Africa Human Development Report 2012 Towards A Food Secure Future:

Africa Human Development Report 2012 ,2012 Sub Saharan Africa has the highest prevalence of hunger in the world Until this situation improves the human development prospects of millions of Africans will remain at risk UNDP s first Africa Human Development Report shows that food security and human development reinforce each other If African countries are to realise their long term potential the report says they must boost agricultural productivity to both improve the availability of food and reduce poverty Policies to enhance nutrition are central to ensuring that access to food translates into human development The report argues further that local populations must have the resources and decision making power to produce and consume nutritious food throughout the year overcoming the risks represented by continuing conflict climate change and variations in food prices African futures: towards a sustainable emergence? UNESCO,2016-09-12 African Economic Outlook 2013 Structural Transformation and Natural Resources OECD,African Development Bank,United Nations Development Programme,United Nations Economic Commission for Africa,2013-05-27 The African Economic Outlook is the only annual report that monitors in detail the economic performance of 53 individual countries on the continent using a strictly comparable analytical framework The focus of the 2013 edition is structural transformation and natural resources in Africa Food Security and Food Sovereignty Challenges in Africa Lere Amusan,2023-11-25 This edited volume advances knowledge of food security and food sovereignty for students and researchers The book analyses and interprets field data and interrogates relevant literature which forms the basis for decisions on improving food security and sovereignty in Africa It deepens an understanding of food fraud and of multinational corporations MNCs manipulations of food quality to the detriment of consumers It provides information to advance new knowledge on the issue of international interdependency of unequal exchange and the inactions of governments against the dumping and waste of food African Economic Outlook 2016 Sustainable Cities and Structural Transformation African Development Bank,OECD,United Nations Development Programme,2016-05-23 This report presents the continent s current state of affairs and forecasts its situation for the coming two years It examines Africa s performance in crucial areas macroeconomics financing trade policies and regional integration human development and governance Food Security and Development Udaya Sekhar Nagothu,2014-11-13 The global food system is characterized by large numbers of people experiencing food insecurity and hunger on the one hand and vast amounts of food waste and overconsumption on the other This book brings together experiences from different countries addressing the challenges associated with food security Seen through various disciplinary lenses the different cases included are countries at various stages of food security with diverse stories of success as well as failures in their efforts China Brazil and India as well as less developed countries in Africa and Asia such as Malawi Ethiopia Tanzania Myanmar Bangladesh and the Philippines The authors pay special attention to the environmental and socio economic challenges in the respective chapters and how they contribute to food insecurity Each of the case studies identifies and analyzes which factors or drivers environmental economic policy technology markets have been the most powerful shapers of the food system and their future impact The case studies identify interventions at regional national and local level that contribute positively to food security highlighting solutions that are effective and easy to implement for all levels of decision makers from farmers to policy makers Overall the book provides insights in order to foster a greater understanding of the issues surrounding food security and support progress towards the goal of a sustainable food system for all

Africa: Facing Human Security Challenges in the 21st Century Mentan, Tatah, 2014-05-12 Africa's dynamic security environment is characterized by great diversity from conventional challenges such as insurgencies resource and identity conflicts and post conflict stabilization to growing threats from piracy narcotics trafficking violent extremism and organized crime taking root in urban slums among others This precarious environment jeopardizes security at the societal community and individual levels In a globalized and interconnected world millions of people worldwide are affected by some form of human insecurity Infectious and parasitic diseases annually kill millions Internally displaced persons number millions including 5 million in Sudan alone In Zambia 1 million people in a population of 11 million are reported to be HIV positive a situation much worse in other countries Potable water crisis looms almost everywhere In this book Tatah Mentan points out the need to shift the focus away from a state centric and military strategic emphasis on security to an interdisciplinary and people centric approach that embraces notions like global citizenship empowerment and participation The primary elements of economic food health environment personal community and political security all comprise the broader understanding of human security in an intricately interconnected world

Regional Economic Outlook, October 2012, Sub-Saharan Africa International Monetary Fund. African Dept., 2012-10-15 Economic conditions in sub Saharan Africa have remained generally robust despite a sluggish global economy The near term outlook for the region remains broadly positive and growth is projected at 5.1-4 percent a year in 2012-13 Most low income countries are projected to continue to grow strongly supported by domestic demand including from investment The outlook is less favorable for many of the middle income countries especially South Africa that are more closely linked to European markets and thus experience a more noticeable drag from the external environment The main risks to the outlook are an intensification of financial stresses in the euro zone and a sharp fiscal adjustment in the US the so called fiscal cliff

