HERMINA,2023-04-24 American writing in English has been acclaimed around the world for its radical innovative approaches towards novel writing The American writers match with the pace of the world with their individuality creativity and ideology The women novelists are recognized from their originality and versatility of their works They mirror the realistic picture of their contemporary world with the revolutionary spirit These women writers have shaped their literary endeavors to establish American literature as an inextricable part and have highlighted the new dimension and depth of American fiction The twentieth century novelists have played a noteworthy part in modern fiction and have viewed the society from a realistic attitude and humanistic concern Philosophy psychology and theology frame the method of characterization and plots The American culture is presented at the exploration of the psychological state of human mind They portray individuality within the social and political realities especially among the familial relationships According to feminist writers their writing is a process of discovering reality and an attempt to fathom and communicate the true significance of humanity Marilynne Robinson Rachel Sykes,Anna Maguire Elliott,Jennifer Daly,2022-03-29 Best known for a trilogy of historical novels set in the fictional town of Gilead Iowa Marilynne Robinson is a prolific writer teacher and public speaker who has won the Pulitzer Prize and was awarded the National Humanities Medal by Barack Obama This collection intervenes in Robinson s growing critical reputation pointing to new and exciting links between the author the historical settings of her novels and the contemporary themes of her fictional educational and theoretical work Introduced by a critical discussion from Professors Bridget Bennett Sarah Churchwell and Richard King Marilynne Robinson features analysis from a range of international academics and explores debates in race gender environment critical theory and more to suggest new and innovative readings of her work Marilynne Robinson's Worldly Gospel Ryan S. Kemp,Jordan Rodgers,2024-07-25 In her five novels and many essays Marilynne Robinson develops a distinctive Christian vision animated by a powerfully affirmative and sacramental attitude toward the physical world and everyday human life An in depth philosophical exploration of her work from Gilead to her extensive non fiction writing Marilynne Robinson s Worldly Gospel reads the author s theology as articulating a compelling response to the claim that Christianity is an otherworldly religion whose adherents seek through it to escape the misfortunes of this life Ryan Kemp and Jordan Rodgers argue that Robinson s work challenges the modern atheistic tradition dating back to Friedrich Nietzsche to present a unique form of contemporary faith that seeks to affirm the world rather than deny its claims Book Girl Sarah Clarkson,2018-09-04 When you hear a riveting story does it thrill your heart and stir your soul Do you hunger for truth and goodness Do you secretly relate to Belle s delight in the library in Beauty and the Beast If so you may be on your way to being a book girl Books were always Sarah Clarkson s delight Raised in the company of the lively Anne of Green Gables the brave Pevensie children of Narnia and the wise Austen heroines she discovered reading early on as a daily gift a way of encountering the world in all its wonder But what she came to realize as an adult was just how powerfully books had shaped her as a woman to live a story within that world to be a lifelong learner to grasp hope in struggle and to create and act with courage She s convinced that books can do the same for you Join Sarah in exploring the reading life as a gift and an adventure one meant to enrich broaden and delight you in each season of your life as a woman In Book Girl you ll discover how reading can strengthen your spiritual life and deepen your faith why a journey through classic literature might be just what you need and where to begin how stories form your sense of identity how Sarah s parents raised her to be a reader and what you can do to cultivate a love of reading in the growing readers around you and 20 annotated book lists including some old favorites and many new discoveries Whether you ve long considered yourself a reader or have dreams of becoming one

Book Girl will draw you into the life giving journey of becoming a woman who reads and lives well A Literary Cavalcade-VII Robert A. Parker,2017-04-19 Writer and editor Robert A Parker has followed up his six volume A Literary Cavalcade with a seventh volume This volume of criticism covers mainly the fiction he has read from 2013 to early 2017 His comments are informed by his Jesuit upbringing but also by an independent critical view that balances a moral and literary sensibility The writers here represent a broad range of writing styles cultural influences and moral philosophies And all are rated on their literary achievement the effectiveness of plot character and setting plus their recognition of the moral ethical and spiritual values of mankind Here is a unique critical perspective that measures the meaning of literature against the meaning of life Haunted by Christ Richard Harries,2018-09-20 W H Auden T S Eliot William Golding Elizabeth Jennings C S Lewis Flannery O Connor Stevie Smith These are some of the great poets and novelists whose struggles with faith find expression in their works and who demonstrate the fascinatingly different forms that faith can take in different times and places Richard Harries considers the work of twenty of these writers painting vivid pictures of their lives and times He also provides numerous critically sympathetic insights into the spiritual dimension of their writings The result is a book for readers of all religious persuasions especially those who are fascinated by the ways in which faith is refracted through the lens of great poetry and fiction Also by Richard Harries The Beauty and the Horror SPCK 2016 A major new defence of Christianity that does not flinch from asking difficult questions about the kind of God who could have created our world The Bookseller A heartening book confronting the hardest questions with wide knowledge and deep wisdom John Carey Chief Literary Reviewer Sunday Times An eloquent honest and engaging case for Christian faith The Tablet A deeply interesting book Mary Warnock Late-Life Love Susan Gubar,2018-11-13 Winning and intelligent An impressive often heartening addition to the literature of aging Heller McAlpin Wall Street Journal In this unique blend of memoir and literary commentary Bookpage acclaimed author and literary scholar Susan Gubar contemplates the beauty and strength of enduring love both for her husband and for the literature that has shaped her life Throughout the complications of devoted caregiving her own