Blue Marrow Blue Marrow:

A Matter of Spirit Susan McCaslin,1998 The suggestion is here that soul making is the true vocation of the poet Poetry is personal speech on universal experience and in this selection of poems the individual approach to the sacred is emphasized over any adherence to orthodoxy or doctrine In this anthology spiritual traditions of East and West are filtered through the personal vision of sixteen contemporary Canadian poets These poets are joined together not by faith and similar belief but in each following their own path to truth Their poems and stories and editor Susan McCaslin's insightful introduction illuminated fundamental themes of spiritual life that resonated in each of us Blue Marrow,2021 Garden Vegetables, and how to Cultivate Them Fearing Burr,1866 That's Raven Talk Mareike Neuhaus,2011 Annotation A reading strategy for orality in North American Indigenous literatures that is grounded in Indigenous linguistic traditions The Book of the Garden Charles McIntosh,1855 The Book of the Garden Charles MACINTOSH (Botanist.),1855 Irish Farmer's and Gardener's Magazine and Register of Rural Affairs ,1834 The Horticultural Register,1834 Horticultural Register and General Magazine of All Useful and Interesting Discoveries Connected with Natural History and Rural Subjects ,1834 In the Belly of a Laughing God Jennifer Andrews,Jennifer Courtney Elizabeth Andrews,2011-01-01 In the Belly of a Laughing God examines how eight contemporary Native women poets in Canada and the United States employ humour and irony to address the intricacies of race gender and nationality SWORD GOD EMPEROR CHAPTER 39 Dam Vien Tich,2025-07-26 SWORD GOD EMPEROR CHAPTER 39 It seemed that Ding Hao didn't know that his whereabouts had been revealed Ding Hao leisurely walked around the Stone Claw City eating a bowl of noodles on the sidewalk Ding Hao passed by several small shops buying gifts for his beloved girl Ding Tianshuang and several confidants When Ding Hao finished everything darkness covered the ground The streets on the Stone Hammer City were brightly lit like daytime Ding Hao leisurely walked through the crowd gradually leaving the streets and heading towards a remote area where there were no people In the vast area of the Stone Hammer City Ding Hao gradually approached the Luo Sheng Mountain Range The Luo Sheng Mountain Range was where the Eastern Divine Court had originally set a trap to hunt down Ding Shengtian Listening Up, Writing Down, and Looking Beyond Susan Gingell,Wendy Roy,2012-08-01 Listening Up Writing Down and Looking Beyond is an interdisciplinary collection that gathers the work of scholars and performance practitioners who together explore questions about the oral written and visual The book includes the voices of oral performance practitioners while the scholarship of many of the academic contributors is informed by their participation in oral storytelling whether as poets singers or visual artists Its contributions address the politics and ethics of the utterance and text textualizing orature and orality simulations of the oral the poetics of performance and reconstructions of the oral

Writing in Dust Jenny Kerber,2011-03-17 Writing in Dust is the first sustained study of prairie Canadian literature from an ecocritical perspective Drawing on recent scholarship in environmental theory and criticism Jenny Kerber considers the ways in which prairie writers have negotiated processes of ecological and cultural change in the region from the early twentieth century to the present The book begins by proposing that current environmental problems in the prairie region can be understood by examining the longstanding tendency to describe its diverse terrain in dualistic terms either as an idyllic natural space or as an irredeemable wasteland It inquires into the sources of stories that naturalize ecological prosperity and hardship and investigates how such narratives have been deployed from the period of colonial settlement to the present It then considers the ways in which works by both canonical and more recent writers ranging from Robert Stead W O Mitchell and Margaret Laurence to Tim Lilburn Louise Halfe and Thomas King consistently challenge these dualistic landscape myths proposing alternatives for the development of more ecologically just and sustainable relationships among people and between humans and their physical environments Writing in Dust asserts that reading environmentally can help us to better understand a host of issues facing prairie inhabitants today including the environmental impacts of industrial agriculture resource extraction climate change shifting urban rural demographics the significance of Indigenous understandings of human nature relationships and the complex often contradictory meanings of eco cultural metaphors of alien invasiveness hybridity and wildness

Catalogue of horticultural and agricultural seed and implements R. Buist,1846 Vegetable and Flower Seeds, etc. [A sale catalogue.] Francis DICKSON (and DICKSON (Arthur) AND SONS.),1855 The Encyclopaedia of Practical Cookery Theodore Francis Garrett,189? Green Matters ,2019-11-26 Green Matters offers a fascinating insight into the regenerative function of literature with regard to environmental concerns Based on recent developments in ecocriticism the book demonstrates how the aesthetic dimension of literary texts makes them a vital force in the struggle for sustainable futures Applying this understanding to individual works from a number of different thematic fields cultural contexts and literary genres Green Matters presents novel approaches to the manifold ways in which literature can make a difference While the first sections of the book highlight the transnational the focus on Canada in the last section allows a more specific exploration of how themes genres and literary forms develop their own manifestations within a national context Through its unifying ecocultural focus and its variegated approaches the volume is an essential contribution to contemporary environmental humanities
