Step Aside Sarah M. Zerwin, 2024-12-09 All students can drive their own learning when we show them how Humanized equitable classrooms start with a commitment to building student agency Step Aside offers clear streamlined guidance for launching secondary students into high level work that hinges on their ideas and insights Sarah Zerwin writes from the complex and challenging space of daily life in a classroom She knows student driven learning does not mean students make all decisions about what happens in the classroom It occupies a more nuanced space where teachers carefully curate the classroom experience and teach students how to navigate it on their own Sarah has done the work to weave many resources into a Three Step Meaning Making Process that grows students thinking Each chapter offers effective flexible strategies to put into practice immediately Reading strategies that work for any text students need or want to read Writing strategies that work for any text students need or want to write Discussion strategies that students can use to talk things out with others no matter the subject Assessment strategies that show students how to set goals track their progress and learn anything they want to learn in their life in or out of school Especially when we notice our students are struggling Step Aside reminds us we need to hold ourselves accountable for keeping out of the way of the most important work Our students must read and write and think and discuss on their own to navigate the complexity of their lives
