Conflict and Peacebuilding in the African Great Lakes Region Kenneth Omeje, Tricia Redeker Hepner, 2013-06-19 Driven by genocide civil war political instabilities ethnic and pastoral hostilities the African Great Lakes Region primarily Uganda Rwanda Democratic Republic of the Congo and Burundi has been overwhelmingly defined by conflict Kenneth Omeje Tricia Redeker Hepner and an international group of scholars many from the Great Lakes region focus on the interlocking conflicts and efforts toward peace in this multidisciplinary volume These essays present a range of debates and perspectives on the history and politics of conflict highlighting the complex internal and external sources of both persistent tension and creative peacebuilding Taken together the essays illustrate that no single perspective or approach can adequately capture the dynamics of conflict or offer successful strategies for sustainable peace in the region

peacekeeping peace building and post conflict reconstruction efforts in Africa from 1960 to 2021 Succinctly discussed are historic and contemporary peace security and economic engagements within 18 countries spanning eight African regions the Great Lakes the Economic Community of Central African States East Africa the Horn of Africa North Africa the Sahel Region West Africa and Southern Africa The book develops a neo realist and imperialist critique that discusses how resource rich conflict ridden states have become easy targets for capitalists terrorists and transnational crime aligned to geostrategic parochial interests Critically argued is that endogenous economic growth factors if applied effectively can achieve both peace and security and meet the Global Sustainable Development Goals Such efforts require constructive engagement with the five permanent members of the UN Security Council China France Russia the UK and the US However the book contends that the cornerstone of multilateral engagement involves Africa's 55 states and the African Union's three major pillars the Peace and Security Council the African Governance Architecture and the Post Conflict Reconstruction Development Centre which have the ability to move resource rich conflict ridden states out of transnational crime and poverty This book offers wide ranging analyses of contemporary African diplomacy and a compelling critique of UN peacekeeping efforts in Africa which resonates to scholars of international relations peace and conflict studies and African politics Conflict in the African Great Lakes Region Ladislav Bizimana, 1999 Any analysis aimed at coming up with strategies to positively transform a conflict has first to identify all the actors involved and interests pursued either individually or collectively This rule applies best to protracted conflicts like the one under scrutiny In this research study Ladislav Bizimana tries to answer the most fundamental question Who has been doing what why how in the bloody conflict that continues to plunge the peoples of the African Great Lakes region into mourning In doing so Ladislav draws upon both his personal experience and professional background As a Rwandan who lived through and survived the 1994 Rwandan horror Ladislav speaks from within This matchless insightful and compelling testimony is enriched by his being a former TV and Radio reporter working for humanitarian agencies in the African Great Lakes region 1994 1995 Asylum-Seeker and Refugee Protection in Sub-Saharan Africa Cristiano d'Orsi, 2015-08-11 It is not often acknowledged that the great majority of African refugee movement happens within Africa rather than from Africa to the West This book examines the specific characteristics and challenges of the refugee situation in Sub Saharan Africa offering a new and critical vision on the situation of asylum seekers and refugees in the African continent Cristiano d'Orsi considers the international regional and domestic legal and institutional frameworks linked to refugee protection in Sub Saharan Africa and explores the contributions African refugee protection has brought to the cause on a global scale Key issues covered in the book include the theory and the practice of non refoulement an analysis of the phenomenon of mass influx the concept of burden sharing and the role of freedom fighters The book goes on to examine the expulsions of refugees and the historical role played by UNHCR in Sub Saharan Africa As a work which follows the persecution and legal challenges of those in search of a safe haven this book will be of great interest and use to researchers and students of immigration and asylum law international law human rights and African studies Regional Intervention Politics in Africa Stefanie Wodrig, 2017-02-24 This book analyses regional interventions in African conflict spaces by engaging with political discourse theory Interventions are a performance of agency but what happens if interventions are performed by forces that scholars have hardly ever considered as relevant agents in this regard Based on a study of regional politics towards the crises in Burundi and Zimbabwe the book analyses how these interventions shaped and changed the emerging regional interveners The book engages political discourse theory proposing an understanding of intervention as a field in which multiple and heterogeneous interpretations of the violence the crisis and the future post conflict order meet It is not hard to imagine that this encounter is not harmonious per se but full of frictions By making use of political discourse theory as a grammar for studying the complexity of an intervention the focus is directed to the emerging subjectivities of regional interveners This enables a view of regional interventions that neither reduces their subjectivity to universalist categories associated with liberal peace nor overenthusiastically embraces them as the solution to all problems This book will be of interest to students of international intervention discourse theory African politics war and conflict studies security studies and IR The Palgrave Handbook of Peacebuilding in Africa Tony Karbo, Kudrat Virk, 2018-01-30 This handbook offers a critical assessment of the African agenda for conflict prevention peacemaking peacekeeping and peacebuilding the challenges and opportunities facing Africa's regional organisations in their efforts towards building sustainable peace on the continent and the role of external actors including the United Nations Britain France and South Asian troop contributing countries In so doing it revisits the late Ali Mazrui's concept of Pax Africana calling on Africans to take responsibility for peace and security on their own continent The creation of the African Union in 2002 was an important step towards realising this ambition and has led to the development of a new continental architecture for more robust conflict management But as the volume's authors show the quest for Pax Africana faces challenges Combining thematic analyses and case studies this book will be of interest to both scholars and policymakers working on peace security and governance issues in Africa

International Statebuilding in West Africa Abu Bakarr Bah, Nikolas Emmanuel, 2024-08-06 At the turn of the twenty first century manipulation of the democratic process coupled with preexisting political and economic grievances led to years long civil wars in Sierra Leone Liberia and Côte d'Ivoire During and after these conflicts international peacekeeping efforts and humanitarian intervention became the dominant paths for restoring stability by rebuilding the state Using these three countries as case studies this manuscript sheds light on internationally driven state building in war torn West African nations the problematic nature of the postcolonial state and the difficulties of securing its people's wellbeing Connecting peace and conflict democracy and international development studies Bah and Emmanuel argue that there is a clear nexus between the concepts and practices of peace building and statebuilding that peace building and statebuilding are not domestic matters alone but also matters of global intervention and that civil wars can be viewed as opportunities for state building through creative postwar partnerships and organization This study goes beyond the familiar concepts of failed states R2P peacekeeping and peace mediation and introduces and enhances the concepts of state decay new humanitarianism people centered liberalism and institutional design In doing so it provides critical lessons that local and international actors can draw on as they try to figure out practical solutions to the political economic and social problems that impede the development of peaceful and democratic multiethnic postcolonial states in Africa and beyond Applying comparative historical methods and theory to archival materials and expert interviews International Statebuilding in West Africa seeks to shift the discourse on civil wars from their causes and implications to the opportunities they provide to rework failed states and to shift the discourse on African states from their colonial and neocolonial legacies to their shared moral and security interests with the rest of the world The Challenges of Refugees and Internally Displaced Persons in Africa Sabella O.
