Aelred Of Rievaulx Treatises And Pastoral Prayer Cistercian Fathers

Nathan Sumner Lefler

Aelred Of Rievaulx Treatises And Pastoral Prayer Cistercian Fathers:

The Works of Aelred of Rievaulx: Treatises. The pastoral prayer Saint Aelred (of Rievaulx), 1971 Treatises Aelred (von Rievaulx, Abt), 1971 Aelred of Rievaulx John R. Sommerfeldt, 2005 For the medieval Cistercian abbot Aelred of Rievaulx human beings are capable of happiness because human nature is good but the self defeating choices of humans have led to their misery A loving God leads humans to happiness by nudging their free wills toward choosing the good and then if they respond positively giving them the power to realize that good The power or virtue which perfects the human intellect is humility which is not meekness but self knowledge gained through introspection and meditation on and through nature and Scripture The will is perfected through love without which no human act is good Love for oneself for others and for God are complementary not competing acts of the will A special way of loving is friendship on which Aelred's teaching is perhaps the most complete and most sophisticated in the history of Christian thought Perfection is for Aelred attainable in this life since he sees perfection as a process not a static condition That condition will be attained in the total fulfillment of the afterlife

Aelred of Rievaulx on Love and Order in the World and the Church John R. Sommerfeldt, 2006 The universe is a product of God's infinite love according to the expansive thinking of Aelred of Rievaulx a Cistercian abbot of the Middle Ages Aelred sees human existence order and action as reflections of God's love But Aelred knows that although they have been created for happiness humans are neither perfect nor happy At the same time however he is sure that the flood of God's love can overwhelm people who do not reject this divine gift Because Aelred knows that humans exist only in relationship he searches out the social order necessary for happiness So he explores the nature of the church as a community and the support that each social group or calling gives to the whole of existence This study examines how Aelred sees God informing the cosmos and the humans who inhabit it according to the divine order and principle of love It follows Aelred's analysis of the disordering sources of human unhappiness which happens when humans reject God's love and then investigates Aelred's understanding of God's re ordering of the human condition through the gifts and graces flowing from his greatest gift his son Jesus BOOK JACKET The Cistercian Fathers and Their Monastic Theology Thomas Merton, 2016 These conferences presented by Thomas Merton to the novices at the Abbey of Gethsemani in 1963 1964 focus mainly on the life and writings of his great Cistercian predecessor St Bernard of Clairvaux 1090 1153 Guiding his students through Bernard's Marian sermons his treatise On the Love of God his controversy with Peter Abelard and above all his great series of sermons on the Song of Songs Merton reveals why Bernard was the major religious and cultural figure in Europe during the first half of the twelfth century and why he has remained one of the most influential spiritual theologians of Western Christianity from his own day until the present As James Finley writes in his preface to this volume Merton is teaching us in these notes how to be grateful and amazed that the ancient wisdom that shimmers and shines in the eloquent and beautiful things that mystics say is now flowing in our sincere desire to learn from God how to find our way to God Cistercian Fathers and Forefathers

