Incendiary Chris Cleave, 2011-01-11 A tragicomic open letter to Osama Bin Laden from a young London woman whose husband and son are killed in a terrorist attack on a soccer stadium Gold Chris Cleave, 2012 Cyclists Zoe and Kate are friends and athletic rivals for Olympic gold while Kate and her husband Jack also a world class cyclist must contend with the recurrence of their young daughter s leukemia Take My Hand: A Theological Memoir Andrew Taylor-Troutman,2013-02-13 Take My Hand is an invitation to experience a year of preaching through the eyes of a first year pastor Andrew Taylor Troutman reflects on his experience of ministry as a dynamic exchange between his theological education and the people in the pews Each chapter consists of Taylor Troutman s reflections about a particular aspect of living as a faith community and concludes with a sermon exploring similar themes and ideas As this book journeys through the Christian liturgical year Taylor Troutman considers a wide range of contemporary church issues including the role of children in worship and the communal practice of Sabbath He discusses topics as diverse as the Rapture the death penalty and church league softball Along the way readers will laugh at Sunday morning bloopers study biblical texts from new perspectives wrestle with theological questions and discover parallels between their own experience of faith and the life of this small rural congregation More than just a retrospective summary of events Take My Hand poignantly illustrates how a pastor s work on Sunday morning grows out of his or her engagement with the hopes and fears of daily life and the inspiring faith of men women and children in a church The Group Study Edition encourages people of different ages and experiences to discuss and enjoy the book while applying insights to their own communities of faith Security and Hospitality in Literature and Culture Jeffrey Clapp,Emily Ridge,2015-10-05 With contributions from an international array of scholars this volume opens a dialogue between discourses of security and hospitality in modern and contemporary literature and culture The chapters in the volume span domestic spaces and detention camps the experience of migration and the phenomena of tourism interpersonal exchanges and cross cultural interventions The volume explores the multifarious ways in which subjects citizens communities and states negotiate the mutual and potentially exclusive desires to secure themselves and offer hospitality to others From the individual s telephone and data to the threshold of the family home to the borders of the nation sites of securitization confound hospitality s injunction to openness gifting and refuge In demonstrating an interrelation between ongoing discussions of hospitality and the intensifying attention to security the book engages with a range of literary cultural and geopolitical contexts drawing on work from other disciplines including philosophy political science and sociology Further it defines a new interdisciplinary area of inquiry that resonates with current academic interests in world literature transnationalism and cosmopolitanism Contemporary Refugee Literature Sercan Hamza Bağlama,2025-06-30 In the twenty first century millions have been forcibly displaced due to ethno religious conflicts socio political instability and economic crises turning migration into a global phenomenon The traumatic realities of refugees imprisonment torture loss discrimination and marginalisation have increasingly become subjects of academic inquiry across multiple disciplines Literature has also played a crucial role in representing these complexities and offered fictionalised accounts of refugee experiences before during and after migration This book critically examines contemporary refugee narratives and highlights their potential to universalise the refugee experience It argues that while contemporary refugee literature challenges dominant representations and reclaims subjectivity it is also shaped by the Western literary marketplace which refashions displacement into marketable narratives of resilience and redemption tempering its radical potential and framing it within apolitical humanitarian discourse that prioritises empathy over structural critique The book calls for refugee narratives to resist market driven expectations and engage in epistemic disobedience challenging dominant frameworks that dictate how refugee experiences should be represented understood and consumed

Transcultural Identities in Contemporary Literature Irene Gilsenan Nordin, Julie Hansen, Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2013-10-01 In recent decades globalization has led to increased mobility and interconnectedness For a growing number of people contemporary life entails new local and transnational interdependencies which transform individual and collective allegiances

Contemporary literature often reflects these changes through its exploration of migrant experiences and transcultural identities Calling into question traditional definitions of culture many recent works of poetry and prose fiction go beyond the spatial boundaries of a given state emphasizing instead the mixing and collision of languages cultures and identities In doing so they also challenge recent and contemporary discourses about cultural identities fostering a more nuanced understanding of the complexities of identity formation processes in diverse transcultural frameworks This volume analyses how traditional understandings of culture as well as literary representations of identity constructs can be reconceptualized from a transcultural perspective In four thematic sections focusing on migration cosmopolitanism multiculturalism and literary translingualism the twelve essays included in this volume explore various facets of transculturality in contemporary poetry and fiction from around the world Contributors Malin Lidström Brock Katherina Dodou Pilar Cuder Domínguez Stefan Helgesson Christoph Houswitschka Carly McLaughlin Kristin Rebien J B Rollins Karen L Ryan Eric Sellin Mats Tegmark Carmen Zamorano Llena Irene Gilsenan Nordin is Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden She is founder and director of DUCIS Dalarna University Centre for Irish Studies and leads Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group Julie Hansen is Research Fellow at the Uppsala Centre for Russian and Eurasian Studies and teaches Russian literature in the Department of Modern Languages at Uppsala University Sweden Carmen Zamorano Llena is Associate Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden and member of Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group

