After Cosmopolitanism After Cosmopolitanism:

After Cosmopolitanism Rosi Braidotti, Patrick Hanafin, Bolette Blaagaard, 2013 At a time when social and political reality seems to move away from the practice of cosmopolitanism whilst being in serious need of a new international framework to regulate global interaction what are the new definitions and practices of cosmopolitanism Including contributions from leading figures across the humanities and social sciences After Cosmopolitanism takes up this question as its central challenge Its core argument is the idea that our globalised condition forms the heart of contemporary cosmopolitan claims which do not refer to a transcendental ideal but are rather immanent to the material conditions of global interdependence But to what extent do emerging definitions of cosmopolitanism contribute to new representative democratic models of governance The present volume argues that a radical transformation of cosmopolitanism is already ongoing and that more effort is needed to take stock of transformations which are both necessary and possible To this end After Cosmopolitanism calls for an understanding of cosmopolitanism that is more attentive to the material reality of our social and political situation and less focused on linguistic analyses of its metaphorical implications It is the call for a cosmopolitanism that is also a cosmopolitics

John Dewey at 150 A. G. Rud, Lynda Stone, 2009 The sesquicentennial of the birth of John Dewey is in 2009 In recognition of this occasion John Dewey at One Hundred Fifty Reflections for a New Century with contributors drawn from the members of the John Dewey Society will be published as both a journal issue and a book The papers will appear as an issue of the Society's journal Education and Culture in late fall 2009 and as a book by Purdue University Press

The Cosmopolitan Imagination Gerard Delanty, 2009-10-08 Gerard Delanty provides a comprehensive assessment of the idea of cosmopolitanism in social and political thought which links cosmopolitan theory with critical social theory He argues that cosmopolitanism has a critical dimension which offers a solution to one of the weaknesses in the critical theory tradition failure to respond to the challenges of globalization and intercultural communication Critical cosmopolitanism he proposes is an approach that is not only relevant to social scientific analysis but also normatively grounded in a critical attitude Delanty's argument for a critical sociologically oriented cosmopolitanism aims to avoid on the one hand purely normative conceptions of cosmopolitanism and on the other approaches that reduce cosmopolitanism to the empirical expression of diversity He attempts to take cosmopolitan theory beyond the largely Western context with which it has generally been associated claiming that cosmopolitan analysis must now take into account non Western expressions of cosmopolitanism

Culture and Economics in Contemporary Cosmopolitan Fiction Elif Toprak Sakız, 2023-11-17 This book investigates how culture and economics define novel forms of cosmopolitanism and cosmopolitan fiction Tracing cosmopolitanism's transition from universalism to vernacularism the book opens up new avenues for reading cosmopolitan fiction by offering a precise and convenient set of terminology The figure of the cosmopolitan identifies a contemporary cosmopolitan character's urban mobility and wandering consciousness in interaction with the global and the local Posthuman cosmopolitanism also extends the meaning of cosmopolitan which comes to embrace the nonhuman alongside the human element Defining narrative locality political hyper awareness and narrative immediacy the book thoroughly explores how cosmopolitan narration forges direct responses to the contemporary world in postmillennial cosmopolitan novels All of these concepts are elaborated in Ian McEwan's Saturday 2005 Zadie Smith's NW 2012 Salman Rushdie's The Golden House 2017 and Kazuo Ishiguro's Klara and the Sun 2021 to which world engagement is central

New Perspectives on International Comparative Literature Cao Shunqing, Theo D'haen, Liang Chang, Zhou Shu, 2022-07-25 Bringing together 17 articles by renowned scholars from around the globe this volume offers a multi dimensional view of comparative and world literature Drawing on the scope of these scholars collective intellects and insights it connects disparate research contexts to illuminate the multi dimensional views of related areas as we step into the third decade of the 21st century The book will be of particular interest to scholars working in comparative literary and cultural studies and to readers interested in the future of literary studies in a cross culturized world

Cosmopolitanism Versus Non-Cosmopolitanism Gillian Brock, 2013-07-11 This volume demonstrates that the debate between cosmopolitans and non cosmopolitans has become increasingly sophisticated It advances the discussion on many of the questions over which cosmopolitans and non cosmopolitans continue to disagree

Re-Grounding Cosmopolitanism Tamara Caraus, Elena Paris, 2015-11-19 Leading experts and rising stars in the field explore whether cosmopolitanism becomes impossible in the theoretical framework that assumed the absence of a final ground The questions that the volume addresses refer exactly to the foundational predicament that characterizes cosmopolitanism How is it possible to think cosmopolitanism after the critique of foundations Can cosmopolitanism be conceived without an ultimate ground Can we construct theories of cosmopolitanism without some certainties about the entire world or about the cosmos Should we continue to look for foundations of cosmopolitan rights norms and values Alternatively should we aim towards cosmopolitanism without foundations or towards cosmopolitanism with contingent foundations Could cosmopolitanism be the very attempt to come to terms with the failure of ultimate grounds Written accessibly and contributing to key debates on political philosophy and social and political thought this volume advances the concept of post foundational cosmopolitanism by bridging the polarised approaches to the concept

