True at First Light Ernest Hemingway, 2014-05-22 Both revealing self portrait and dramatic fictional chronicle of his final African safari Ernest Hemingway's last unpublished work was written when he returned from Kenya in 1953 Edited by his son Patrick who accompanied his father on the safari True at First Light offers rare insights into the legendary American writer A blend of autobiography and fiction the book opens on the day his close friend Pop a celebrated hunter leaves Ernest in charge of the safari camp and news arrives of a potential attack from a hostile tribe Drama continues to build as his wife Mary pursues the great black maned lion that has become her obsession Spicing his depictions of human longings with sharp humor Hemingway captures the excitement of big game hunting and the unparalleled beauty of the scenery the green plains covered with gray mist zebra and gazelle traversing the horizon cool dark nights broken by the sounds of the hyena's cry As the group at camp help Mary track her prize she and Ernest suffer the incalculable casualties of marriage and their attempts to love each other well are marred by cruelty competition and infidelity Ernest has become involved with Debba an African girl whom he supposedly plans to take as a second bride Increasingly enchanted by the local African community he struggles between the attraction of these two women and the wildly different cultures they represent In True at First Light Hemingway also chronicles his exploits sometimes hilarious and sometimes poignant among the African men with whom he has become very close reminisces about encounters with other writers and his days in Paris and Spain and satirizes among other things the role of organized religion in Africa He also muses on the act of writing itself and the author's role in determining the truth What is fact and what is fiction This is a question that was posed by Hemingway's readers throughout his career and is one of his principal subjects here Equally adept at evoking the singular textures of the landscape the thrill of the hunt and the complexities of married life Hemingway weaves a tale that is rich in laughter beauty and profound insight True at First Light is an extraordinary publishing event a breathtaking final work from one of this nation s most beloved and important writers Hemingway Lives! Modellmog,Suzanne del Gizzo,2013 This book Provides the fullest introduction to Hemingway and his world found in a single volume Offers contextual essays written on a range of topics by experts in Hemingway studies Provides a highly useful reference work for scholarship as well as teaching excellent for classes on Hemingway modernism and American literature Publisher s website Hemingway and Africa Miriam B. Mandel,2011 New scholarly essays providing a multifaceted approach to the role of Africa in Hemingway s life and work The Unexamined Orwell John Rodden,2012-08-17 A reflection on Orwell as idea that outlines some of the misconceptions and misuses of the Orwell name Modern Fiction Studies The year 1984 is just a memory but the catchwords of George Orwell s novel Nineteen Eighty Four still routinely pepper public discussions of topics ranging from government surveillance and privacy invasion to language corruption and bureaucratise Orwell s work pervades the cultural imagination while others of his literary generation are long forgotten Exploring this astonishing afterlife has become the scholarly vocation of John Rodden who is now the leading authority on the reception impact and reinvention of George Orwell the man and writer as well as of Orwell the cultural icon and historical talisman In The Unexamined Orwell Rodden delves into dimensions of Orwell s life and legacy that have escaped the critical glare He discusses how several leading American intellectuals have earned the title of Orwell s successor including Lionel Trilling Dwight Macdonald Irving Howe Christopher Hitchens and John Lukacs He then turns to Germany and focuses on the role and relevance of Nineteen Eighty Four in the now defunct communist nation of East Germany Rodden also addresses myths that have grown up around Orwell s life including his more than half legendary encounter with Ernest

Hemingway in liberated Paris in March 1945 and analyzes literary issues such as his utopian sensibility and his prose style Finally Rodden poses the endlessly debated question What would George Orwell do and speculates about how the prophet of Nineteen Eighty Four would have reacted to world events In so doing Rodden shows how our responses to this question reveal much about our culture s ongoing need to reappropriate Orwell

Race and Identity in Hemingway's Fiction A. Strong, 2008-04-14 Race and Identity in Hemingway s Fiction explores how Hemingway negotiates race as a defining element of American identity His interest in race and racial identity emerged in his writing and his personal life through attention to skin color performance of racial identity and experimentation and immersion in tribal life and rituals This study imagines what Hemingway s fiction would look like if his non white characters were brought out of the background and asks how Hemingway s conception of American identity transforms when it is constructed on the basis of race

Carson McCullers in the Twenty-First Century Alison Graham-Bertolini, Casey Kayser, 2016-10-26 The contributors to this volume use diverse critical techniques to identify how Carson McCullers writing engages with and critiques modern social structures and how her work resonates with a twenty first century audience The collection includes chapters about McCullers fiction autobiographical writing and dramatic works and is groundbreaking because it includes the first detailed scholarly examination of new archival material donated to Columbus State University after the 2013 death of Dr Mary Mercer McCullers psychiatrist and friend including transcripts of the psychiatric sessions that took place between McCullers and Mercer in 1958 Further the collection covers the scope of McCullers canon of work such as The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter 1940 The Member of the Wedding 1946 and Ballad of the Sad Caf 1943 through lenses that are of growing interest in contemporary literary studies including comparative transatlantic readings queer theory disability studies and critical animal theory among others

The Critics and Hemingway, 1924-2014 Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2015 Traces Hemingway s critical fortunes over the ninety years of his prominence telling us something about what we value in literature and why scholarly reputations rise and fall Hemingway burst on the literary scene in the 1920s with spare penetrating short stories and brilliant novels Soon he was held as a standard for modern writers Meanwhile he used his celebrity to create a persona like the stoic macho heroes of his fiction After a decline during the 1930s and 1940s he came roaring back with The Old Man and the Sea in 1952 Two years later he received the Nobel Prize While his popularity waxed and waned during his lifetime Hemingway s reputation among scholars remained strong as long as traditional scholarship dominated New approaches beginning in the 1960s brought a sea change however finding grave fault with his work and making him a figure ripe for vilification Yet during this time scholarship on him continued to appear His works still sell well and several are staples on high school and college syllabi A new scholarly edition of his letters is drawing prominent attention and there is a resurgence in scholarly attention to and approbation for his work Tracing Hemingway s critical fortunes tells us something about what we value in literature and why reputations rise and fall as scholars find new ways to examine and interpret creative work Laurence W Mazzeno is

President Emeritus of Alvernia University Among other books he has written volumes on Austen Dickens Tennyson Updike and Matthew Arnold for Camden House s Literary Criticism in Perspective series
