Aelred Of Rievaulx Spiritual Friendship Cistercian Studies Series:

Aelred of Rievaulx John R. Sommerfeldt, 2005 For the medieval Cistercian abbot Aelred of Rievaulx human beings are capable of happiness because human nature is good but the self defeating choices of humans have led to their misery A loving God leads humans to happiness by nudging their free wills toward choosing the good and then if they respond positively giving them the power to realize that good The power or virtue which perfects the human intellect is humility which is not meekness but self knowledge gained through introspection and meditation on and through nature and Scripture The will is perfected through love without which no human act is good Love for oneself for others and for God are complementary not competing acts of the will A special way of loving is friendship on which Aelred's teaching is perhaps the most complete and most sophisticated in the history of Christian thought Perfection is for Aelred attainable in this life since he sees perfection as a process not a static condition That condition will be attained in the total fulfillment of the afterlife

Aelred of Rievaulx on Love and Order in the World and the Church John R. Sommerfeldt, 2006 The universe is a product of God's infinite love according to the expansive thinking of Aelred of Rievaulx a Cistercian abbot of the Middle Ages Aelred sees human existence order and action as reflections of God's love But Aelred knows that although they have been created for happiness humans are neither perfect nor happy At the same time however he is sure that the flood of God's love can overwhelm people who do not reject this divine gift Because Aelred knows that humans exist only in relationship he searches out the social order necessary for happiness So he explores the nature of the church as a community and the support that each social group or calling gives to the whole of existence This study examines how Aelred sees God informing the cosmos and the humans who inhabit it according to the divine order and principle of love It follows Aelred's analysis of the disordering sources of human unhappiness which happens when humans reject God's love and then investigates Aelred's understanding of God's re-ordering of the human condition through the gifts and graces flowing from his greatest gift his son Jesus BOOK JACKET Saint Aelred of Rievaulx Paul Diemer, 1997