Thomas Merton, 2018-09-15 This volume of previously uncollected studies makes a notable contribution to Merton's extensive and influential legacy This volume includes pieces on eleventh and twelfth century monastics by Thomas Merton perhaps the most significant American Catholic spiritual writer of the twentieth century The essays are difficult to locate elsewhere the conference transcriptions are available only here Prayer and Thought in Monastic Tradition Santha Bhattacharji, Dominic Mattos, Rowan Williams, 2014-03-27 Prayer and Thought in Monastic Tradition presents a chronological picture of the development of monastic thought and prayer from the early English Church Bede Adomnán through to the 17th Century and William Law's religious community at King's Cliffe Essays interact with different facets of monastic life assessing the development and contribution of figures such as Boniface the Venerable Bede Anselm of Canterbury and Bernard of Clairvaux The varying modes and outputs of the monastic life of prayer are considered with focus on the use of different literary techniques in the creation of monastic documents the interaction between monks and the laity the creation of prayers and the purpose and structure of prayer in different contexts The volume also discusses the nature of translation of classic monastic works and the difficulties the translator faces The highly distinguished contributors include G R Evans Sarah Foot Henry Mayr Harting Brian McGuire Henry Wansbrough and Rowan Williams Treatises Saint Aelred (of Rievaulx), 1971 The Medieval Mystical Tradition Marion Glasscoe, 1999 Interdisciplinary studies on medieval mystics and their cultural background The Milieu and Context of the Wooing Group Susannah M Chewning, 2009-03-01 This book brings together the most current interpretations of the Wooing Group from scholars currently working on the fields of medieval spirituality gender and the anchoritic tradition providing literary theological linguistic and cultural context for the works associated with the Wooing Group a collection of texts in English written by an unknown author in the late twelfth to early thirteenth centuries These works are unique in their context written almost certainly for a group of women living as anchoresses and recluses who were literate in English and were interested in guidance both in spiritual and worldly issues The book discusses and explains the impact and significance of these works and situates them within the continuum of medieval theological and literary culture Addressing Women in Early Medieval Religious Texts Kathryn Maude, 2021 An investigation into texts specifically addressed to women sheds new light on female literary cultures From the tenth to the twelfth centuries in England and Scotland we have scant evidence of women's writing How then can we access these women's experiences This book argues that by analysing texts deliberately written for and addressed directly to women we gain an insight into the horizons of possibility for their lives It examines religious texts addressed to women bringing together works that are more widely studied with others that are less well known and demonstrates continuities across Old English and Latin texts written for female readers and patrons across the Conquest period Case studies ranging from Irfic's sermons to Aelred's De institutione inclusarum from the Life of Christina of Markyate to Goscelin's saints lives for Wilton and Barking Abbeys attend to the intimate scripts women were encouraged to inhabit through a close focus on the form of the textual address By concentrating on address the book illuminates how women were encouraged to live and by following women s commissioning and copying of texts it demonstrates which of these textual addresses women valued and attempted to follow n address the book illuminates how women were encouraged to live and by following women s commissioning and copying of texts it demonstrates which of these textual addresses women valued and attempted to follow n address the book illuminates how women were encouraged to live and by following women s commissioning and copying of texts it demonstrates which of these textual addresses women valued and attempted to follow

Medieval Households David HERLIHY, David Herlihy, 2009-06-30 How should the medieval family be characterized Who formed the household and what were the ties of kinship law and affection that bound the members together David Herlihy explores these questions from ancient Greece to the households of fifteenth century Tuscany to provide a broad new interpretation of family life In a series of bold hypotheses he presents his ideas about the emergence of a distinctive medieval household and its transformation over a thousand years Ancient societies lacked the concept of the family as a moral unit and displayed an extraordinary variety of living arrangements from the huge palaces of the rich to the hovels of the slaves Not until the seventh and eighth centuries did families take on a more standard form as a result of the congruence of material circumstances ideological pressures and the force of cultural norms By the eleventh century families had acquired a characteristic kinship organization first visible among elites and then spreading to other classes From an indifferent network of descent through either male or female lines evolved the new concept of patrilineage or descent and inheritance through the male line For the first time a clear set of emotional ties linked family members It is the author s singular contribution to show how as they evolved from their heritages of either barbarian society or classical antiquity medieval households developed commensurable forms distinctive ties of kindred and a tighter moral and emotional unity to produce the family as we know it Herlihy s range of sources is prodigious ancient Roman and Greek authors Aquinas Augustine archives of monasteries sermons of saints civil and canon law inquisitorial records civil registers charters censuses and surveys wills marriage certificates birth records and more This well written book will be the starting point for all future studies of medieval domestic life

