Envy Of Angels Cathedral Schools And Social Ideas In Medieval Europe 950 1:

The Envy of Angels C. Stephen Jaeger, 2013-08-31 Before the rise of universities cathedral schools educated students in a course of studies aimed at perfecting their physical presence their manners and their eloquence The formula of cathedral schools was letters and manners litterae et mores which asserts a pedagogic program as broad as the modern letters and science The main instrument of what C Stephen Jaeger calls charismatic pedagogy was the master s personality his physical presence radiating a transforming force to his students In The Envy of Angels Jaeger explores this intriguing chapter in the history of ideas and higher learning and opens a new view of intellectual and social life in eleventh and early twelfth century Europe Guillaume de Machaut and Reims Anne Walters Robertson, 2002-09-26 Table of contents Proba the Prophet Sigrid Schottenius Cullhed, 2015-02-04 In Proba the Prophet The Christian Virgilian Cento of Faltonia Betitia Proba Sigrid Schottenius Cullhed offers an in depth study and reappraisal of the Cento of Proba and its reception Proba s poem belongs to the few extant Latin texts from Antiquity penned by a woman writer and one of the oldest Christian Latin poems Schottenius Cullhed surveys and challenges common preconceptions and biographical constructions of the poem s author and early readers and examines their impact on interpretations and evaluations of the text The author also develops and puts to use an alternative model for understanding the poem and convincingly shows how the Virgilian source texts form a complex net of internal and external biblical typologies within the Cento Laughter and Power in the Twelfth Century Peter J. A. Jones, 2019 Towards the end of the twelfth century powerful images of laughing kings and saints began to appear in texts circulating at the English royal court At the same time contemporaries began celebrating the wit humour and laughter of King Henry II r 1154 89 and his martyred Archbishop of Canterbury Saint Thomas Becket d 1170 Taking a broad genealogical approach Laughter and Power in the Twelfth Century traces the emergence of this powerful laughter through an immersive study of medieval intellectual literary social religious and political debates Focusing on a cultural renaissance in England the study situates laughter at the heart of the defining transformations of the second half of the 1100s With an expansive survey of theological and literary texts bringing a range of unedited manuscript material to light in the process Peter J A Jones exposes how twelfth century writers came to connect laughter with spiritual transcendence and justice and how this connection gave humour a unique political and spiritual power in both text and action Ultimately Jones argues that England s popular images of laughing kings and saints effectively reinstated a sublime charismatic authority something truly rebellious at a moment in history when bureaucracy and codification were first coming to dominate European political life

The Cambridge Critical Guide to Latin Literature Roy Gibson, Christopher Whitton, 2024-01-18 The Cambridge Critical Guide to Latin Literature offers a critical overview of work on Latin literature Where are we How did we get here Where to next Fifteen commissioned chapters along with an extensive introduction and Mary Beard s postscript approach these questions from a range of angles They aim not to codify the field but to give snapshots of the discipline from different perspectives and to offer provocations for future development The Critical Guide aims to stimulate reflection on how we engage with Latin literature Texts tools and territories are the three areas of focus The Guide situates the study of classical Latin literature within its global context from late antiquity to Neo Latin moving away from an exclusive focus on the pre 200 CE corpus It recalibrates links with adjoining disciplines history philosophy material culture linguistics political thought Greek and takes a fresh look at key tools editing reception intertextuality theory Flodoard of Rheims and the Writing of History in the Tenth Century Edward Roberts, 2019-09-05 A major re assessment of the Frankish historian Flodoard of Rheims one of the tenth century s most intriguing but neglected narrators The French of Medieval England Thelma S. Fenster, Carolyn P. Collette, 2017 Recent research has emphasised the importance of insular French in medieval English culture alongside English and Latin for a period of some four hundred years French variously labelled the French of England Anglo Norman Anglo French and Insular French rivalled these two languages The essays here focus on linguistic adaptation and translation in this new multilingual England where John Gower wrote in Latin while his contemporary Chaucer could break new ground in English The Cambridge Companion to Hildegard of Bingen Jennifer Bain, 2021-11-04 This volume explores the extraordinary life and works of Hildegard of Bingen medieval writer composer visionary and monastic founder

