Rupert Thomson Robert Duggan, Iain Robinson, Rhona Gordon, Kaye Mitchell, John McAuliffe, 2016 Rupert Thomson's innovative and unsettling writing ranges from dystopian alternative futures to meditations on crime and cultural memory and from historical fictions to explorations of contemporary gender violence The essays in this collection argue that Thomson's novels and memoir are compelling case studies in late twentieth and early twenty first century literature which engage with contemporary cultural and political preoccupations through persistently off beat and often experimental literary forms and trouble stable definitions of genre in the process With chapters focusing on borders panopticism haunting child sexual abuse shame atmosphere and intertextuality this collection offers a critical introduction to an author whose work has been overlooked by the academy for too long
