A History of Interior Design John F. Pile, 2005 Delivers the inside story on 6 000 years of personal and public space John Pile acknowledges that interior design is a field with unclear boundaries in which construction architecture the arts and crafts technology and product design all overlap

Designing Worlds Kjetil Fallan, Grace Lees-Maffei, 2016-06 From consumer products to architecture to advertising to digital technology design is an undeniably global phenomenon Yet despite their professed transnational perspective historical studies of design have all too often succumbed to a bias toward Western industrialized nations This diverse but rigorously curated collection recalibrates our understanding of design history reassessing regional and national cultures while situating them within an international context Here contributors from five continents offer nuanced studies that range from South Africa to the Czech Republic all the while sensitive to the complexities of local variation and the role of nation states in identity construction

Africa in the American Imagination Carol Magee, 2012-04-26 In the American world the presence of African culture is sometimes fully embodied and sometimes leaves only a trace Africa in the American Imagination Popular Culture Racialized Identities and African Visual Culture explores this presence examining Mattel's world of Barbie the 1996 Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue and Disney World each of which repackages African visual culture for consumers Because these cultural icons permeate American life they represent the broader U S culture and its relationship to African culture This study integrates approaches from art history and visual culture studies with those from culture race and popular culture studies to analyze this interchange Two major threads weave throughout One analyzes how the presentation of African visual culture in these popular culture forms conceptualizes Africa for the American public The other investigates the way the uses of African visual culture focuses America's own self awareness particularly around black and white racialized identities In exploring the multiple meanings that Africa has in American popular culture Africa in the American Imagination argues that these cultural products embody multiple perspectives and speak to various sociopolitical contexts the Cold War civil rights and contemporary eras of the United States the apartheid and post apartheid eras of South Africa the colonial and postcolonial eras of Ghana and the European era of African colonization

The Handbook of Interior Design Jo Ann Asher Thompson, Nancy Blossom, 2015-04-20 THE HANDBOOK OF INTERIOR DESIGN The Handbook of Interior Design offers a compilation of current works that inform the discipline of interior design These examples of design scholarship present a detailed overview of current research and critical thinking The volume brings together a broad range of essays from an international group of scholars who represent the diversity of work in the field Intended to engage those involved in the study and practice of interior design the Handbook considers the connections between theory research and practice that shape the field of interior design as well as the theoretical perspectives that inform the field It contains over thirty essays which together demonstrate the wide range of opinions and knowledge in the discipline grouped in sections to reflect key components of their content A close reading of the essays will uncover contradictory as well as supporting positions on aspects of interior design challenging the reader to think critically and develop a personal stance toward the subject

Conservation of Architectural Heritage Antonella Versaci, Hocine Bougdah, Natsuko Akagawa, Nicola Cavalagli, 2022-03-01 This book focuses on the management and conservation of architectural heritage with the aim of increasing awareness about the value of such conservation and of saving what is left of history which in turn rewards societies by supporting the tourism industry generating economic return and preserving communities identities Since it has become an essential need to manage and conserve the architectural heritage in order to protect the identity and heritage of a city there appeared a gap between the theory and its application Therefore a considerable amount of attention has been directed by experts in this field toward emphasizing the contribution of heritage conservation in order to inspire the development of imaginative useful high quality design

Pathways to Alternative Epistemologies in Africa Adeshina

Afolayan, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, 2021-01-04 This volume investigates alternative epistemological pathways by which knowledge production in Africa can proceed The contributors using different intellectual dynamics explore the existing epistemological dominance of the West from architecture to gender discourse from environmental management to democratic governance and offer distinct and unique arguments that challenge the denigration of the different and differing modes of knowing that the West considered barbaric and primitive This volume therefore constitutes a minimal gesture that further contributes to the ongoing discourse on alternative modes of knowing in Africa Educating

Citizen Designers in South Africa Elmarie Costandius, Herman Botes, 2018-09-07 Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa is the first book of its kind to appear in post apartheid South Africa and it is therefore both overdue and extremely welcome The book aims at sharing critical citizenship design teaching and learning pedagogies by including contributions from a range of design educators and one student who work in different design disciplines such as architecture graphic and product design Critical citizenship education is explicated in relation to a range of theories and new and existing models Numerous contemporary case studies and examples of design projects from a range of South African Higher Education Institutions are included As such a variety of perspectives emerge including the consensual where the aim of critical citizenship education is viewed as promoting social justice shared values and critical thinking to the conflicting where critiques are levelled against conceptions of critical citizenship education Contentious contesting and contradictory views are inevitable and necessary given the South African context as it is only in open debate that the one point of agreement among the authors the need for social change can be worked towards Prof Deirdre Pretorius Univeristy of Johannesburg

Sustainable and Resilient Infrastructure Development in Africa's Changing Climate Emmanuel Adinyira, Clifford Amoako, Titus Ebenezer Kwofie, Clinton Aigbavboa, Kofi Agyekum, Michael Addy, 2024-10-11 This book contains the proceedings of ICIDA 2023 The conference is a platform for deliberating the delivery and management of infrastructure in Africa in the face of a changing climate It helped to engage various stakeholders in the continent and beyond on how to develop and deliver sustainable and resilient infrastructure against climate variabilities This book brings together the experiences of participants gathered through many years of research and practice across various fields of infrastructure development that can help shape the future of the African continent Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of
