Block Wives of Atlanta Sevn McCray, 2013-09-20 Real Estate Record and Builders' Guide, 1871 Torches of Light Ann Short Chirhart, 2005 As turbulent social and economic changes swept the South in the first half of the twentieth century education became the flashpoint Ann Short Chirhart's study is the first to analyze such modernizing events in Georgia She shows how these changes affected the creation of the state's public school system and cast its teachers in a crucial role as mediators between transformation and tradition Depicting Georgia's steps toward modernity through teachers' professional and cultural work and the educational reforms they advocated Chirhart presents a unique perspective on the convergence of voices across the state calling for reform or continuity secularism or theology equality or enforced norms consumption or self reliance Although most teachers black and white shared backgrounds rooted in localism and evangelical Protestantism attitudes about race and gender kept them apart African American teachers individually and collectively redefined traditional beliefs to buttress ideals of racial uplift and to press for equal access to public services White women adapted similar beliefs in different ways to enhance their efforts to train greater numbers of white students for professional and wage labor Torches of Light is based on such sources as government archives manuscript collections and interviews with teachers As Chirhart examines the ideas over which Georgians clashed she also shows how those ideas were embodied in New Deal and U S Department of Agriculture programs the political activities of the black Georgia Teachers and Educators Association and the Georgia legislature's 1949 Minimum Foundation Act Through two world wars and the Great Depression teachers sought to reconcile clashing beliefs not only to renegotiate class race and gender roles but also to enhance their own professionalism and authority Atlanta's Oakland Cemetery Ren Davis, Helen Davis, 2012 Through engaging narrative rich photography archival images and detailed maps a versatile guide to Atlanta's oldest public cemetery is a great way to tour the cemetery's landscape of remembrance as well as a unique way to explore Atlanta's history Original The Southeastern Reporter, 1899

Ezekiel the Priest Terry J. Betts, 2005 As one of the most significant figures in ancient Israel the priest had numerous responsibilities the most important of which was the exposition of the Mosaic T r The ministry of Ezekiel a prophetic priest offers a glimpse of how one priest carried out his duties as a custodian of T r Ezekiel the Priest provides the possibility of a deeper understanding of the pastoral ministry of priests as teachers of God s word during Old Testament times through the example of one ancient Israelite priest Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States. Ogle,Susan Jacobs,2002-08-30 Battering relationships often escalate to a point where the battered woman commits homicide When such homicides occur attention is usually focused on the final violent encounter however Ogle and Jacobs argue while that act is the last homicidal encounter it is not the only one This important study argues that the battering relationship is properly understood as a long term homicidal process that if played out to the point that contrition dissipates is very likely to result in the death of one of the parties In that context Ogle and Jacobs posit a social interaction perspective for understanding the situational cultural social and structural forces that work toward maintaining the battering relationship and escalating it to a homicidal end This book details this theory and explains how to apply it in a trial setting Elements of self defense law are problematic for battered women who kill their abusers These include imminence reasonableness of the victim s perception of danger and reasonableness of the victim s choice of lethal violence and their proportionality Social interaction theory argues that once contrition dissipates imminence is constant The victim functions in an unending state of extreme tension and fear This allows us to understand the victim s view of the violence as escalating beyond control thereby increasing her reasonable perception of danger and lethality After social resources for whatever reason fail to end the violence it is then reasonable for the victim to conclude that she will have to act in her own defense in order to survive The Southeastern Reporter ,1976 Link ,1983 Atlanta and Environs Franklin M.
