Human rights are the basic rights that everyone is born to have it does not matter where you come from, where you are or what race you are, what colour you are or what gender you are, what matters is that you share the rights equal with dignity and respect for all. Human rights were first created by united nation in 1945 after the second world war. In 1948 Eleanor Roosevelt was an American diplomat activist and Politian who played a major role in drafting and adopting the declaration of human rights. When human rights were declared by united Nation their aim was to bring peace all around the world.

The human rights that were created by united nation were thirty articles and this are some of the human rights; everyone's born free and equal, No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each state. everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country. everyone has the right to a nationality. No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality. Men and women of full age, without any limitation due to race, nationality or religion, have the right to marry and to found a family. everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion. everyone has the right to work, to free choice of employment, to just and favorable conditions of work and to protection against unemployment.

Here is the reason why the human rights are important in our lives; To ensure people basic needs are met, by this it means that we cannot live without food, shelter, clothing, education, wealth, health and water. to protect vulnerable groups from abuse. this whereby young kids, Pregnant women and old people are taken care and are free from any harm towards them. to allow people to stand up to society corruption. It is when people have right to have a say and been listen and stop the corruption within the community. To encourage freedom of speech and expression.

By this people have the right to give their own opinion and ideas. to give people the freedom to practice any religion (or none). This when people have to decide on what to worship or believe and people should respect others decision. to allow people to love who they choose, this is when people are allowed to choose who they want to be with and spend their lives and no one should go against it because it is their right. to encourage equal work opportunities. It means that both men and women have equal rights as men in terms of everything. to give people access to education. This is to both men and women that they should have equal education as men for example scholarships.

Here are some of the women rights in Australia; Women have the rights not to be discriminated against law, custom and regulation. This is whereby women has the equal rights in politics, religion, and culture. Women should not...

Advancing a Human Rights Agenda in South Africa ,2009 Women and International Human Rights in Modern Times Celorio, Rosa,2022-01-21 This casebook provides an overview of the main international and regional legal standards related to the human rights of women and explores their development and practical application in light of contemporary times challenges and advances It navigates the nuances of the ongoing problems of discrimination and gender based violence and analyzes them in the context of modern challenges such as the COVID 19 pandemic the MeToo movement and its aftermath the growth of non state actors environment and climate change sexual orientation and gender identity and the digital world among others International Human Rights Abuses Against Women United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Human Rights and International Organizations,1991 Gender Equality, Citizenship and Human Rights Pauline Stoltz,Marina Svensson,2010-04-05 This comparative volume examines the ways in which current controversies and political legal and social struggles for gender equality raise conceptual questions and challenge our thinking on political theories of equality citizenship and human rights Bringing together scholars and activists who reflect upon challenges to gender equality citizenship and human rights in their respective societies it combines theoretical insights with empirically grounded studies The volume contextualises feminist political theory in China and the Nordic countries and subsequently puts it into a global perspective It tackles a complex set of tensions across a dense and shifting landscape and addresses issues including labour health democracy homosexuality migration and racism By cutting across geographical and disciplinary boundaries this book will be of interest to students and scholars of comparative politics gender studies human rights and also those interested in Scandinavian and Asian politics Critical Issues in Human Rights and Development Marks, Stephen P.,Rajagopal, Balakrishnan,2021-11-09 This collection addresses human rights and development for researchers policymakers and activists at a time of major challenges Critical issues in the title signifies both the urgency of the issues and the need for critical rethinking After exploring the overarching issues of development and economic theory gender climate change and disability the book focuses on issues of technology and trade education and information water and sanitation and work health housing and food Enforcement of Human Rights in Ethiopia Yohannes Eneyew Ayalew ,Wondemagegen Tadesse Goshu,2023-05-25 Enforcement has not been the most practiced business in the field of human rights in Ethiopia The absence of effective enforcement can be attributed to various factors including the absence of a normative framework insufficient political commitment inadequate institutional capacity and resources and limited awareness Despite recent legal reform initiatives purportedly driven by human rights demands it remains uncertain whether enforcement has undergone any significant changes Effective enforcement of human rights necessitates the existence of robust multi layered institutions at the national sub regional regional and international levels However in Ethiopia concerns have been raised about the capability of numerous normative instruments and mechanisms of human rights This volume comprises a collection of papers presented at a hybrid conference held at the Hilton Hotel Addis in April 2022 The conference organized by the School of Law of Addis Ababa University in collaboration with Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Ethiopia centered around the theme Enforcement of Human Rights in Ethiopia Old and New Challenges Its primary objective was to identify and analyze both old and new challenges in human rights enforcement in Ethiopia and propose strategies to overcome them The editors of this volume intend for it to address scholarly gaps in the implementation and enforcement of human rights in Ethiopia Among the notable findings from the chapters included in this volume is a significant disparity between recently reformed laws passed by the parliament and their execution by the executive body This disconnect demonstrates a failure to prioritize and enforce human rights in the country As such the volume suggests that the Ethiopian government must take the business of human rights enforcement seriously George W. Bush and the War on Women Barbara Finlay, 2008-02-29 This book takes a devastating look at the actions and policies of the George W Bush administration in terms of their impact on women in the United States and abroad Surprisingly this is a largely ignored aspect of Bush s presidency even though his policies have in many ways reversed or inhibited women s progress over the past three decades While the media have focused on his opposition to abortion Bush s less publicized anti feminist agenda has in fact been much more extensive He has opposed women s interests in multiple ways from shutting down women s offices in the government to de funding programs that assist women from opposing global women s rights treaties to supporting anti feminist organizations Contrary to his public claims that W stands for Women his policies appointments and actions reveal a strongly patriarchal bent This book also includes a chapter on the negative effects on women of the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Gender, Nutrition, and the Human Right to Adequate Food Anne C. Bellows, Flavio L.S.

