Lighthousekeeping By Jeanette Winterson:

Lighthousekeeping Jeanette Winterson, 2006-04-03 An orphaned girl is held spellbound by the tales of a lighthouse keeper on the Scottish coast in a novel by the Costa Award winning author of The Passion After her mother is literally swept away by the savage winds off the Atlantic coast of Salts Scotland never to be seen again the orphaned Silver is feeling particularly unmoored Taken in by the mysterious keeper of a lighthouse on Cape Wrath Silver finds an anchor in Mr Pew blind as old and legendary as a unicorn and a yarn spinner of persuasive power The tale he has to tell Silver is that of a nineteenth century clergyman named Babel Dark whose life was divided between a loving light and a mask of deceit Peopled with such luminaries as Charles Darwin and Robert Louis Stevenson Mr Pew's story within a story within a story soon unfolds like a map It's one that Silver must follow if she's to be led through her own darkness and to find her own meaning in life in this novel by a winner of the Costa Lambda and E M Forster Awards the author of Oranges are Not the Only Fruit Why Be Happy When You Could Be Normal and other acclaimed works In her sea soaked and hypnotic eighth novel Winterson turns the tale of an orphaned young girl and a blind old man into a fable about love and the power of storytelling Atmospheric and elusive Winterson's high modernist excursion is an inspired meditation on myth and language The New Yorker Jeanette Winterson Susana Onega Jaén, 2006-09-05 This is the first full length study of Jeanette Winterson's complete oeuvre offering detailed analysis of her nine novels as well as addressing her non fiction and minor fictional work Susana Onega combines the study of formal issues such as narrative structure perspective and point of view with thematic analyses approached from a variety of theoretical perspectives from narratology and feminist theory to Hermetic and Kabalistic symbolism to provide a comprehensive vertical analysis of Winterson's novels Jeanette Winterson Susana Onega, 2013-07-19 This is the first full length study of Jeanette Winterson's complete oeuvre offering detailed analysis of her nine novels as well as addressing her non fiction and minor fictional work Susana Onega combines the study of formal issues such as narrative structure perspective and point of view with thematic analyses approached from a variety of theoretical perspectives from narratology and feminist theory to Hermetic and Kabalistic symbolism to provide a comprehensive vertical analysis of Winterson's novels Onega reveals the books as complex linguistic artefacts crammed with intertextual echoes She demonstrates the inseparability of form and meaning within Winterson's work and positions her within the wider context of contemporary British fiction alongside fellow visionaries such as Peter Ackroyd Maureen Duffy and Marina Warner Jeanette Winterson and Religion Emily McAvan, 2021-06-17 Since the publication of her first novel Oranges Are Not the Only Fruit Jeanette Winterson quickly established herself as a powerful and insightful writer on sexuality and gender However the profound and persistent religious themes of her work have received much less critical attention Jeanette Winterson and Religion is the first in depth study of the ways in which Winterson navigates the sacred and the profane in the full range of her writing from her first novel to later works such as The PowerBook and The Stone Gods This book reads the author's work alongside the theological turn in the thought of such theorists as Alain Badiou John D Caputo and Julia Kristeva as well as feminist and queer theologians such as Catherine Keller and Marcella Althaus Reid In this way Jeanette Winterson and Religion reveals how Jeanette Winterson stakes out a unique and intriguing post secular literary form of the sacred

Transgressing Boundaries in Jeanette Winterson's Fiction Sonia Front,2009 The subsequent chapters of the book deal with selected questions from Jeanette Winterson s fiction such as gender issues love and eroticism language and time constituting areas within which Winterson s characters seek their identity As they contest and repudiate cliché s stereotypes and patterns their journey of self discovery is accomplished through transgression The book analyzes how the subversion of phallogocentric narrative and scenarios entails the reenvisioning of relations between the genders and reconceptualization of female desire The author attempts to determine the consequences of Winterson s manipulations with gender sexuality and time and her disruption of the binary system

Being the Body of Christ Chris Mounsey,2014-09-19 The book explores the preoccupation of key twentieth century English writers with theology and sexuality and how the Anglican Church has responded and continues to respond to the issue of homosexuality Analysing the work of Oscar Wilde E F Benson Edward Carpenter Jeanette Winterson and Alan Hollingshurst the book explores the literary tradition of exasperation at the church s obduracy against homosexuality

Ecocriticism and Women Writers J. Kostkowska,2013-06-17 Virginia Woolf Jeanette Winterson and Ali Smith share an ecological philosophy of the world as one highly interconnected entity comprised of multiple and equal human and non human participants This study argues that these writers texts have an ecological significance in fostering respect for and understanding of difference human and nonhuman

The Novels of Jeanette Winterson Merja Makinen,2005-04-20 This Reader s Guide brings together in an approachable form the range of review and critical material on the novels of Jeanette Winterson Covering all of Winterson s work from Oranges are Not the Only Fruit to The PowerBook Merja Makinen traces the early review reception of each novel on its publication and considers it alongside the larger critical debates that have subsequently evolved Makinen follows the controversial critical analysis of Winterson as a lesbian writer and develops the examination of the postmodern aspects of her work whether as postmodern or post Modern Including a brief discussion of Winterson s most recent novel Lighthouse Keeping this is an indispensable guide for anyone studying or simply interested in the work of one of Britain s most successful contemporary authors

