Rebuilding Public Confidence in Educational Assessment Mary Richardson, 2022-05-23 Educational assessment is important But in the twenty first century it is easy to feel that schooling and other phases of education are shaped entirely by certain assessments and that assessment is only about exam results The idea that test grades can accurately describe the aims and outcomes of education is unfair and reductive Yet it is a pervasive and persuasive discourse This book is about such discourses the stories we tell each other and how they impact public trust and confidence in educational assessment It explains the roots and nature of assessment discourses and proposes a restructuring of the debates in order to rebuild public confidence It aims to challenge dominant assessment discourses and demands a more nuanced informed debate about what happens in and beyond schools and how this influences public thinking Questioning the status quo needs buy in from policymakers teachers parents and students and from the broader public from journalists you me our friends and our children Using examples from international settings to explore the nature of trust in assessment discourses Rebuilding Public Confidence in Educational Assessment shows how these discourses can be reframed so that all aspects of the assessment system policymaking school planning home practice with students can be undertaken with confidence Teaching Languages with Screen Media Carmen Herrero, Marta F. Suarez, 2023-07-27 In recent years the expansion of screen media including film TV music videos and computer games has inspired new tools for both educators and learners This book illustrates how screen media can be exploited to support foreign language L2 teaching and learning Drawing on a range of theories and approaches from second language acquisition audio visual translation multimodality and new media and film studies this book provides both best practices and in depth research on this interdisciplinary field Areas of screen media enhanced learning and teaching are covered across 4 sections film and broadcast media in depth case studies translation and screen media and interactive media With a focus on pedagogical approaches to teaching and learning Spanish French German and English as a Foreign Language Teaching Languages with Screen Media presents innovative insights in this new interdisciplinary field MacRae's Blue Book ,1990 MacRae's Industrial Directory ,1997