Valente, Stefanie Lemke, María Daniela Núñez Burbano de Lara, 2015-12-07 This book introduces the human right to adequate food and nutrition as evolving concept and identifies two structural disconnects fueling food insecurity for a billion people and disproportionately affecting women children and rural food producers the separation of women s rights from their right to adequate food and nutrition and the fragmented attention to food as commodity and the medicalization of nutritional health Three conditions arising from these disconnects are discussed structural violence and discrimination frustrating the realization of women s human rights as well as their private and public contributions to food and nutrition security for all many women s experience of their and their children s simultaneously independent and intertwined subjectivities during pregnancy and breastfeeding being poorly understood in human rights law and abused by poorly regulated food and nutrition industry marketing practices and the neoliberal economic system s interference both with the autonomy and self determination of women and their communities and with the strengthening of sustainable diets based on democratically governed local food systems The book calls for a social movement led reconceptualization of the right to adequate food toward incorporating gender women s rights and nutrition based on the food sovereignty framework Women and

Migration in the U.S.-Mexico Borderlands Denise A. Segura, Patricia Zavella, 2007 Seminal essays on how women adapt to the structural transformations caused by the large migration from Mexico to the U S A how they create or contest representations of their identities in light of their marginality and give voice to their own agency Gender, Judging and the Courts in Africa J. Jarpa Dawuni, 2021-11-29 Women judges are playing increasingly prominent roles in many African judiciaries yet there remains very little comparative research on the subject Drawing on extensive cross national data and theoretical and empirical analysis this book provides a timely and broad ranging assessment of gender and judging in African judiciaries Employing different theoretical approaches the book investigates how women have fared within domestic African judiciaries as both actors and litigants It explores how women negotiate multiple hierarchies to access the judiciary and how gender related issues are handled in courts The chapters in the book provide policy theoretical and practical prescriptions to the challenges identified and offer recommendations for the future directions of gender and judging in the post COVID 19 era including the role of technology artificial intelligence social media and institutional transformations that can help promote women s rights Bringing together specific cases from Kenya Uganda Ghana Nigeria Zambia Tanzania and South Africa and regional bodies such as ECOWAS and the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights and covering a broad range of thematic reflections this book will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners of African law judicial politics judicial training and gender studies It will also be useful to bilateral and multilateral donor institutions financing gender sensitive judicial reform programs particularly in Africa The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com/books/oa-edit/10-4324/9780429327865/gender-judging-courts-africa-jarpa-dawuni has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license United States Statutes at Large United States, 1998