A Companion to Horace Gregson Davis, 2010-02-04 A Companion to Horace features a collection of commissioned interpretive essays by leading scholars in the field of Latin literature covering the entire generic range of works produced by Horace Features original essays by a wide range of leading literary scholars Exceeds expectations for the standard handbook by featuring essays that challenge rather than just summarize conventional views of Homer s work and influence Considers Horace s debt to his Greek predecessors Treats the reception of Horace from contemporary theoretical perspectives Offers up to date information and illustrations on the archaeological site traditionally identified as Horace s villa in the Sabine countryside Singing the New Song Katherine Zieman, 2013-02-12 In Singing the New Song Katherine Zieman examines the institutions and practices of the liturgy as central to changes in late medieval English understandings of the written word Where previous studies have described how writing comes to supplant oral forms of communication or how it objectifies relations of power formerly transacted through ritual and ceremony Zieman shifts the critical gaze to the ritual performance of written texts in the liturgy effectively changing the focus from writing to reading Beginning with a history of the elementary educational institution known to modern scholars as the song school Zieman shows the continued centrality of liturgical and devotional texts to the earliest stages of literacy training and spiritual formation Originally these schools were created to provide liturgical training for literate adult performers who had already mastered the grammatical arts From the late thirteenth century on however the attention and resources of both lay and clerical patrons came to be devoted specifically to young boys centering on their function as choristers Because choristers needed to be trained before they received instruction in grammar the liturgical skills of reading and singing took on a different meaning This shift in priorities

Zieman argues is paradigmatic of broader cultural changes in which increased interest in liturgical performance and varying definitions attached to reading and singing caused these practices to take on a life of their own unyoked from their original institutional settings of monastery and cathedral. Unmoored from the context of the choral community reading and singing developed into discrete portable skills that could be put to use in a number of contexts sacred and secular Latin and vernacular. Ultimately they would be carried into a wider public sphere where they would be transformed into public modes of discourse appropriated by vernacular writers such as Geoffrey Chaucer and William Langland. The Cambridge Companion to the Cistercian Order Mette Birkedal Bruun, 2013 Presents the Order's figureheads practical life and spiritual horizon and its contribution to medieval Europe's religious cultural and political climate. The Ten Commandments Lesley J. Smith, 2014-06-05 What did the ten commandments have to teach? Using the commentaries of a group of scholars from c. 1150-1350 such as Peter Lombard, Robert Grosseteste and Bonaventure along with confessors' manuals, mystery plays and sermon material, this book investigates the place of the Decalogue in medieval thought. Beginning with the overarching themes of law and number, it moves to consider what sort of God is revealed in the commandments of the first stone tablet and uncovers the structure that lay behind the precepts dealing with one's neighbour. Interpreting the commandments allows us to look at issues of method and individuality in the medieval schools and ask whether answers intended for the classroom could make an impression on the wider world. Ennobling Love C. Stephen Jaeger, 2010-08-03 Richard Duke of Aquitaine, son of the King of England, remained with Philip the King of France who so honored him for so long that they ate every day at the same table and from the same dish and at night their beds did not separate them. And the King of France loved him as his own soul and they loved each other so much that the King of England was absolutely astonished at the vehement love between them and marveled at what it could mean. Public avowals of love between men were common from antiquity through the Middle Ages. What do these expressions leave to interpretation? An extraordinary amount, as Stephen Jaeger demonstrates. Unlike current efforts to read medieval culture through modern mores, Stephen Jaeger contends that love and sex in the Middle Ages relate to each other very differently than in the postmedieval period. Love was not only a mode of feeling and desiring or an exclusively private sentiment but a way of behaving and a social ideal. It was a form of aristocratic self-representation, its social function to show forth virtue in lovers, to raise their inner worth, to increase their honor and enhance their reputation. To judge from the number of royal love relationships documented, it seems normal rather than exceptional that a king loved his favorites and the courtiers and advisors, clerical and lay, loved their superiors and each other. Jaeger makes an elaborate, accessible and certain to be controversial case for the centrality of friendship and love as aristocratic, lay, clerical and monastic ideals. Ennobling Love is a magisterial work, a book that charts the social constructions of passion and sexuality in our own times no less than in the Middle Ages. Anger's Past Barbara H. Rosenwein, 1998 This book considers the role of anger in the social lives and conceptual universes of a varied and significant cross-section of medieval people.