Routledge Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies Gerard Delanty, 2012 This book reflects the broad reception of cosmopolitan thought in a variety of disciplines and across international borders

The Gulf Migrant Archives in Kerala Mohamed Shafeeq Karinkurayil, 2024-03-20 The Indian state of Kerala is one of the largest blocs of migrants in the oil economies of the Arab Gulf Looking closely at the cultural archives produced by and on the Gulf migrants in Malayalam the predominant language of Kerala this book takes stock of circular migration beyond its economics It combines formal and thematic analyses of photographs films and literature with anthropological and historical details to offer a nuanced understanding of the construction of the Gulf and its translation to the cultural imaginary of Kerala It explores the dissonance between the private and public discourses on the Gulf among migrants and non migrants and demonstrates the role of this disjuncture in the continued fascination for Gulf migrant lives An enquiry into the various dimensions of the Gulf in Kerala as an acknowledged means of living as a rumour an object of gossip a public secret or even a private thrill this book debunks the idea of language as a common entity and studies the tentative borders built within Finally it explores the resources possibilities and perils of affiliative communities constructed along and across those borders Theory after Derrida Kailash C. Baral,R. Radhakrishnan,2012-04-27 A critical anthology that re examines Jacques Derrida s thought by way of theory and praxis this volume reflects on his striking legacy and the future of theory Among contemporary thinkers Derrida challenges not only our ways of thinking but also hitherto methods of critical inquiry In the attempt to renovate and re energise philosophy Derrida questions the fundamental assumptions of Western philosophical thought and in turn exposes the intricate lie behind binaries such as speech writing nature culture male female black white literature criticism etc which have continued to shape our worldview where a hegemonic centre is always already in place dominating marginalising the other This book explores not only the status of Derrida s contribution as a critical thinker but also the status of critical theory as such in the contemporary milieu The central question that it asks is whether we should dismiss Derrida as a thinker who espoused an extreme form of relativism bordering on nihilism or has he something fundamental to contribute to the future of theory Could it be that deconstruction is not destruction but a possibility that casts doubts on whether the present can have faith in future The volume addresses some important concerns of our times such as religious practice art and aesthetics translation sociology of philosophy and democracy making a significant contribution to literary theory Scholars of English literature philosophy sociology and cultural studies will find this work particularly appealing J.M. Coetzee and the Limits of Cosmopolitanism K. Hallemeier,2013-11-07 Drawing on postcolonial and gender studies as well as affect theory the book interrogates cosmopolitan philosophies Through analysis of J M Coetzee s later fiction Hallemeier invites the re imagining of cosmopolitanism particularly as it is performed through the reading of literature Cosmopolitan Strangers in US Latinx Literature and Culture Esther Álvarez-López,Andrea Fernández-García,2023-03-30 This book presents a study of the figure of the stranger in US Latinx literary and cultural forms ranging from contemporary novels through essays to film and transborder art activism The focus on this abject figure is twofold first to explore its potential to expose the processes of othering to which Latinxs are subjected and second to foreground its epistemic response to neocolonial structures and beliefs Thus this book draws on relevant sociological literature on the stranger to unveil the political and social processes behind the recognition of Latinxs as out of place On the other hand and most importantly this volume follows the path of neo cosmopolitan approaches to bring to the fore processes of interrelatedness interaction and conviviality that run counter to criminalizing discourses around Latinxs Through an engagement with these theoretical tenets the goal of this book is to showcase the role of the Latinx stranger as a cosmopolitan mediator that transforms walls into bridges White Tongue, Brown Skin Maya Boutaghrou,2024-11-15

Examines the effect of prescribed multilingualism as expressed by women writers in colonial contexts What does it mean to be an heir as a woman writer to colonial and postcolonial cultures in which European language has become so thoroughly ingrained Examining women writers from India Toru Dutt Egypt Mayy Ziyadah Algeria Assia Djebar and Mauritius Ananda Devi White Tongue Brown Skin sheds light on the essential double nature of the colonial experience Maya Boutaghou's latest book her first in English treats colonialism as analogous to a disease manifesting itself in symptoms of multilingualism and cultural pluralism Boutaghou shows how violently imposed multilingualism engenders in the mind of the colonized subject a state of permanent self translation between two or more languages with unequal political and emotional power They must endure a plural perception of the self defined by the restless movement of self translation which becomes reflected in a literary dynamic frequently overlooked or misunderstood by previous scholarship Although the object is philosophical this book is also deeply rooted in history Understanding postcolonialism from below as Boutaghou demonstrates starts with an approach based on close readings in specific historical contexts

