Ghana: an Incomplete Independence or a Dysfunctional Democracy? Kwame

Insaidoo, 2012-12-20 Can anybody tell us why profound poverty continues to plague our nation of barely 25 million people in this modern era of globalization in 2012 Why do you think the vast majority of our beloved people live on less than a dollar a day and struggle from cradle to grave living in near squalor and eking out near subsistence existence Ask yourself why is it that in the midst of this profound abject poverty less than ten percent of our fellow countrymen and women live in opulence and wallow in untold riches with their mansions encased with six foot walls seek medical attention in luxurious medical facilities abroad Are the vast majority of our people in poverty ignorant and stupid while the few wealthy ones are perceived as more intelligent and wiser than all of us Intra-African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power Amos B.

Chewachong,2024-10-29 In an era when African Pentecostalism stretches its vibrant mosaic across continents Intra African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power examines the pulsating heart of this phenomenon within Africa itself The book explores the complex interplay of faith and power through the lens of Nigeria s Winners Chapel and its expansion into Cameroon What compels a movement to evangelize fervently within its own continent making it both the preacher and the audience The book exposes the reverse missionary flow to the northern hemisphere as a backdrop for a more profound story unravelling within Africa Here the mother church exerts a magnetic pull ensuring fidelity as charismatic leaders like Bishop Oyedepo maintain their spiritual gravitas It is a story not just of spirituality but of strategic moves and socio political undercurrents that shape identities and beliefs Employing rich narratives and rigorous research this book looks in depth at Winners Chapel s transnational missions highlighting the complexities of allegiance identity and the propagation of the prosperity gospel It challenges readers to see beyond conventional religious discourse into the depths where faith intersects with culture and power The book invites us to understand the multi dimensional influence of African Pentecostalism and to grasp the nuances of a faith that is transforming the continent from within African & American Marilyn Halter,Violet this book I thought about my first life and work experience in Africa How I suffered several severe cases of malaria how difficult it was to adjust to the hot humid climate and the discouragements from my relatives and friends back home that I was in a wrong place to which I almost succumbed The only thing that made me stay was a sense of duty to the other five Jesuits working with me As this mission was only new I did not want to demoralize any of them This decision has later proven to be one of the best decisions I have ever made All that experience brought many turns to my life in Africa bringing me from Nigeria to Zambia to Ghana and back to Zambia again These events were like accidents Accidents are unexpected unplanned and often painful It was just an accident of history that the mission was just getting started and that it had so few people on it It might have been another accident of history that the Biafran War began just as I made my way to Nigeria that made it more difficult to recruit new members to the mission These accidents of history brought me to a painful decision to return to Nigeria when I didn't feel attracted to the prospect Yet this painful experience turned out to be a great blessing for me I came to love the people and the continent more than I could ever have imagined and found myself greatly enriched by the experience It is this development in personal growth that I want to share with the reader Cover Design by Danny Chiyesu
