal research based literary and theoretical perspectives Homemaking

Catherine Wiley,Fiona R. Barnes,2021-11-18 First published in 1996 The present volume Homemaking Women Writers and the Politics and Poetics of Home enters the critical discourse on gender by way of two of its most pressing issues the politics of women s locations at the end of the twentieth century and the division of experience into public and private That the emergence of systematic feminist thought in the west coincided with the invention of private life should not surprise us Feminist thinkers from Mary Wollstonecrofton were quick to realize that the designation of the public and the private male and female was key to the subordination of women British Propaganda and Wars of Empire Christopher Tuck, 2016-04-15 Influence is a slippery concept yet one of tremendous relevance for those wishing to understand global politics From debates on the changing sources of power in the international system through to analyses of its value as an alternative to the active use of force as a policy instrument influence has become a recurrent theme in discussions of international relations and foreign policy In order to provide a better understanding of the multifaceted and shifting nature of influence this volume looks at how the British government employed various forms of pressure and persuasion to achieve its goals across the twentieth century By focusing on Britain a global actor with great power objectives but declining physical means the collection provides a wide range of case studies to assess how influence was brought to bear on a wide array of non western cultures and societies It furthermore allows for an assessment of just how effective or ineffective British efforts were at influencing non Western targets over a hundred years of operations By shedding important light on the efficacy of British efforts to sustain and advance its interests in the twentieth century the volume will be of interest not only to historians but to anyone interested in contemporary problems surrounding the operation of influence as a foreign policy tool A Noble Madness James Delbourgo, 2025-08-12 In this fascinating witty and provocative book Delbourgo's collectors range from emperors to scientists from shopaholics to taxonomists from bibliomaniacs to serial killers Give it to the collector in your life and watch the sparks fly Cathy Gere author of The Tomb of Agamemnon A captivating history of obsessive collectors from ancient looters and idolaters to fin de siècle decadents Freudian psychos and hoarders Collectors are often praised for their taste in art or contributions to science and considered great public benefactors But collectors have also been seen as dangerous obsessives who love objects too much Why From looters and idolaters to fin de siècle decadents and Freudian psychos A Noble Madness is a captivating history of obsessive collectors from ancient times to today From Roman emperors lusting after statues to modern day hoarders award winning author James Delbourgo tells the extraordinary story of fanatical collectors throughout history He explains how the idea first emerged that when we look at someone's collection we see a portrait of their soul complex intriguing yet possibly insane What Delbourgo calls the Romantic collecting self has always lurked on the dark side of humanity But this dark side has a silver lining Because obsessive collectors are driven by passion not profit they have been countercultural heroes in the modern imagination defying respectability and taste in the name of truth to self A grand portrait gallery of collectors in all their decadent glory A Noble Madness recounts the saga of the human urge to accumulate from Caligula to Marie Antoinette Balzac to Freud Norman Bates to Andy Warhol Collectors love of objects may be mad even dangerous But we want to believe their love's a noble madness because by expressing that love they are themselves Memory, Fluid Identity, and the Politics of Remembering Li Li, 2016-06-21 The Chinese Cultural Revolution is the single most important internal social event in contemporary Chinese history The plethora of history literary and artistic representations inspired by this event are critical to our understanding of the diversified often contested interpretations of contemporary China Li Li's critical examination of autobiographic filmic and fictional presentations in Memory Fluid Identity and the Politics of Remembering The Representations of the Chinese Cultural Revolution in English speaking Countries demonstrates that memory works not only reflect memories of those who lived through that period but memories about their past and more importantly about their identity remapping and artistic negotiation in a cross cultural environment Mao's Last Revolution Roderick MacFarquhar, Michael