African Economic Outlook 2014 Global Value Chains and Africa's Industrialisation African Development Bank, OECD, United Nations Development Programme, 2014-05-19 The African Economic Outlook 2014 analyses the continent's growing role in the world economy and predicts two year macroeconomic prospects It details the performance of African economies in crucial areas

Development in Africa George Kararach, Hany Besada, Timothy M. Shaw, 2016-10-26 Though the fact gets little international attention in recent years countries across Africa have seen unprecedented economic growth a boom that stretches back to 2000 and has made a huge difference in the lives of citizens in countless nations Nonetheless the continent still faces major development challenges This book brings together a sterling roster of contributors to analyze present and future development in Africa post Millennium Development Goals It presents twelve major public policy conversations that they deem essential to Africa s future growth and success Africa's Urban Revolution Doctor Edgar Pieterse,Susan Parnell,2014-01-09 The facts of Africa s rapid urbanisation are startling By 2030 African cities will have grown by more than 350 million people and over half the continent s population will be urban Yet in the minds of policy makers scholars and much of the general public Africa remains a quintessentially rural place This lack of awareness and robust analysis means it is difficult to make a policy case for a more overtly urban agenda As a result there is across the continent insufficient urgency directed to responding to the challenges and opportunities associated with the world s last major wave of urbanisation Drawing on the expertise of scholars and practitioners associated with the African Centre for Cities and utilising a diverse array of case studies Africa s Urban Revolution provides a comprehensive insight into the key issues demographic cultural political technical environmental and economic surrounding African urbanisation

Africa's Agricultural Renaissance Ayodele Odusola,2021-06-26 This book addresses the paradox between preponderance of hunger in a continent that is well endowed with fertile agricultural land plenty of fresh water and a vibrant labor force As some statistics show close to 60% of arable land in the world is located in Africa which also has several rivers flowing in all seasons and plenty of underground water The bulk of its labor force thrives on agriculture yet the continent s largest import item is food 23 of 36 the most malnourished countries also belong in Africa This has caused significant needless human suffering This book goes beyond providing the traditional framework of supplying policy recommendations to delivering an applied innovative framework upon which policymakers the private sector and international institutions can take clear and deliberate action to stimulate Africa s agricultural sector thus responding to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Reconstructing the Authoritarian State in Africa George Kieh, Jr.,Pita Agbese,2013-10-01 This work seeks to examine the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa and to suggest ways in which the states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted In 1990 a wave of euphoria greeted the third wave of democratization that swept across the African Continent The repression wearied subalterns were hopeful that the third wave would have set into motion the process of democratically reconstituting the authoritarian state on the continent More than two decades thereafter although some progress has been made by and large the authoritarian state remains the dominant construct in the region Even in some of the countries in which democratic transitions have taken place the process of democratic consolidation remains an elusive quest as these states are sandwiched between authoritarianism and democracy Against this background the purpose of this book is to examine the travails of the authoritarian state in Africa including the Herculean task to democratically reconstruct it In order to do this six of Africa s perennial authoritarian states Cameroon the Democratic Republic of the Congo Egypt Liberia Rwanda and Uganda are used as the case studies The book has two major objectives First the various chapters probe the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa Second the chapters suggest ways in which the various authoritarian states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted Towards Impact and Resilience J. Oloka-Onyango, Aldo Stroebe, Frans Swanepoel, 2014-09-18 This book consisting of 17 chapters focuses on clarifying the challenges issues and priorities of Agricultural Education and Training AET in sub Saharan Africa and provides suggestions for practical solutions that can help guide organisations interested in furthering AET for agricultural development on the continent It discusses the African context within which a transformed AET system needs to be located analyses African and international experiences that are relevant to identified AET needs and challenges dissects AET models that may hold important lessons and addresses the main critical issues that will impact upon AET in sub Saharan Africa The concluding chapter synthesises the ideas experiences and evidence from the preceding chapters in order to highlight critical issues for success as well as possible solutions The book is uniquely positioned to add to a call to action on AET to pull together state of the art knowledge from within and outside sub Saharan Africa and to advance out of the box thinking about the principles values and character of AET for development with an emphasis on the models that can help to cultivate leaders and change makers at all levels of the agricultural sector The Palgrave Handbook of Agricultural and Rural Development in Africa Evans S. Osabuohien, 2020-07-06 This handbook examines agricultural and rural development in Africa from theoretical empirical and policy stand points It discusses the challenges of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and assesses how poverty and other development concerns can be addressed in rural communities through agricultural transformation Additionally the handbook extends the Post 2015 Development Agenda and it emphasizes the importance of the agricultural sector as it is closely related to the issues of food sustainability poverty reduction and employment creation The contributors suggest multiple evidence based policies to develop the rural areas through the transformation of the agricultural sector which can significantly benefit the African continent Africa in the Age of Globalisation Edward Shizha, Lamine Diallo, 2016-03-09 This is a collection of bold and visionary scholarship that reveals an insightful exposition of re visioning African development from African perspectives It provides educators policy makers social workers non governmental agencies and development agencies with an interdisciplinary conceptual base that can effectively guide them in planning and implementing programs for socio economic development in Africa The book provides up to date scholarly research on continental trends on various subjects and concerns of paramount importance to globalisation and development in Africa politics democracy education gender technology global relationships and the role of non governmental organisations The authors challenge the familiar paradigms in order to show how imperfectly if at all assumptions about globalisation and development theories have failed in their depictions and applications to Africa The scholars in this volume both inform and advocate for a re visioning of perceptions on Africa and how it navigates global processes Globalization and Development Volume II Shigeru Thomas Otsubo, 2015-10-05 Globalization and Development is a cross national study on the interstate dispersion of the impacts on growth inequality and poverty that international economic integration provides to the economies of the developing countries In order to present the Leading Issues in Development with Globalization in a balanced manner to identify differences and commonalities among Country Experiences in development with globalization and to introduce diversified development paradigms with forward looking discussions In Search of a New Development Paradigm for the post MDGs era this publication consists of three volumes and four main parts Volume II Part III presents the country case studies of Bhutan China Indonesia Japan Thailand Vietnam and Ghana with their respective experiences of development under globalization An additional chapter that describes the overall African experience under globalization is included reflecting the recent emergence of Africa as the global target of investment This book intends to serve as a unique and comprehensive guide for those in the international development community on the subjects of diversified development paradigms paths under globalization and other challenges in the post MDGs era