Negative Cosmopolitanism Eddy Kent, Terri Tomsy, 2017-11-10 From climate change debt and refugee crises to energy security environmental disasters and terrorism the events that lead nightly newscasts and drive public policy demand a global perspective In the twentieth century the world sought solutions through formal institutions of international governance such as the United Nations the International Criminal Court and the World Bank but present day responses to global realities are often more provisional improvisational and contingent Tracing this uneven history in order to identify principal actors contesting ideologies and competing rhetoric Negative Cosmopolitanism challenges the Kantian ideal of cosmopolitanism as the precondition for a perpetual global peace Uniting literary scholars with researchers working on contemporary problems and those studying related issues of the past including slavery industrial capitalism and corporate imperialism essays in this volume scrutinize the entanglement of cosmopolitanism within expanding networks of trade and global capital from the eighteenth century to the present By doing so the contributors pinpoint the ways in which whole populations have been unwillingly caught up in a capitalist reality that has little in common with the earlier ideals of cosmopolitanism A model for provoking new and necessary questions about neoliberalism biopolitics colonialism citizenship and xenophobia Negative Cosmopolitanism establishes a fresh take on the representation of globalization and modern life in history and literature Contributors Include Timothy Brennan University of Minnesota Julianne Collard University of British Columbia Mike Dillon California State University Fullerton Sneja Gunew University of British Columbia Dina Gusejnova University of Sheffield Heather Latimer University of British Columbia Pamela McCallum University of Calgary Geordie Miller Dalhousie University Dennis Mischke University of Stuttgart Peter Nyers McMaster University Liam O Loughlin Pacific Lutheran University Crystal Parikh New York University Mark Simpson University of Alberta Melissa Stephens Vancouver Island University and Paul Ugor Illinois State University

Cosmopolitan Vision Ulrich Beck, 2006-04-28 In this new book Ulrich Beck develops his now widely used concepts of second modernity risk society and reflexive sociology into a radical new sociological analysis of the cosmopolitan implications of globalization Beck draws extensively on empirical and theoretical analyses of such phenomena as migration war and terror as well as a range of literary and historical works to weave a rich discursive web in which analytical critical and methodological themes intertwine effortlessly Contrasting a cosmopolitan vision or outlook sharpened by awareness of the transformative and transgressive impacts of globalization with the national outlook neurotically fixated on the familiar reference points of a world of nations states borders sovereignty exclusive identities Beck shows how even opponents of globalization and cosmopolitanism are trapped by the logic of reflexive modernization into promoting the very processes they are opposing A persistent theme running through the book is the attempt to recover an authentically European tradition of cosmopolitan openness to otherness and tolerance of difference What Europe needs Beck argues is the courage to unite forms of life which have grown out of language skin colour nationality or religion with awareness that in a radically insecure world all are equal and everyone is different

Cultivating Cosmopolitanism for Intercultural Communication Miriam Sobre-Denton, Nilanjana Bardhan, 2013-06-19 Winner of the National Communication Association's International and Intercultural Communication Division's 2014 Outstanding Authored Book of the Year award This book engages the notion of cosmopolitanism as it applies to intercultural communication which itself is undergoing a turn in its focus from post positivistic research towards critical interpretive and postcolonial perspectives particularly as globalization informs more of the current and future research in the area It emphasizes the postcolonial perspective in order to raise critical consciousness about the complexities of intercultural communication in a globalizing world situating cosmopolitanism the notion of global citizenship as a multilayered lens for research Cosmopolitanism as a theoretical repertoire provides nuanced descriptions of what it means to be and communicate as a global citizen how to critically study interconnectedness within and across cultures and how to embrace differences without glossing over them Moving intercultural communication studies towards the global in complex and nuanced ways this book highlights crucial links between globalization transnationalism postcolonialism cosmopolitanism social injustice and intercultural communication and will help in the creation of classroom spaces devoted to exploring these links It also engages the links between theory and praxis in order to move towards intercultural communication pedagogy and research that simultaneously celebrates and interrogates issues of cultural difference with the aim of creating continuity rather than chasms In sum this book orients intercultural communication scholarship firmly towards the critical and postcolonial while still allowing the incorporation of traditional intercultural communication concepts thereby preparing students scholars educators and interculturalists to communicate ethically in a world that is simultaneously global and local

A World Beyond Global Disorder Fred Dallmayr, Edward

Demenchonok,2017-05-11 A world which like ours has been ravaged by some sixty wars in recent decades can rightly be described as the scene of global disorder Even today the same world is traumatized by hot and cold wars proxy wars and repeated outbursts of blood filled mayhem not to mention the threat of a nuclear holocaust unleashed by big power rivalries These are not mere statistics but wounds in the body of humanity calling for healing and reconciliation In biblical terms human beings are not meant to be the owners or the destroyers of the world but rather its custodians or caretakers This collection is a summons to responsible care taking and it approaches the subject from an intercultural perspective in a variety of fields including religion and politics The topics covered range from accounts of major global calamities today to explorations of possible political economic and societal reforms and to the invocation of basic religious and philosophical resources needed for the recovery of a world beyond global disorder
