African American Screen Writers Now Conversations With Hollywoods Black Pack:

African-American Screenwriters Now Erich Leon Harris,1996 Hollywood is currently seeing a great influx of young African American filmmakers who collectively are altering the face of American filmmaking African American Screenwriters Now brings together recent interviews with both up and coming and established screenwriters some of whom also work as directors and producers and paints a vivid picture of the opportunities and obstacles that face today s black filmmakers in Hollywood These writers discuss their influences their goals the birth of stories the writing process getting work and getting films made alongside their comments on racial barriers and the portrayal of blacks in film Black Directors in

Hollywood Melvin Donalson,2010-01-01 An in depth look at the pioneering work and lasting influence of black Hollywood directors from Gordon Parks to Spike Lee and beyond Hollywood film directors are some of the world s most powerful storytellers shaping the fantasies and aspirations of people around the globe Since the 1960s African Americans have increasingly joined their ranks bringing fresh insights to the characters we watch and profoundly changing the way stories are told Today black directors are making films in all popular genres while inventing new ones to speak directly from and to the black experience This book offers a comprehensive look at the work of black directors in Hollywood from pioneers such as Gordon Parks Melvin Van Peebles and Ossie Davis to current talents including Spike Lee John Singleton Kasi Lemmons and Carl Franklin Discussing sixty seven individuals and over 135 films Melvin Donalson thoroughly explores how black directors storytelling skills and film techniques have widened both the thematic focus and visual style of American cinema Assessing the meanings and messages in their films Donalson convincingly demonstrates that black directors are balancing Hollywood s demand for box office success with artistic achievement and responsibility to ethnic cultural and gender issues

The New Historical Dictionary of the American Film Industry Anthony Slide,2014-02-25 The New Historical Dictionary of the American Film Industry is a completely revised and updated edition of Anthony Slide s The American Film Industry originally published in 1986 and recipient of the American Library Association s Outstanding Reference Book award for that year More than 200 new entries have been added and all original entries have been updated each entry is followed by a short bibliography As its predecessor the new dictionary is unique in that it is not a who s who of the industry but rather a what s what a dictionary of producing and releasing companies technical innovations industry terms studios genres color systems institutions and organizations etc More than 800 entries include everything from Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences to Zoom Lens from Astoria Studios to Zoetrope Outstanding Reference Source American Library Association

Authorship and Film David A. Gerstner,Janet Staiger,2013-09-13 Authorship in film has been a persistent theme in the field of cinema studies This volume of new work revitalizes the question of authorship by connecting it to larger issues of identity in film in the marketplace in society in culture Essays range from the auteur theory and Casablanca to Oscar Micheaux from the American avant garde to community video all illuminating how authorship is a complex idea with far reaching implications This ambitious and wide ranging book will be essential reading for anyone concerned with film studies and the concept of the author The Way Hollywood Tells it David Bordwell, 2006 Publisher description Frame by Frame II Phyllis Rauch Klotman, Gloria J. Gibson, 1997 A filmography of Blacks in the film industry Inventing the Modern American Family Isabel Heinemann, 2012-05 Family is the foundation of society and debates on family norms have always touched the very heart of America This volume investigates the negotiations and transformations of family values and gender norms in the twentieth century as they relate to the overarching processes of social change of that period By combining long term approaches with innovative analysis Inventing the Modern American Family transcends not only the classical dichotomies between women s studies and masculinity studies but also contribute substantially to the history of gender and culture in the United States L.A. Rebellion Allyson Field, 2015-11-13 L A Rebellion Creating a New Black Cinema is the first book dedicated to the films and filmmakers of the L A Rebellion a group of African Caribbean and African American independent film and video artists that formed at the University of California Los Angeles in the 1970s and 1980s The group including Charles Burnett Julie Dash Haile Gerima Billy Woodberry Jamaa Fanaka and Zeinabu irene Davis shared a desire to create alternatives to the dominant modes of narrative style and practice in American cinema works that reflected the full complexity of Black experiences This landmark collection of essays and oral histories examines the creative output of the L A Rebellion contextualizing the group s film practices and offering sustained analyses of the wide range of works with particular attention to newly discovered films and lesser known filmmakers Based on extensive archival work and preservation this collection includes a complete filmography of the movement over 100 illustrations most of which are previously unpublished and a bibliography of primary and secondary materials This is an indispensable sourcebook for scholars and enthusiasts establishing the key role played by the L A Rebellion within the histories of cinema Black visual culture and postwar art in Los Angeles Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venise T. Berry, 2015-05-07 As early as 1909 African Americans were utilizing the new medium of cinema to catalogue the world around them using the film camera as a device to capture their lives and their history The daunting subject of race and ethnicity permeated life in America at the turn of the twentieth century and due to the effect of certain early films specific television images and an often biased news media it still plagues us today As new technologies bring the power of the moving image to the masses African Americans will shoot and edit on laptop computers and share their stories with a global audience via the World Wide Web These independently produced visions will add to the diverse cache of African American images being displayed on an ever expanding silver screen This wide range of stories topics views and genres will finally give the world a glimpse of African American life that has long been ignored and has yet to be seen This second edition of Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1400 cross referenced entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about African American cinema The African American Encyclopedia R. Kent Rasmussen,2001 Reel Black Talk Linda Allen, Spencer Moon,1997-09-23 As evidenced in interviews included in this volume many African American filmmakers consider themselves artists first their ethnicity being only part of what influences their work This is the first book by an African American on contemporary African American filmmakers Here directors and producers speak for themselves posing challenges to current thinking in the field Special emphasis is given to the filmmakers productions and their experiences Essays on historic figures reveal the rich history of the African American contribution to cinema From Oscar Micheaux and Spencer Williams to Neema Barnett and the team of George Jackson and Doug McHenry this revealing reference work will enlighten scholars students and film buffs As early as 1899 African Americans were involved in the filmmaking industry Oscar Micheaux took directing writing and producing to a higher level with the release of his first film in 1918 by 1948 he had made more than forty films Currently by international world cinema standards the African American tradition rivals cinema from anywhere in the world but these filmmakers face a quandary whether to make films through the Hollywood system or follow an independent vision This book presents a cross section of filmmakers from each camp and also focuses on those who work in both arenas Encyclopedia of African American Popular Culture Jessie Smith,2010-12-17 This four volume encyclopedia contains compelling and comprehensive information on African American popular culture that will be valuable to high school students and undergraduates college instructors researchers and general readers From the Apollo Theater to the Harlem Renaissance from barber shop and beauty shop culture to African American holidays family reunions and festivals and from the days of black baseball to the era of a black president the culture of African Americans is truly unique and diverse This diversity is the result of intricate customs forged in tightly woven communities not only in the United States but in many cases also stemming from the traditions of another continent Encyclopedia of African American Popular Culture presents information in a traditional A Z organization capturing the essence of the customs of African Americans and presenting this rich cultural heritage through the lens of popular culture Each entry includes historical and current information to provide a meaningful background for the topic and the perspective to appreciate its significance in a modern context This encyclopedia is a valuable research tool that provides easy access to a wealth of information on the African American experience African American Review ,1999 As the official publication of the Division on Black American Literature and Culture of the Modern Language Association of America African American review promotes an exchange among writers and scholars in the arts humanities and social sciences who hold diverse perspectives of African American literature and culture Film - An International Bibliography Malte Hagener,Michael Töteberg,2016-12-16 Kommentierte Bibliografie Sie gibt Wissenschaftlern Studierenden und Journalisten zuverlässig Auskunft über rund 6000 internationale Ver