Jeanette Winterson Sonya Andermahr,2008-11-25 In this comprehensive introduction to Winterson s work Sonya Andermahr considers its significance in the context of contemporary British culture and literary history Including an interview with the author this guide offers an accessible reading of all Winterson s work and an overview of the varied critical reception this has received

The Genesis of Fiction Terry R. Wright,2016-03-09 This book considers a range of twentieth century novelists who practise a creative mode of reading the Bible exploring aspects of the Book of Genesis which more conventional biblical criticism sometimes ignores Each chapter considers some of the interpretive challenges of the relevant story in Genesis especially those noted by rabbinic midrash which serves as a model for such creative rewriting of the biblical text All the novelists considered from Mark Twain John Steinbeck and Thomas Mann to Jeanette Winterson Anita Diamant and Jenny Diski are shown to have been aware of the midrashic tradition and in some cases to have incorporated significant elements from it into their own writing The questions these modern and postmodern writers ask of the Bible however go beyond those permitted by the rabbis and by other believing interpretive communities Each chapter therefore attempts to chart intertextually where the writers are coming from what principles govern their mode of reading and rewriting Genesis and what conclusions can be drawn about the ways in which it remains possible to relate to the Bible Creative Writing for Social Research Phillips, Richard, Kara, Helen, 2021-01-20 This groundbreaking book brings creative writing to social research Its innovative format includes creatively written contributions by researchers from a range of disciplines modelling the techniques outlined by the authors The book is user friendly and shows readers how to write creatively as a social researcher how creative writing can help researchers to work with participants and generate data how researchers can use creative writing to analyse data and communicate findings Inviting beginners and more experienced researchers to explore new ways of writing this book introduces readers to creatively written research in a variety of formats including plays and poems videos and comics It not only gives social researchers permission to write creatively but also shows them how to do so

The Culture of Confession from Augustine to Foucault Chloe Taylor, 2010-05-26 Drawing on the work of Foucault and Western confessional writings this book challenges the transhistorical and commonsense views of confession as an innate impulse resulting in the psychological liberation of the confessing subject Instead confessional desire is argued to be contingent and constraining and alternatives to confessional subjectivity are explored The Beach in Anglophone

Literatures and Cultures Ursula Kluwick, Virginia Richter, 2016-03-09 From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcater of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture The Atlantic

Rewriting/Reprising in Literature Claude Maisonnat, Josiane Paccaud-Huguet, Annie Ramel, 2009-10-02 This volume includes a series of 17 selected essays preceded by a methodological introduction whose purpose is to offer a fresh outlook on the question of rewriting reprising The argument taking for granted the phenomenon of intertextuality develops along three main axes the first one reconsiders the already debated issue of authority on post structuralist premises arguing that the origin of a text is untraceable The second looks at a phenomenon often associated with reprising especially in a post colonial context trauma whether individual or historical in relation to creative repetition The third axis offers a re reading of the question of voice introducing the notion of the textual voice understood as that part of the enunciative act over which the author has no control When writers make of reprising a deliberate practise we are tempted to believe that their position between homage and pillage presupposes the existence of a traceable source of the literary Word We must however face the problematic nature of enunciation the void on which it is founded Which leads us to the proposition that the act of reprising is a creation ex nihilo a certain mode of organisation around that void Besides in a century of major man made traumas whose effect was the tearing up of social fabrics reprising will assume a more complex significance the symptomatic repetitive stitching of what is being constantly ripped up

English Grammar for Literature Students Laura Wright, 2024-07-22 This book teaches the basics of the structure of the English language with plentiful extracts from novels poems and plays so that literature students learn how to identify parts of speech and discuss their effects No previous linguistics experience is assumed Each chapter is divided into a definition of a specific linguistic feature a demonstration of it in a literary text a literary exercise where readers identify it themselves and assess its effect and a brief summary of the teaching point Interpretation is subjective and readers will learn how to build linguistic evidence to support their view Essential knowledge for anyone who analyses English Literature

The Many Facets of Storytelling: Global Reflections on Narrative Complexity Melanie Rohse, Jennifer Jean Infanti, Nina Sabnani, Mahesh Nivargi, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 The Many Facets of Storytelling Global Reflections on Narrative Complexity explores a range of issues around narratives and their uses in various contexts and aspects of life The premise for this volume is that human beings are storytelling creatures and stories or narratives are part of our daily lives and have been for centuries From this starting point the authors in this volume offer their explorations reflections and findings from research and practice across disciplines and continents Certain functions of stories are uncovered education social change and identity formation for example Some specific uses of narratives are investigated such as in research methodology and representations in the media Finally other narratives are offered for themselves as performances and auto biographical reflections The chapters in this volume illustrate the many meanings of storytelling and thus account for the layers of complexity that are inevitable when we discuss narratives The Common
