Bloodscripts Bloodscripts:

Bloodscripts Elana Gomel, 2003 We live in an increasingly violent world From suicide terrorists to serial killers violent subjects challenge our imaginations We seek answers to our questions on this subject in literature cinema and electronic media In Bloodscripts Elana Gomel examines how popular culture narratives construct violent subjectivity Using such various narratives as mystery horror detective and fantasy fiction as well as accounts of the atrocities perpetuated by serial killers and the Holocaust Bloodscripts offers a new map of the genres of violence and links the twin obsessions of postmodern culture crime and genocide Bloodscripts is a stimulating original and accessible account of the narrative construction of the violent subject It proposes a narrative model that will be of interest to literary critics cultural scholars criminologists and anyone trying to understand the role of violence in postmodern culture Bret Easton Ellis Naomi Mandel, 2011-01-20

Collection of new critical essays on Bret Easton Ellis focusing on his later novels American Psycho 1991 Glamorama 1999 and Lunar Park 2005 Serial Killers and Serial Spectators, 2024-02-12

Serial murder is a global entertainment industry where the serial killer emerges as one of the most significant cultural figures of our time No longer an exclusively Anglo American phenomenon narratives of serial killing are widespread in India China Japan and other cultures This book asks why this is the case and how serial violence has been aestheticized in different contexts It raises important questions regarding the ethics of spectatorship complicity and resistance Unique in its transnational reach it covers both novels and visual media both West and East both perpetrators and witnesses Film, History and Memory Fearghal McGarry, Jennie Carlsen, 2015-04-21

Using an interdisciplinary approach Film History and Memory broadens the focus from history the study of past events to memory the processes individual generational collective or state driven by which meanings are attached to the past The Twilight of the Gothic? Joseph Crawford, 2014-05-15 This book explores the history of the paranormal romance genre from its origins in the revisionist horror fiction of the 1970s via its emergence as a minor sub genre of romantic fiction in the early 1990s to its contemporary expansion in recent years into an often controversial genre of mainstream fiction Tracing the genre from its roots in older Gothic fiction written by and for women it explores the interconnected histories of Gothic and romantic fiction from Ann Radcliffe and Jane Austen in the eighteenth century to Buffy Twilight True Blood and The Vampire Diaries in the present day In doing so it investigates the extent to which the post Twilight paranormal romance really does represent a break from older traditions of Gothic fiction and just what it is about the genre that has made it so extraordinarily divisive captivating millions of readers whilst simultaneously infuriating and repelling so many others

Lesbian Detective Fiction Phyllis M. Betz,2006-07-24 This work examines how lesbian detective and mystery fiction represents lesbian characters and experience within the confines of the genre As this book points out such fiction reveals the lesbian s increasing visibility in the wider society Nevertheless it can still be difficult to find a complete representation of lesbian life in mainstream literature Often the best place to find the lesbian represented in books is within the pages of genre fiction especially the detective story This book looks at how the lesbian characters public and private lives intersect often at the point of coming out or of moving from isolation to connection with the community Also considered is the lesbian detective s typical confrontation with two crucial elements of the investigator s role the use of violence and the acquisition and expression of authority within police systems Other topics of discussion include the cultural environments in which the stories are situated and the use of humor as a key weapon in the lesbian detective s investigative arsenal

Science Images and Popular Images of the Sciences Peter Weingart,Bernd Huppauf,2012-10-12 What is a popular image of science and where does it come from Little is known about the formation of science images and their transformation into popular images of science In this anthology contributions from two areas of expertise image theory and history and the sociology of the sciences explore techniques of constructing science images and transforming them into highly ambivalent images that represent the sciences The essays most of them with illustrations present evidence that popular images of the sciences are based upon abstract theories rather than facts and equally images of scientists are stimulated by imagination rather than historical knowledge