ongoing cancer treatments and a stressful move to a more manageable apartment Gubar proves that love and desire have no expiration date on the page or in life Late Life Love offers a resounding retort to ageist stereotypes appraises the obstacles unique to senior couples and celebrates second chances Fictional Worlds and the Moral Imagination Garry L. Hagberg,2020-12-11 This edited collection investigates the kinds of moral reflection we can undertake within the imaginative worlds of literature In philosophical contexts of ethical inquiry we can too easily forget that literary experience can play an important role in the cultivation of our ethical sensibilities Because our ethical lives are conducted in the real world fictional representations of this world can appear removed from ethical contemplation However as this stimulating volume shows the dichotomy between fact and fiction cannot be so easily categorised Moral perception moral sensitivity and ethical understanding more broadly may all be developed in a unique way through our imaginative life in fiction Moral quandaries are often presented in literature in ways more linguistically precise and descriptively complete than the ones we encounter in life whilst simultaneously offering space for contemplation The twelve original chapters in this volume examine literary texts including theatre and film in this light and taken together they show how serious reflection within fictional worlds can lead to a depth of humane insight The topics explored include the subtle ways that knowledge can function as a virtue issues concerning our relations to and understanding of each other the complex intertwining of virtues and vices in the modern world and the importance of bringing to light and reconsidering ethical presuppositions With an appreciation of the importance of richly contextualized particularity and the power of descriptive acuity the volume maps out the territory that philosophical reflection and literary engagement share Seasoned Speech James E. Beitler III,2019-05-07 Being a faithful disciple of Christ means having seasoned speech practicing a rhetoric that beneficially and persuasively imparts the surprising truth of the gospel James Beitler seeks to renew interest in and hunger for an effective Christian rhetoric by closely considering the work of five beloved Christian communicators C S Lewis Dorothy L Sayers Dietrich Bonhoeffer Desmond Tutu and Marilynne Robinson The World as Sacrament Michael Plekon,2017 Not a few figures writers poets activists teachers have focused on the presence of the Holy One in the ordinary on the many possibilities of worldly spirituality In this book pastor teacher and theologian Michael Plekon introduces us to several persons of faith from both the Western and Eastern Church traditions to illumine God s presence in everyday living the world as sacrament In this discovery of liturgy and life entwined Plekon shows how these lives and our own lives are texts about looking for and following God in everyday existence The Metadata Handbook, 2nd Ed. Renée Register,Thad McIlroy,2015-03-14 The Old Testament, Calvin, and the Reformed Tradition ,2024-05-21 The eleven essays in this volume demonstrate how Calvin and the Reformed tradition engage with the Old Testament The articles address two main areas Calvin s interpretation of certain Old Testament books and how Reformed thinkers in the global world study explain and apply the teaching of the Old Testament in their own contexts This volume is the expanded version of the papers presented at the 2019 Calvin Studies Society Colloquium Contributors include J Todd Billings Allison Brown Thomas J Davis Jeff Fisher Christine Kooi Maarten Kuivenhoven Scott Manetsch Graeme Murdock G Sujin Pak Yudha Thianto and Michael VanderWeele The Cambridge Companion to Twenty-First Century American Fiction Joshua Miller,2021-09-23 Reading lists course syllabi and prizes include the phrase 21st century American literature but no critical consensus exists regarding when the period began which works typify it how to conceptualize its aesthetic priorities and where its geographical boundaries lie Considerable criticism has been published on this extraordinary era but little programmatic analysis has assessed comprehensively the literary and critical theoretical output to help readers navigate the labyrinth of critical pathways In addition to ensuring broad coverage of many essential texts The Cambridge Companion to 21st Century American Fiction offers state of the field analyses of contemporary narrative studies that set the terms of current and future research and teaching Individual chapters illuminate critical engagements with emergent genres and concepts including flash fiction speculative fiction digital fiction alternative temporalities Afro futurism ecocriticism transgender queer studies anti carceral fiction precarity and post 9 11 fiction

Christianity as a Way of Life Kevin W Hector,2023-09-05 Focusing on Christianity s core practices a leading theologian imagines Christianity as a way of life oriented toward wisdom A Seminary Coop Notable Book of 2023 In this book Kevin W Hector argues that we can understand Christianity as a set of practices designed to transform one s way of perceiving and being in the world Hector examines practices that reorient us to God imitation corporate singing eating together friendship and likemindedness that transform our way of being in the world prayer wonder laughter lament and vocation and that reshape our way of being with others benevolence looking for the image of God in others forgiveness and activism Taken together the aim of these practices is to transform one s way of perceiving and acting in the face of success and failure risk and loss guilt and shame love and loss of control These transformations can add up to a transformation of one s very self To make sense of Christianity as a way of life in turn these practices must be understood within the context of Christian beliefs about sin Jesus redemption and eternal life Understanding them thus requires a systematic theology which Hector offers in this clear eyed ambitious and elegant interpretation of the Christian tradition Reimagining Apologetics Justin Ariel Bailey,2020-10-13 How should one proclaim of the gospel of Jesus Christ in a secular age Seeking to infuse apologetics with an appeal to the imagination the aesthetic and the affective Justin Bailey engages with two examples of those who have done apologetics through the imagination George MacDonald and Marilynne Robinson The Other Journal: Trauma The Other Journal,2015-12-14 FEATURING Ken Gonzales Day Angela Alaimo O Donnell Shelly Rambo Frank Seeburger Chelle Stearns PLUS God Gave Birth Tweeting the Impossible Forgiveness How Cancer Made Me Less of a Bastard and More Human What s Love Got to Do with It Theodicy Trauma and Divine Love Naming the Animals AND MORE