The Outsider Interviews Jim Henderson, Todd Hunter, Craig Spinks, 2010-07-01 Statistics tell us that Christianity has an image problem But what are the stories behind the stats This question led Jim Henderson Todd Hunter and Craig Spinks to host a national interview tour with young non Christians and Christians in Kansas City Phoenix Denver and Seattle They wanted to hear why Christians get such a bad rap and what we can do to improve Inspired by David Kinnaman's bestselling book unChristian The Outsider Interviews provides close encounters with what a new generation really thinks of Christianity and helps readers learn to live faithfully in a fast changing world

The Poetics and Ethics of Attention in Contemporary British Narrative Jean-Michel Ganteau, 2022-12-27 This book uses attention as a prism through which to interrogate the literary text. It starts from analyses of the changes that the mediasphere and communication technologies have brought for the contemporary subject, submitting him/her to the tyranny of a new attention economy. My point is that the contemporary novel and memoir resist such influences and evince a great deal of resilience by promoting an ecology of attention. Cited on poetic options whose pragmatic effect is to develop an ethics of the particularist type. To do this, I draw on critical and theoretical literature hailing from various fields: psychology but also more prominently phenomenology, political philosophy and analytical philosophy, essentially Ordinary Language Philosophy alongside the ethics of care and vulnerability. By using a selection of fictional and non-fictional narratives, I address such issues as social invisibilities, climate change, AI and cognitive disability and end up drafting a poetics of attention. The Routledge

Companion to Literature and Human Rights Sophia McClennen, Alexandra Schultheis Moore, 2018-02-05 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Human Rights provides a comprehensive transnational and interdisciplinary map to this emerging field, offering a broad overview of human rights and literature while providing innovative readings on key topics. The first of its kind, this volume covers essential issues and themes necessarily crossing disciplines between the social sciences and humanities. Sections cover subjects with pieces on subjectivity, humanity, identity, gender, universality, the particular, the body, forms, visiting the different ways human rights stories are crafted and formed via the literary, the visual, the performative and the oral contexts, tracing the development of the literature over time and in relation to specific regions and historical events, impacts, considering the power and limits of human rights literature, rhetoric and visual culture. Drawn from many different global contexts, the essays offer an ideal introduction for those approaching the study of literature and human rights for the first time, looking for new insights and interdisciplinary perspectives or interested in new directions for future scholarship. Eleven Mark Watson, 2011-05-17 Xavier Ireland is the assumed name of a radio show host with a devoted following of listeners riveted by the sleepless loners who call in throughout the night to seek his advice Off the air he leads a low-key life of avoiding his neighbors playing Scrabble and maintaining an awkward friendship with his cohost Murray But his life begins to change when he meets a cleaning lady named Pippa who becomes a constant surprisingly necessary presence in his life as he starts facing up to his past and discovering solace and redemption in the most unexpected places British comedian Mark Watson's North American debut humorously and poignantly explores life and death strangers and friends heartache and comfort and whether the choices we don't make affect us just as powerfully as the ones we do

Reimagining Intervention in Young Lives Karen R. Foster, Dale C. Spencer, 2012-08-15 Poverty and unemployment are on the rise among Canadian youth Clearly something needs to change but current social assistance models are based on problematic assumptions about the lives and possible trajectories of risky young people Reimagining Intervention in Young Lives explores the difficulties many marginalized young people encounter with the support system available to them as well as the social forces that push them to the margins in the first place Drawn from interviews with forty five patrons of a youth drop in centre this important work resituates the nexus of the problem from the identification of individual risk factors to the recognition of the contradictions and barriers contained in the very social aid structures that are meant to bring their target populations back in to the fold of normal society Intervention is indeed necessary but more to challenge the prevailing structures that incorrectly presume how youth themselves interpret risk poverty and most important of all their own potential
