Lord Of Darkness By Robert Silverberg:

Lord of Darkness Robert Silverberg,2024-12-10 From Hugo and Nebula Award winning author Robert Silverberg Lord of Darkness is a classic swashbuckling adventure Captured by pirates and brought to the west coast of Africa young British seaman Andrew Battell longs for his home in seventeenth century England His only hope of returning is to work hard and be awarded freedom by his Portuguese captors a freedom he is consistently denied As he is moved farther and farther inland away from the coast and any hope of a boat back to England Battell's dreams of freedom begin to dwindle Finally taking matters into his own hands he escapes and takes sanctuary among the Jaqqas a tribe of cannibalistic warriors lead by the sinister Lord of Darkness Battell recounts his own story in a vivid novel of furious force singular passion and intimate detail

Lord of Darkness Robert Silverberg, 2013 Set in the 17th century and based on a true life historical figure this novel is a swashbuckling tale of exotic lands romance and hair raising adventures Andrew Battell is a buccaneer on a British ship when he is taken prisoner by Portuguese pirates Injured and ailing Andrew is brought to the west coast of Africa where his only solace is Dona Teresa a young woman who nurses him back to health Once his health is restored Andrew s only hope to return home is to first serve his Portuguese masters but it is a hope that dwindles as he is pulled further and further into the interior of the continent into the land of the Jagga the region s most fierce and feared cannibal tribe overseen by the powerful Lord of Darkness Survival means becoming one with the Jagga if he can endure their gruesome rites and initiations Originally published in 1984 this story by a master of science fiction and fantasy demonstrates the timelessness of any great adventure and will provoke thought in a new audience on the determination to persevere at any cost Colonial and Postcolonial Rewritings of "Heart of Darkness" Regelind Farn, 2005 Joseph Conrad s novella Heart of Darkness 1899 is taught and read all over the world Everywhere novelists and travel writers respond to it in their own creative work I discuss 30 responses or rewritings from Africa India the Caribbean Australia Europe and the US Their perspectives include those of groups who identify with Conrad's Europeans and groups who feel close to his Africans and increasingly those of groups who situate themselves between these two extremes in various ways I identify world wide developments as well as themes strategies and paradigm shifts that correlate with different geopolitical situations Rewriters address the contribution Conrad has made to the identities of his very different readers and the patterns he has suggested for encounters In ever more intense dialogues people from all backgrounds work through images of themselves and of each other However like Conrad s narrator they also become aware of limits of language and communication Rewriters act as rereaders of the many layers of meaning in Heart of Darkness and thus imply that the reader's experience is as important as the author's This approach is increasingly developing into a use of discourse analytical methods in non theoretical texts Rewritings can bring Heart of Darkness close to the readers lives Rewriters champion processes of highly personal learning and unlearning as well as political and social approaches and can thus help readers rework their own cultural backgrounds Accordingly I both use close reading methods and take into account political and didactic intentions In conclusion I recommend reading Heart of Darkness together with one or more of its rewritings and outline some ideas for teaching such combinations After comprehensive introductions to Heart of Darkness and to the theory of rewritings I discuss works by the following authors in a convenient handbook format Ford Madox Ford Hueffer Leonard Woolf W Somerset Maugham Andre Gide Louis Ferdinand Celine Graham Greene Charlotte Jay Patrick White Chinua Achebe Wilson Harris Ngugi wa Thiong o Tayeb Salih Arun Joshi J M Coetzee V S Naipaul Robert Silverberg Caryl Phillips David Dabydeen Marlene NourbeSe Philip David Malouf Mineke Schipper Abdulrazak Gurnah Urs Widmer Redmond O Hanlon Arundhati Roy Barbara Kingsolver and Jeffrey Tayler