Nuns' Priests' Tales Fiona J. Griffiths, 2025-02-01 During the Middle Ages female monasteries relied on priests to provide for their spiritual care chiefly to celebrate Mass in their chapels but also to hear the confessions of their nuns and give last rites to their sick and dying These men were essential to the flourishing of female monasticism during the eleventh and twelfth centuries yet they rarely appear in scholarly accounts of the period Medieval sources are hardly more forthcoming Although medieval churchmen consistently acknowledged the necessity of male spiritual supervision in female monasteries they also warned against the dangers to men of association with women Nuns Priests Tales investigates gendered spiritual hierarchies from the perspective of nuns priests ordained men often local monks who served the spiritual needs of monastic women Celibacy misogyny and the presumption of men's withdrawal from women within the religious life have often been seen as markers of male spirituality during the period of church reform Yet as Fiona J Griffiths illustrates men's support and care for religious women could be central to male spirituality and pious practice Nuns priests frequently turned to women for prayer and intercession viewing women's prayers as superior to their own since they were the prayers of Christ's brides Casting nuns as the brides of Christ and adopting for themselves the role of paranymphus bridesman or friend of the bridegroom these men constructed a triangular spiritual relationship in which service to nuns was part of their dedication to Christ Focusing on men's spiritual ideas about women and their spiritual service to them Nuns Priests Tales reveals a clerical counter discourse in which spiritual care for women was depicted as a holy service and an act of devotion and obedience to Christ

Medieval Religion Constance H. Berman, 2005 Constance Hoffman Berman presents an indispensable collection of the most influential and revisionist work to be done on religion in the Middle Ages in the last two decades Bringing together an authoritative list of scholars from around the world this book is a comprehensive compilation of the most important work in this field Medieval Religion provides a valuable service for all those who study the Middle Ages church history or religion

A Companion to Ancrene Wisse Yoko Wada, 2010 Ancrene Wisse introduced through a variety of cultural and critical approaches which establish the originality and interest of the treatise

The Cambridge Companion to Medieval Women's Writing Carolyn Dinshaw, David Wallace, 2003-05-22 The Cambridge Companion to Medieval Women's Writing seeks to recover the lives and particular experiences of medieval women by concentrating on various kinds of texts the texts they wrote themselves as well as texts that attempted to shape limit or expand their lives The first section investigates the roles traditionally assigned to medieval women as virgins widows and wives it also considers female childhood and relations between women The second section explores social spaces including textuality itself for every surviving medieval manuscript bespeaks collaborative effort It considers women as authors as anchoresses dead to the world and as preachers and teachers in the world staking claims to authority without entering a pulpit The final section considers the lives and writings of remarkable women including Marie de France Heloise Joan of Arc Julian of Norwich Margery Kempe and female lyricists and romancers whose names are lost but whose texts survive

Cistercian Studies Cistercians, 1974

Theologizing Friendship Nathan Sumner Lefler, 2014-09-15 In Theologizing Friendship the author aims to revitalize Jean Leclercq's defense of monastic theology while expanding and qualifying some of the central theses expounded in Leclercq's magisterial The Love of Learning and the Desire for God The current work contributes to a revised and updated status quaestionis concerning the theological relationship between classical monasticism and scholasticism construed in more systematic and speculative terms than those of Leclercq rendered here through the lens of friendship as a theological topos The work shares with Ivan Illich's In the Vineyard of the Text the conviction that the rise of the Schools Paris Oxford etc constitutes one of the greatest intellectual watersheds in the history of Western civilization where Illich's ruminations are largely philosophical and particularly epistemological the author's are theological and metaphysical In his novel proposal that within the monastic and scholastic milieu there obtain parallel threefold analogies among friendship reading and theology the author not only offers an original contribution to current scholarship but gestures towards avenues for institutional self examination much needed by the contemporary modern and postmodern Academy

The Great Beginning of Cîteaux Konrad (Abbot of Eberbach), 2012 In the closing decades of the twelfth century the Cistercian Order found itself in a world rather different from the one in which it had been founded and began to thrive The Order was justifiably proud of its achievements and unparalleled diffusion across Europe It had become an important ecclesiastical and economic power in Europe and developed an institutional structure meant to sustain a large widespread organization Yet it had lost its influential spokesman Bernard of Clairvaux and as the century drew to a close religious sensibilities were changing The new mendicant orders the Franciscans and the Dominicans and the impulses they embodied were to shift the center of gravity in Christian religious life for centuries to come

Ancrene Wisse Cate Gunn, 2008 An introduction to Ancrene Wisse one of the most important works in English of the 13th century It offers a new contextualisation which engages with the history of lay piety and vernacular spirituality in the Middle Ages