monks saints kings lords and peasants Friendship, Love, and Brotherhood in Medieval Northern Europe, c. 1000-1200 Lars Hermanson, 2019-05-15 In this book Lars Hermanson discusses how religious beliefs and norms steered attitudes to friendship and love and how these ways of thinking affected social identity and political behaviour With examples taken from eleventh and twelfth century northern Europe the author investigates why friendship was praised both by brotherhoods of aristocratic warriors and by brethren within monastery walls Social and political functions rested on personal connections rather than a strong central state in the High Middle Ages This meant that friendship was an important pragmatic instrument for establishing social order and achieving success in the game of politics Feuding and Peace-Making in Eleventh-Century France Stephen D. White, 2024-10-28 The essays in this volume discuss feuding and peacemaking in France during a period extending from the mid 10th to the early 12th century They treat various aspects of so called dispute processing a term coined by legal anthropologists to refer to the political processes and discursive practices through which conflict is mediated politically socially legally and culturally Each of the essays can be read both as one element in a larger critique of the theory that a feudal revolution in c 1000 initiated a century long era of feudal anarchy in France and as a study on a particular topic in medieval European legal and political history These include feuding violence the emotional dimensions of conflicts among elites the role of norms and normative argument in disputes the uses of unilateral ordeals and judicial duels in litigation and alternative strategies for terminating disputes The Play about the Antichrist (Ludus de Antichristo) Kyle A. Thomas, Carol Symes, 2023-07-24 The Play about the Antichrist Ludus de Antichristo was composed around 1160 at the imperial Bavarian abbey of Tegernsee at a critical point in the power struggle between the papacy and Emperor Frederick Barbarossa This new translation and commentary reveals this drama to be strikingly representative of the role that theatrical performance played in shaping contemporary politics diplomacy and public opinion It also shows how drama functioned as an integral component of the educational curricula of elite monastic institutions like Tegernsee where political administrators and diplomats were trained and how performance served as a common connective lingua franca among monasteries in twelfth century Bavaria In this new translation Carol Symes provides the first full and faithful rendering of the play's dynamic language maintaining the meter rhyme scheme and stage directions of the Latin original and restoring the liturgical elements embedded in the text Kyle A Thomas whose fully staged production tested the theatricality of this translation provides a new historical and dramaturgical analysis of the play's rich interpretive and performative possibilities The Winged Chariot Lambertus Marie De Rijk, María Kardaun, Joke Spruyt, 2000 This volume discusses important chapters of the history of Platonism from its pre Socratic roots to the Middle Ages It includes papers on Plato's and Platonic semantics metaphysics theology logic epistemology natural philosophy and philosophy of art Isocrates James R. Muir, 2022-06-02 Isocrates is one of the most remarkable and influential figures in the history of human thought The influence of his ideas in the history of historical writing rhetoric the visual arts music religion and theology political science philosophy and above all educational philosophy and practice in Europe Australia North America North Africa and the Middle East are well established and widely known This book argues careful study of the educational philosophy of Isocrates and its legacy can contribute to an improved understanding of the historiography of educational thought his distinctive normative methodology in both political and educational philosophy and his arguments about the primary importance of the virtues of self knowledge and realistic self appraisal for educational philosophers and practitioners At a time when educational philosophy has an increasingly precarious academic existence and educationists are actively seeking new historiographical and methodological approaches to the philosophical study of education there is much to be gained by recovering and reevaluating the historiography and normative methodology of Isocrates and the role they play in educational discourse and practice today

A Companion to Hildegard of Bingen ,2013-10-17 This volume provides an introduction to Hildegard and her works with a focus on the historical literary and religious context of the seer s writings and music Its essays explore the cultural milieu that informs Hildegard s life and various compositions and examine understudied aspects of the magistra s oeuvre such as the interconnections among her works A Companion to Hildegard of Bingen builds on earlier studies and presents to an English speaking audience various facets of the seer s historical persona and her cultural significance so that the reader can grasp and appreciate the scope of the unparalleled life and contributions of Hildegard who was declared to be a saint and a doctor of the Church in 2012 Contributors include Michael Embach Margot E Fassler Franz J Felten George Ferzoco William T Flynn Felix Heinzer Beverly Mayne Kienzle Tova Leigh Choate Constant J Mews Susanne Ruge Travis A Stevens Debra L Stoudt and Justin A Stover
