The Yellow Arrow By Victor Pelevin:

The Yellow Arrow Viktor Pelevin, 1996 THE YELLOW ARROW is a Russian train speeding toward a ruined bridge a train without an end or a beginning and it makes no stops Andrei the mystic passenger less and less lulled by the never ending sound of the wheels has begun to look for a way to get off But life in the carriages goes on as always This important young Russian author's first American translation garnered rave reviews

Literature, History and Identity in Post-Soviet Russia, 1991-2006 Rosalind J. Incarnate Thalia Field, 2004 An enthralling new work by one of America's foremost experimental writers Thalia Field's inventive new book explores the very condition of being incarnate how invested with human form we experience both suffering and ecstasy from childhood to adulthood to death As with her previous book published by New Directions Point and Line 2000 Incarnate defies categorization it industriously works the sparsely populated and as yet underdeveloped borderlands between poetry fiction theater and contemporary classical music Review of Contemporary Fiction In Incarnate Story Material she continues to reach beyond borders examining how trapped in our own stories we act and react in a world of solidity perceiving something other close at hand With its amazing variety of poetic and prose like forms driven by a fierce and playful intelligence Incarnate Story Material challenges and moves us The Poems of Saint John of the Cross Saint John of the Cross,1972 The Happy Birthday of Death Gregory Corso,1960 The Wall Jean-Paul Sartre,2010-07-27 One of Sartre s greatest existentialist works of fiction The Wall contains the only five short stories he ever wrote Set during the Spanish Civil War the title story crystallizes the famous philosopher s existentialism The Wall the lead story in this collection introduces three political prisoners on the night prior to their execution Through the gaze of an impartial doctor seemingly there for the men s solace their mental descent is charted in exquisite often harrowing detail And as the morning draws inexorably closer the men cross the psychological wall between life and death long before the first shot rings out This brilliant snapshot of life in anguish is the perfect introduction to a collection of stories where the neurosis of the modern world is mirrored in the lives of the people that inhabit it This is an unexpurgated edition translated from the French by Lloyd Alexander Stand Still Like the Hummingbird Henry Miller,1962 One of Henry Miller s most luminous statements of his personal philosophy of life Stand Still Like the Hummingbird provides a symbolic title for this collection of stories and essays Many of them have appeared only in foreign magazines while others were printed in small limited editions which have gone out of print Miller s genius for comedy is at its best in Money and How It Gets That Way a tongue in cheek parody of economics provoked by a postcard from Ezra Pound which asked if he ever thought about money His deep concern for the role of the artist in society appears in An Open Letter to All and Sundry and in The Angel is My Watermark he writes of his own passionate love affair with painting The Immorality of Morality is an eloquent discussion of censorship Some of the stories such as First Love are autobiographical and there are portraits of friends such as Patchen Man of Anger and Light and essays on other writers such as Walt Whitman Thoreau Sherwood Anderson and Ionesco Taken together these highly readable pieces reflect the incredible vitality and variety of interests of the writer who extended the frontiers of modern literature with Tropic of Cancer and other great books No Longer Human Osamu Dazai,2012-09-30 The poignant and fascinating story of a young man who is caught between the breakup of the traditions of a northern Japanese aristocratic family and the impact of Western ideas Mine has been a life of much shame I can t even guess myself what it must be to live the life of a human being Portraying himself as a failure the protagonist of Osamu Dazai s No Longer Human narrates a seemingly normal life even while he feels himself incapable of understanding human beings His attempts to reconcile himself to the world around him begin in early childhood continue through high school where he becomes a clown to mask his alienation and eventually lead to a failed suicide attempt as an adult Without sentimentality he records the casual cruelties of life and its fleeting moments of human connection and tenderness Still one of the ten bestselling books in Japan No Longer Human is an important and unforgettable modern classic The struggle of the individual to fit into a normalizing society remains just as relevant today as it was at the time of writing The Japan Times Turtle Island Gary Snyder, 2013-08-10 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry 1975 These Pulitzer Prize winning poems and essays by the author of No Nature range from the lucid lyrical and mystical to the political All however share a common vision a rediscovery of North America and the ways by which we might become true natives of the land for the first time HERmione Hilda Doolittle, 1981 An autobiographical novel tells of a college girl driven to a nervous breakdown by conflicting aspects of her personality Cawdor, a Long Poem Robinson Jeffers, 1970 Here for a new generation of readers and students are two major poetic works of Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962

The Flowers of Evil Charles Baudelaire, 1958 Baudelaire's Fleurs du Mal which in successive editions contained all of his published poems has opened new vistas for man's imagination and quickened the sensibilities of poets everywhere
