The South African State Transformed? Louis A. Picard, Thomas M. Mogale, Caitlin C. Corrigan, 2024-09-10 This book examines the nature of the 1994 political transition in South Africa and its impact on post apartheid South Africa Specifically it examines the failures of liberalism within the context of the transitional process that led to the institution if not the practice of a non racial state in 1994 The term liberal is an eclectic term defining a several of views political and economic We use the term here within context but essentially define it as a commitment to open views the willingness to consider change and to value basic human rights The nature of institutional change in South Africa as it moved towards a democratic state would influence whether South Africa would succeed as a newly industrializing pluralist democratic country or collapse into yet another African failed state As South Africa moves toward its fourth decade of majority rule the view towards the future is much less promising than it was in 1994

Tata Mircea Raianu, 2021-07-06 An eye opening portrait of global capitalism spanning 150 years told through the history of the Tata corporation Nearly a century old the grand facade of Bombay House is hard to miss in the historic business district of Mumbai This is the iconic global headquarters of the Tata Group a multinational corporation that produces everything from salt to software After getting their start in the cotton and opium trades the Tatas a Parsi family from Navsari Gujarat ascended to commanding heights in the Indian economy by the time of independence in 1947 Over the course of its 150 year history Tata spun textiles forged steel generated hydroelectric power and took to the skies It also faced challenges from restive workers fighting for their rights and political leaders who sought to curb its power In this sweeping history Mircea Raianu tracks the fortunes of a family run business that was born during the high noon of the British Empire and went on to capture the world s attention with the headline making acquisition of luxury car manufacturer Jaguar Land Rover The growth of Tata was a complex process shaped by world historical forces the eclipse of imperial free trade the intertwined rise of nationalism and the developmental state and finally the return of globalization and market liberalization Today Tata is the leading light of one of the world s major economies selling steel chemicals food financial services and nearly everything else while operating philanthropic institutions that channel expert knowledge in fields such as engineering and medicine Based on painstaking research in the company s archive Tata elucidates how a titan of industry was created and what lessons its story may hold for the future of global capitalism
