The Women At Point Sur And Other Poems By Robinson Jeffers:

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti modernist Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision how to connect present day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral spiritual or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena For Jeffers as for no other important modern American poet there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems the current Selected Poetry first published in 1938 contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers lifetime or from his posthumous volume Now for the first time all of Jeffers completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition The first three volumes of this four volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers published work from 1920 to 1963 The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best known poems Tamar Roan Stallion The Women at Point Sur and Cawdor as well as a recently discovered long poem Home There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Vol 5 Robinson Jeffers, Tim Hunt, 1988 This final volume of the first comprehensive edition of all of Robinson Jeffers's completed poems both published and unpublished consists of commentary various procedural explanations and textual evidence for the edition's texts transcriptions of working notes for the poems and of alternate and discarded passages a chronology of Jeffers's career appendixes and indexes The Women at Point Sur and Other Poems Robinson Jeffers, 1977 Replaces lines and entire poems omitted from the original 1927 edition and offers an examination of Jeffers doctrine of Inhumanism the negative reception of the original edition and the full import of the title poem The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2011-10-12 The 1930s marked a turning point for the world Scientific and technological revolutions economic and social upheavals and the outbreak of war changed the course of history The 1930s also marked a turning point for Robinson Jeffers both in his career as a poet and in his private life The letters collected in this second volume of annotated correspondence document Jeffers rising fame as a poet his controversial response to the turmoil of his time his struggles as a writer the growth and maturation of his twin sons and the network of friends and acquaintances that surrounded him The letters also provide an intimate portrait of Jeffers relationship to his wife Una including a full account of the 1938 crisis at Mabel Dodge Luhan's home in Taos New Mexico that nearly destroyed their marriage

Robinson Jeffers James Karman, 2015-08-05 A deeply informative biography situates the poet in his time and place tracing the effect of both contemporary history and wild nature on his work Edwin Cranston Harvard University The precipitous cliffs rolling headlands and rocky inlets of the California coast come alive in the poetry of John Robinson Jeffers an icon of the environmental movement In this concise and accessible biography Jeffers scholar James Karman reveals deep insights into this passionate and complex figure and establishes Jeffers as a leading American poet of prophetic vision In a move that would define his life s work Jeffers family relocated to California from Pennsylvania in 1903 when he was sixteen At the height of his popularity in the 1920s and 1930s Jeffers became one of the few poets ever featured on the cover of Time magazine and posthumously put on a U S postage stamp Writing by kerosene lamp in a granite tower that he had built himself his vivid and descriptive poetry of the coast evoked the difficulty and beauty of the wild and inspired photographers such as Edward Weston and Ansel Adams He was known for long narrative blank verse that shook up the national literary scene but in the 1940s his interest in the Greek classics led to several adaptations which were staged on Broadway to great success Inspiring later artists from Charles Bukowski to Czeslaw Milosz and even the Beach Boys Robinson Jeffers contribution to American letters is skillfully brought back out of the shadows of history in this compelling biography of a complex man of poetic genius who wrote so powerfully of the astonishing beauty of nature The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, Tim Hunt, 1988 This volume is in three parts Part I 1903 1920 includes Jeffers s earliest poetry and poems that were never published or were recently rediscovered Part II 1920 1948 gathers all Jeffers s major prose works Part III 1910 1962 is mostly material that Jeffers never published and apparently never tried to publish The book design is by Adrian Wilson in a 7 1 2 by 10 inch format Robinson Jeffers Mercedes Cunningham Monjian, 2012-01-12 Robinson Jeffers name has been so inseparably linked with California that it is difficult to think of his origins being elsewhere Jeffers was both in 1887 in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania His father was a professor at Western Theological Seminary and a scholar of ancient languages who taught his son to read Greek before he started school In 1902 Jeffers enrolled in the University of Western Pennsylvania now the University of Pittsburgh but his family moved to California soon thereafter and he graduated from Occidental College at the age of eighteen Inhumanism was the label Jeffers first used in the preface to The Double Axe and Other Poems to explain the doctrine that permeates all of his poetry Defining humanism as a system of thinking in which man his interests and development are made dominant his addition of the negative prefix was his attempt to subdue human interests and development to something greater contrasting them against the magnificent beauty and immense worth of the natural world In addition to discussing Jeffers life and philosophy Monjian analyzes the form and style of his poetry calling it a singular style slashing its way across the page with violence of image and a free crashing rhythm She ends the book Whatever the future holds for this poet our own age is still awed by the magnificent talent and effort of a burdened mind struggling to free humanity from the shackles of an impoverished self love and the myths to which he believes

Office,1978      The Wild That Attracts Us ShaunAnne Tangney,2015-06-15 The first collection in twenty years of essays on Robinson Jeffers one of the great American poets of the twentieth century this work signals the sea change in Jeffers scholarship as well as the increasing breadth and depth of criticism of the literature of the American West The essays assembled here highlight issues and theories critical to Jeffers studies among them the advance of ecocriticism the reimagining of regionalism as place studies the continuing development of cultural studies and the new historicism the increasingly poignant vector of science and literature the new formalism particularly as it pertains to narrative verse and the glaring omission of feminist analysis in Jeffers scholarship Jeffers has always appealed to a wider audience than many twentieth century poets and this book will speak to that general readership as well as to scholars and students      Canadian Review of American Studies ,1979