Climate Change Resilience in Rural Southern Africa Mark Matsa,Lazarus Chapungu,Godwell Nhamo,2024-12-17

In rural Southern Africa the livelihoods of millions are intricately linked to the land water and ecosystems that are increasingly under threat from climate change This intensifying threat has exacerbated pre existing vulnerabilities rendering the need for resilience building more critical than ever Emerging scholarship on climate change strategies suggest that building resilience in human and environmental systems is the ideal strategy for combating the climate change induced catastrophes Rural Southern Africa has witnessed both isolated and coordinated efforts by various stakeholders to bolster climate resilience yielding varying degrees of success This book offers a comprehensive examination of the rural Southern African landscape probing the intricate dynamics prospects and challenges associated with building climate resilience It examines how traditional knowledge innovative practices including Artificial Intelligence and sustainable development strategies are converging to create resilient systems The book further highlights the critical role of local communities in addressing climate challenges and offers actionable insights for a more resilient future. It emerged that some interventions have managed to build resilience of at risk households, communities and systems while others have faced significant challenges. In general, climate resilience building remains complex and lagging due to increased vulnerabilities induced by global disease emergencies such as COVID 19, increased poverty due to global recessions, poor governance, corruption and several other internal and external factors. Therefore, the need to increase cooperation amongst Southern African states to pursue common development goals cannot be overemphasized. Rich with case studies, expert analyses and systematic reviews, this book is an essential read for policymakers, researchers and those invested in the future of rural Southern Africa.

Food Security Among Small-Scale Agricultural Producers in Southern Africa Josephine Phillip Msangi, 2014-08-29. The book focuses on food security, highlighting the role of indigenous knowledge and scientific research in addressing the plight of poor small scale agricultural producers. Rapidly growing global population and global policies and management governing sustainability, hunger, food security and poverty alleviation are discussed. Additionally, impacts of probable climate change research on land productivity and performance of dependable food crops, i.e. cassava and pearl millet, are discussed. Analyzed in great detail are roles of small stock, urban peri urban agriculture and advantages of climate smart agriculture and participatory research in enhancing food security of the small scale agricultural producers in Southern Africa.
