The Bedhaya Court Dances of Central Java Clara Brakel-Papenhuijzen, 2023-11-27 The ritual bedhaya dances of the Central Javanese courts form a highly valued expression of Javanese culture These stately dance forms comprising complex choreographies executed to the accompaniment of archaic songs and gamelan music are part of the cultural tradition of the Mataram dynasty They have been preserved in the two main court centres of Central Java Surakarta and Yogyakarta The contents of the book range from a relatively general introduction to a detailed analysis of structural formal features of the dances Included are theories on the origin social context and esoteric meaning as well as 19th and 20th century scores of performances The two main components of the art form choral singing and group dancing have each been discussed in a separate chapter A number of song texts and choreographies transcribed from palace manuscripts are published for the first time These songs represent an archaic singing style which holds important information on the development of Javanese vocal and instrumental music An analysis of bedhaya choreographies which are seldom performed nowadays may serve to prevent the impending disappearance of this beautiful and stylized art form The choreographic discussion has been visualized on a 60 minute video tape produced from research material which was filmed between 1983 1985 This video tape may be ordered from the author

Sites, Bodies and Stories Susan Legêne, Bambang Purwanto, Henk Schulte Nordholt, 2015-06-22 Sites Bodies and Stories examines the intimate links between history and heritage as they have developed in postcolonial Indonesia Sites discussed in the book include Borobudur in Central Java a village in Flores built around megalithic formations and ancestral houses in Alor Bodies refers to legacies of physical anthropology exhibition practices and Hollywood movies The Stories are accounts of the Mambesak movement in Papua the inclusion of wayang puppetry in UNESCO's List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity and subaltern history as written by the people of Blambangan in their search for national heroes Throughout the book citizenship entitlement figures as a leitmotif in heritage initiatives Contemporary heritage formation in Indonesia is intrinsically linked to a canon of Indonesian art and culture developed during Dutch colonial rule institutionalized within Indonesia's heritage infrastructure and in the Netherlands and echoed in museums and exhibitions throughout the world The authors in this volume acknowledge colonial legacies but argue against a colonial determinism considering instead how contemporary heritage initiatives can lead to new interpretations of the past

Frontiers of Fear Peter Boomgaard, 2008-10-01 For centuries reports of man eating tigers in Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore have circulated shrouded in myth and anecdote This fascinating book documents the big cat human relationship in this area during its 350 year colonial period re creating a world in which people feared tigers but often came into contact with them because these fierce predators prefer habitats created by human interference Peter Boomgaard shows how people and tigers adapted to each other's behavior each transmitting this learning from one generation to the next He discusses the origins of stories and rituals about tigers and explains how cultural biases of Europeans and class differences among indigenous populations affected attitudes toward the tigers He provides figures on their populations in different eras and analyzes the factors contributing to their present status as an endangered species Interweaving stories about Malay kings colonial rulers tiger charmers and bounty hunters with facts about tigers and their way of life the book is an engrossing combination of environmental and micro history

Weaving Patterns of Life Marie-Louise Nabholz-Kartaschoff, Ruth Barnes, David J. Stuart-Fox, 1993      Epic Adventures Jan Jansen, Hendrik M. J. Maier, 2004 The many adventures of the epic in modern times are fascinating topics in themselves The Romantics claimed that every self respecting nation should at some time have had one and they set out to reconstruct these epics for political as well as cultural reasons Such epics represented earlier stages in the development of nation states and in this modern world they were for a long time hard to appreciate The introduction of tape recorders however brought the epic back in the limelight It became fashionable for scholars to record long oral narratives and to present them as long written poems that reflected deeply ingrained ideas Because of this technology the idea of the epic was revitalized This volume presents critical analyses of epics in Sub Saharan Africa the former Soviet Union South East Asia Medieval Europe and America and discusses the process of revitalization sometimes even invention of epics in particular historical political and academic contexts Jan Jansen is a member of the Department of Anthropology of the University of Leiden Netherlands Henk M J Maier is professor in the Department of Languages and Cultures of Southeast Asia and Oceania of the University of Leiden Netherlands      Life in the Javanese Kraton Aart Van Beek, 1990 The Sultan s palace or Kraton is the cultural and mystical epicentre of Java While most of its economic and political power has vanished the Kraton s occupants continue to be the prototype of refinement for the majority of Central Javanese Beginning with a brief history of the Sultanates of Solo and Jogjakarta this beautifully illustrated book explores the religious and cultural symbolism associated with the palace buildings It also offers a fascinating insight into court life enlivened by personal reminiscences of members of the royal family fascinating insight into court life and personal reminiscences of members of the royal family

Niessen,2009 Weaving in the Batak region of North Sumatra is an ancient art practised by women and exhibits some of the oldest design and technical features in the Indonesian archipelago Since colonial annexation at the turn of the twentieth century innovative Batak weavers from the Lake Toba region in northern Sumatra have successfully adapted their art to new economic and social circumstances but at great cost In recent decades weaving has fallen into decline and the tradition is threatened while at the same time Batak textiles are highly prized in museum collections around the world Legacy in cloth offers the first definitive study of the woven heritage of the Toba Simalungun and Karo Batak The most complete analysis of Batak textiles ever published it provides a record of more than 100 different design types including archival and contemporary photographs showing how the textiles are woven and how they are used in Batak culture     Weavings of Power and Might Alit Veldhuisen-Djajasoebrota,1988     Directory of West European Indonesianists, 1987 ,1987     Asian Folklore Studies ,1996     In the Shadow of Agriculture Paul Alexander,P.
