Blue Is The Warmest Colour:

Real Sex Films John Tulloch, Belinda Middleweek, 2017 Real Sex Films explores one of the most controversial movements in international cinema through theories of globalization and embodiment Focus On: 100 Most Popular

French-language Films Wikipedia contributors, Provocateurs and Provocations Maria San Filippo, 2021-02-02 Twenty first century media has increasingly turned to provocative sexual content to generate buzz and stand out within a glut of programming New distribution technologies enable and amplify these provocations and encourage the branding of media creators as provocateurs known for challenging sexual conventions and representational norms While such strategies may at times be no more than a profitable lure the most probing and powerful instances of sexual provocation serve to illuminate question and transform our understanding of sex and sexuality In Provocateurs and Provocations award winning author Maria San Filippo looks at the provocative in films television series web series and videos entertainment industry publicity materials and social media discourses and explores its potential to create alternative even radical ways of screening sex Throughout this edgy volume San Filippo reassesses troubling texts and divisive figures examining controversial strategies from real sex scenes to scandalous marketing campaigns to full frontal nudity to reveal the critical role that sexual provocation plays as an authorial signature and promotional strategy within the contemporary media landscape

Seduction on Screen: The 100 Sexiest Movies of All Time Claudia Morgan, Prepare to be captivated by the sultry allure and undeniable chemistry that have set cinema screens ablaze in Seduction on Screen The 100 Sexiest Movies of All Time This steamy guide takes you on a journey through the most provocative and unforgettable moments in film history showcasing the movies that have redefined sensuality passion and desire Each chapter offers a tantalizing exploration of a different film delving into the erotic artistry mesmerizing performances and sizzling storylines that have left audiences entranced From the raw intensity of Basic Instinct to the romantic heat of Atonement and the bold sensuality of Call Me by Your Name this book covers a wide range of genres and styles all united by their electrifying appeal Whether you're a film buff or simply in the mood for something a little more daring Seduction on Screen is your ultimate companion to the world of cinematic seduction This collection celebrates the films that have pushed boundaries sparked conversations and kindled the flames of passion making them timeless classics in the realm of sensual storytelling Dive into the 100 sexiest movies ever made and let the magic of cinema sweep you off your feet Screen Production Research Craig Batty, Susan

Kerrigan, 2017-12-19 Aimed at students and educators across all levels of Higher Education this agenda setting book defines what screen production research is and looks like and by doing so celebrates creative practice as an important pursuit in the contemporary academic landscape Drawing on the work of international experts as well as case studies from a range of forms and genres including screenwriting fiction filmmaking documentary production and mobile media practice the book is an essential guide for those interested in the rich relationship between theory and practice It provides theories models tools and best practice examples that students and researchers can follow and expand upon in their own screen production projects

Extreme Cinema Mattias Frey, 2016-03-15 Received an Honorable Mention for the 2017 British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies BAFTSS Best Monograph Award From Shortbus to Shame and from Oldboy to Irreversible film festival premieres regularly make international headlines for their shockingly graphic depictions of sex and violence Film critics and scholars alike often regard these movies as the work of visionary auteurs hailing directors like Michael Haneke and Lars von Trier as heirs to a tradition of transgressive art In this provocative new book Mattias Frey offers a very different perspective on these films exposing how they are also calculated products designed to achieve global notoriety in a competitive marketplace Paying close attention to the discourses employed by film critics distributors and filmmakers themselves Extreme Cinema examines the various tightropes that must be walked when selling transgressive art films to discerning audiences distinguishing them from generic horror pornography and Hollywood product while simultaneously hyping their salacious content Deftly tracing the links between the local and the global Frey also shows how the directors and distributors of extreme art house fare from both Europe and East Asia have significant incentives to exaggerate the exotic elements that would differentiate them from Anglo American product Extreme Cinema also includes original interviews with the programmers of several leading international film festivals and with niche distributors and exhibitors giving readers a revealing look at how these institutions enjoy a symbiotic relationship with the taboo breakers of art house cinema Frey also demonstrates how these apparently transgressive films actually operate within a strict set of codes and conventions carefully calibrated to perpetuate a media industry that fuels itself on provocation

Lesbian Cinema after Queer Theory Clara Bradbury-Rance, 2019-01-30

TV-Philosophy in Action Sandra Laugier, 2023-06-27 TV Philosophy in Action is inspired by philosopher and series devotee Sandra Laugier's monthly columns published in the French journal Libération It is her contribution to the collective reflection on TV series produced by critics theorists and the vast mass of individual watchers who evaluate and discuss these programmes every day The book brings together a selection of articles from Libération as well as longer pieces to demonstrate TV Philosophy in action Laugier's response as a philosopher viewer to a range of particularly salient TV shows from the last 20 years and their relationship to social and political issues of our times Arranged under a number of important themes relating to politics identity and the stories we tell ourselves about our world the book shows how TV series provide a rich resource for thinking about our lives and places them centre stage as works of art and of thought in their own right

