The Irresistible Fairy Tale Jack Zipes, 2012. A provocative new theory about fairy tales from one of the world's leading authorities. If there is one genre that has captured the imagination of people in all walks of life throughout the world, it is the fairy tale. Yet we still have great difficulty understanding how it originated, evolved, and spread, or why so many people cannot resist its appeal, no matter how it changes or what form it takes. In this book, renowned fairy tale expert Jack Zipes presents a provocative new theory about why fairy tales were created and retold, and why they became such an indelible and infinitely adaptable part of cultures around the world. Drawing on cognitive science, evolutionary theory, anthropology, psychology, literary theory, and other fields, Zipes presents a nuanced argument about how fairy tales originated in ancient oral cultures, how they evolved through the rise of literary culture and print, and how in our own time they continue to change through their adaptation in an ever-growing variety of media. In making his case, Zipes considers a wide range of fascinating examples, including fairy tales told, collected, and written by women in the nineteenth century, Catherine Breillat's film adaptation of Perrault's Bluebeard, and contemporary fairy tale drawings, paintings, sculptures, and photographs that critique canonical print versions. While we may never be able to fully explain fairy tales, The Irresistible Fairy Tale provides a powerful theory of how and why they evolved, and why we still use them to make meaning of our lives.

Fairy-Tale Revivals in the Long Nineteenth Century Abigail Heiniger, 2023-09-12. Volume two explores the way a wide range of classic princess tales written by marginalized writers, Rapunzel and Snow White with their pale skin or long ropes of golden hair, are particularly popular vehicles for exploring and challenging racialized constructions of beauty. Marriage is the traditional vehicle of a happy ending in Princess tales, so marginalized responses to these tales also inherently respond to the doubly colonized position of women in the Anglophone world. The institution of marriage typically exposes the institutional oppression of colonized women. Authors include Charles Chesnutt, Jessie Fauset, Julia Kavanaugh, George Edwards, some of the unpublished manuscripts of Jewish Australian author Joseph Jacobs, and the earliest work of Sin ad de Valera, as well as fine de si cle illustrators such as Harry Clarke, and collected oral tales.
