

My dear Karen,

Many couples make the mistake of thinking that two saying "I do!" means "We did it!" They assume that by the mere act of climbing the chancel steps they have already vaulted the stairs into seventh heaven.

Some of our sociologists say this originates with the Hollywood songwriters and television. Others blame the romantic writers. Or it is the fault of the song makers.

Right now, tracing the source is not so important as our understanding of the fact that marriage may be "made in heaven" in the original. But the whole deal is more like one of those hits which are sold dead and put together. I will take on Keeping Love in Marriage