Understanding Film Theory Ruth Doughty, Christine Etherington-Wright, 2017-09-04 This essential core textbook provides an approachable and extensive introduction to film theory written by two highly experienced senior lecturers Bringing a fresh contemporary and accessible approach to what is often perceived to be a challenging and old fashioned area of film studies that requires time and effort to grasp the text illustrates why theory is important and demonstrates how it can be applied in a meaningful way The book's sixteen chapters are clear and comprehensive and provide an insight into the main areas of debate using clear definitions and explaining complex ideas succinctly The ideal entry point for any student studying film the book is designed for use on courses on film theory on undergraduate and postgraduate degree programmes within film cinema media and cultural studies New to this Edition An expanded introduction plus a new chapter looking at Adaptation Contemporary case studies exploring popular and topical films such as The Hunger Games 2012 Blue is the Warmest Colour 2013 and The Lego Movie 2014 An expanded introduction plus a new chapter looking at Adaptation Additional genre based case study on the British Gangster film Additional actor based case study on Ryan Gosling A greater focus throughout on the relevance of film theory to students undertaking practical film degrees and units

Beregon, Anders Stenström,2013-08-08 Blue Is the Warmest Color Julie Maroh,2013 Blue is the Warmest Color is a tender bittersweet full colour graphic novel about the elusive reckless magic of love a lesbian love story for the ages that bristles with the energy of youth rebellion and the eternal light of desire Clementine is a junior in high school who seems normal enough she has friends family and even a boyfriend When her openly gay best friend takes her to a gay bar she becomes captivated by Emma a punkish confident girl with blue hair an event that leads Clementine to discover new aspects of herself both passionate and tragic The Cambridge History of the Graphic Novel Jan Baetens,Hugo Frey,Stephen E. Tabachnick,2018-07-19 The Cambridge History of the Graphic Novel provides the complete history of the graphic novel from its origins in the nineteenth century to its rise and startling success in the twentieth and twenty first century It includes original discussion on the current state of the graphic novel and analyzes how American European Middle Eastern and Japanese renditions have shaped the field Thirty five leading scholars and historians unpack both forgotten trajectories as well as the famous key episodes and explain how comics transitioned from being marketed as children s entertainment Essays address the masters of the form including Art Spiegelman Alan Moore and Marjane Satrapi and reflect on their publishing history as well as their social and political effects This ambitious history offers an extensive detailed and expansive scholarly account of the graphic novel and will be a key resource for scholars and students Now You See Her Anne Crémieux,2023-03-20 Over the past thirty years queer women have been coming out of the media closet to enter the mainstream consciousness This book explores the rise of lesbian visibility since the 1990s with in depth historical analyses of representation in sports music photography comics television and cinema Each chapter is complemented by an interview soccer player and coach Saskia Webber singer songwriter Gretchen Phillips photographer Lola Flash cartoonist Alison Bechdel and filmmakers Jamie Babbit and Anna Margarita Albelo discuss the societal transformations that shaped their careers From the riot grrrl movement of the early 1990s punk scene to screen representations of queer culture The L Word Orange Is the New Black this book discusses how lesbian presence successfully infiltrated several patriarchal strongholds and was transformed in return The History of My Sexuality Tobi Lakmaker,2024-01-18 Meet Sofie The history of her sexuality begins when she loses her virginity to Walter the recruitment consultant So naturally she thought that things could only improve from there But she was wrong It seems Sofie s been wrong about a lot of things First she thought she was into men wrong Then she met Frida and thought she was set for life wrong again Turns out facing up to everything she thought she knew about herself requires a lot of trial and error Will Sofie ever be able to untangle the impossible knot of sex love loneliness family relationships and grief that constitutes a life Does it even matter The History of My Sexuality is a frank funny exuberant journey through the highs and lows of your 20s and making peace with getting it wrong again and again Middlebrow Cinema Sally Faulkner,2016-03-31 Middlebrow Cinema challenges an often uninterrogated hostility to middlebrow culture that frequently dismisses it as conservative which it often is not and feminized or middle class which it often is The volume defines the term relationally against shifting concepts of high and low and considers its deployment in connection with text audience and institution In exploring the concept of the middlebrow this book recovers films that were widely meaningful to contemporary audiences yet sometimes overlooked by critics interested in popular and arthouse extremes It also addresses the question of socially mobile audiences who might express their aspirations through film watching and traces the cultural consequences of the movement of films across borders and between institutions The first study of its kind the volume comprises 11 original essays that test the purchase of the term middlebrow across cultures including those of Europe Asia and the Americas from the 1930s to the present day Middlebrow Cinema brings into view a popular and aspirational and thus especially relevant and dynamic area of film and film culture Ideal for students and researchers in this area this book Remaps Popular and arthouse approaches Explores British Chinese French Indian Mexican Spanish national cinemas alongside Continental Hollywood Queer Transnational cinemas Analyses Biopic Heritage Historical Film Melodrama Musical Sex Comedy genres

Beginning film studies Andrew Dix, 2016-05-01 Beginning film studies offers the ideal introduction to this vibrant subject Written accessibly and with verve it ranges across the key topics and manifold approaches to film studies Andrew Dix has thoroughly updated the first edition and this new volume includes new case studies overviews of recent developments in the discipline and up to the minute suggestions for further reading The book begins by considering some of film's formal features mise en scene editing and sound before moving outwards to narrative genre authorship stardom and ideology Later chapters on film industries and on film consumption where and how we watch movies assess the discipline's recent geographical turn The book references many film cultures including Hollywood Bollywood and contemporary Hong Kong Case studies cover such topics as sound in The Great Gatsby and narrative in Inception The superhero movie is studied so too is Jennifer Lawrence Beginning film studies is also interactive with readers enabled throughout to reflect critically upon the field
