Scott,Daryl R. Ireland,Grace Y. May,Casely B. Essamuah,2021-07-08 Can something as simple as friendship have a transformative impact in a divided world Through a series of richly textured historical portraits and reflections on personal experience this book shows that boundary crossing friendships in Christian mission have shaped theologies built organizations and partnerships facilitated mission work and changed attitudes and ways of thinking This is true in settings as varied as eighteenth century French women s work twentieth century urban Boston colonial India the Jim Crow South and twentieth century rural Congo In all these settings and more friendship has mattered Boundary crossing friendships are however not easy Despite their power such friendships are complicated by race gender ability class nationality and other elements of identity as this book also demonstrates Friendships are not immune from the divisions in the world nor a simple cure all for them Still friendship stands as a powerful testimony to the gospel Therefore the book calls for more attention to friendship in the study of mission history and more living out of friendship as a practice of mission In this way this book pays honor to Dr Dana L Robert as a pre eminent mission scholar and exemplary friend and mentor to others in the fields of missiology and world Christianity Friends Are Flowers Ginny Hobson, Sherry Morris, 1999 Step through the garden gate to a place of the heart that is as unique and as special as you are Once inside take a moment to look around Watch the colors reach for the sun Inhale the sweetness that lightly lingers Feel the velvet smoothness of the perfectly shaped petal Maybe you'd like to have a seat on the bench and simply enjoy being where you are with your friends along the path of life A Vase with One Flower Shirley Elliott, 2013 Australian writer Shirley Elliott's first collection of poems
