the busy lawyer and arbitrator with a handy day to day reference work This is a comprehensive treatise on the law and practice of arbitration in Canada The text covers all aspects of commercial arbitration when to choose arbitration how to draft an effective arbitration clause how to choose an arbitrator the legal and practical aspects of arbitrating in Canada under both the UNCITRAL Model Law as well as domestic legislation and enforcing awards in Canada regardless of the jurisdiction in which they were made The book covers arbitration law in all the Canadian Provinces It is not only a definitive legal text but has been designed and organized to be a handy reference text for arbitration practitioners The second edition includes a revised and expanded index a complete index of cases and a number of additional practice notes The chapters dealing with court involvement in arbitration challenges and recognition of awards have been extensively revised to take into account the numerous court decisions released since the last edition

Decisions of the Federal Labor Relations Authority United States. Federal Labor Relations Authority, 1992

Labor Arbitration Under Fire James L. Stern, Joyce M. Najita, 1997

Labor arbitration was once seen as an integral part of bargaining and as a pioneering effort to create shop floor justice But the decline of unions in status and power has raised profound questions about the future of labor arbitration While labor unions seek justice for twenty two million workers covered by collective bargaining arbitration of employment disputes in the non unionized sectors of the economy is on the increase with arbitration procedures promulgated by the employer substituting for more expensive litigation Moreover arbitration may find a new role among unrepresented employees as the obligation to justify discharges is more widely adopted This volume chronicles the development of labor arbitration analyzes the paths it is now following and suggests what the future may hold under changing conditions

Arbitral Awards of the Cairo Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration Mohiedin Ismail Alamedin, 2021-10-25 The Arbitral Awards of the Cairo Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration addresses many significant issues and questions including the following Do rules of limitation have a role in arbitration How greatly do administrative contracts differ from civil contracts in the closing years of this century Obtaining permissions of works is this the task of the employer or the contractor What can the arbitrator do if several exchange rates apply to the consideration of a contract It is expected that by the end of 1999 the number of international arbitration cases registered with the Centre will have reached 200 While individual CRCICA awards have occasionally been published there has never been an independent compilation of all the awards issued by the Centre This important new volume contains a collection of arbitral awards made up to 1996 with those made originally in Arabic translated into English The editors have summarised each award and included commentary where appropriate and the awards are followed by legislative or statutory articles as relevant

Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards Herbert Kronke, Patricia Nacimiento, Dirk Otto, 2010-01-01 The analysis thoroughly covers the major issues that have arisen in the application of the Convention including the following the use of reservations made by Contracting States the distinctions between recognition and enforcement and between recognition sought at the seat of the arbitration and outside the seat the role of the courts in reviewing arbitral awards and in particular the Convention's focus on safeguarding due process standards the more favourable rights A principle embodied in Article VII 1 the relevance of forum shopping and asset spotting to the application of the Convention and the role of formalities and formalism The end result is an invaluable work that will prove enormously useful to all international commercial arbitration practitioners and scholars regardless of location

Broker-Dealer Law and Regulation, 5th Edition Poser, Fanto, Gross, Arbitrators as Lawmakers Dolores Bentolila, 2017-04-05 This book analyses how arbitrators make rules that guide constrain and define the process and substance of international arbitration Providing a thorough and multidisciplinary analysis of the actors process and outcome of arbitral lawmaking the study shows how arbitrators create principles of law through consistent arbitral decision making and through interacting with other members of the arbitral community This book investigates and responds to the following questions What is the relationship between international arbitration and the law and courts of the seat What is the role of international tribunals in assisting and controlling investment arbitration What is the scope of arbitrators freedom in decision making What constraints limit arbitrators decision making and contribute to consistency Is international arbitration capable of paying deference to past arbitral decisions Which rules have arbitrators created in procedural and substantive matters What is the role and status of consistent arbitral decisions Is there an arbitral legal system The answers to these questions are drawn from actual arbitral decisions made available to the public clarifying important issues about jurisdiction procedure applicable law interpretation of substantive rules and instruments and remedies This is the first overarching study of whether and to what extent international commercial and investment arbitrators create norms and even generate a legal system As such it will be of immeasurable and lasting value to arbitrators practitioners scholars arbitral institutions and international organizations worldwide for all of whom it will not only clarify our understanding of arbitral decision making and arbitrator made rules but also foster transparency and accountability in arbitral decision making