The Changing Face of Evil in Film and Television Martin F. Norden, 2007 The popular media of film and television surround us daily with images of evil images that have often gone critically unexamined In the belief that people in ever increasing numbers are turning to the media for their understanding of evil this lively and provocative collection of essays addresses the changing representation of evil in a broad spectrum of films and television programmes Written in refreshingly accessible and de jargonised prose the essays bring to bear a variety of philosophical and critical perspectives on works ranging from the cinema of famed director Alfred Hitchcock and the preternatural horror films Halloween and Friday the 13th to the understated documentary Human Remains and the television coverage of the immediate post 9 11 period The Changing Face of Evil in Film and Television is for anyone interested in the moving image representation of that pervasive yet highly misunderstood thing we call evil Contents Martin F NORDEN Introduction Matthew SOAR The Bite at the Beginning Encoding Evil Through Film Title Design Linda BRADLEY SALAMON Screening Evil in History Rope Compulsion Scarface Richard III Mike FRANK The Radical Monism of Alfred Hitchcock Cynthia FREELAND Natural Evil in the Horror Film Alfred Hitchcock s The Birds Matt HILLS and Steven Jay SCHNEIDER The Devil Made Me Do It Representing Evil and Disarticulating Mind Body in the Supernatural Serial Killer Film Thomas HIBBS Virtue Vice and the Harry Potter Universe Robin R MEANS COLEMAN and Jasmine Nicole COBB Training Day and The Shield Evil Cops and the Taint of Blackness Martin F NORDEN The Uncanny Relationship of Disability and Evil in Film and Television Carlo CELLI Comedy and the Holocaust in Roberto Benigni s Life is Beautiful La vita e bella Garnet C BUTCHART On the Void The Fascinating Object of Evil in Human Remains John F STONE The Perfidious President and The Beast Evil in Oliver Stone s Nixon Gary R EDGERTON William B HART and Frances HASSENCAHL Televising 9 11 and Its Aftermath The Framing of George W Bush s Faith Based Politics of Good and Evil Bibliography Notes on Contributors Index Screening Nature Anat Pick, Guinevere Narraway, 2013-11-01 Environmentalism and ecology are areas of rapid growth in academia and society at large Screening Nature is the first comprehensive work that groups together the wide range of concerns in the field of cinema and the environment and what could be termed posthuman cinema It comprises key readings that highlight the centrality of nature and nonhuman animals to the cinematic medium and to the language and institution of film The book offers a fresh and timely intervention into contemporary film theory through a focus on the nonhuman environment as principal register in many filmic texts Screening Nature offers an extensive resource for teachers undergraduate students and more advanced scholars on the intersections between the natural world and the worlds of film It emphasizes the cross cultural and geographically diverse relevance of the topic of cinema ecology Frames of Evil Caroline Joan Picart, David A. Frank, 2006 In Frames of Evil The Holocaust as Horror in American Film Picart and Frank challenge this classic horror frame the narrative and visual borders used to demarcate monsters and the monstrous After examining the way in which directors and producers of the most influential American Holocaust movies default to this Gothic frame they propose that multiple frames are needed to account for evil and genocide Narrative Causalities Emma Kafalenos, 2006 Narrative Causalities offers both an argument and a methodology The argument is that interpretations of the consequences and causes of events are contextual and that narratives by determining the context in which events are perceived shape interpretations The methodology on which the argument is based is a theory of functions A function in this theory is a position in a causal sequence A set of functions provides a vocabulary to analyze and compare interpretations of the causes and consequences of events in our world in narratives about our world and in fictional narratives Murders and Acquisitions Alzena MacDonald, 2013-08-29 The serial killer has become increasingly prevalent in popular culture since the term was coined by Robert Ressler at the FBI in the mid 1970s Murders and Acquisitions explores the social and political implications of this cultural figure The collection argues that the often blood chilling representations of the serial killer and serial killing offered in TV series films novels and fan productions function to address contemporary concerns and preoccupations Focusing on well known popular culture texts such as The Wire Kiss the Girls Monster the Saw series American Psycho The Strangers CSI and Dexter this eclectic anthology engages with a broad spectrum of cultural theory and performs critical textual analysis to examine the sophisticated ways the serial killer is deployed to mediate and or work through cultural anxieties and fears
