Against The Wind Creating A Church Of Diversity Through Authentic Love:

When Faith Catches Fire Samuel Rodriguez, Robert C. Crosby, 2017-06-20 God Loves a Heart on Fire What can move your faith from a principle you learn to a passion you experience According to Samuel Rodriguez and Dr Robert Crosby the answer might be found in a surprising place the Latino church As the fastest growing minority in America Latinos are impacting church culture through vibrant worship fervent prayer and a commitment to change the world one soul at a time As a follower of Jesus has your soul been truly set afire Christian leaders are witnessing a remarkable phenomenon kindled first in the Latino Hispanic community and spreading like wildfire throughout the global church Latinos are much discussed in the United States for their dynamic political and socioeconomic impact but not as much is said about their spiritual influence In reality the effects of the Latino church are more akin to a spiritual awakening than a mere social trend And there is so much all believers can learn from Latino Christ followers At the core of this dramatic shift is a call to embrace a more soulful passionate faith In this powerful book Christians will gain valuable insights on how to fully experience the joy of God and the passion of His Spirit develop a true sense of unity amidst diversity in the body of Christ make an eternal impact on their families communities and the world Complete with discussion questions for individual reflection or small group use this timely work will challenge the status quo of passionless Christianity and set the believer's soul ablaze When Faith Catches Fire is both an exploration and a celebration of the salsafication of the church God will use it in splendid ways John Ortberg senior pastor and author of All the Places to Go The passionate fire from the heart of this book will serve as a rallying cry to all Latinos and beyond Ronnie Floyd senior pastor past president of the Southern Baptist Convention Against the Wind J. Don George, 2012 As pastors we have taught our people about God's promise to bless every family on earth through Abraham We have preached that our mission is to reach the whole world with the gospel But what about the newcomers from other countries who have moved near our churches What about those who live under the bridge people with alternative sexual preferences and others in our communities Does the love of God move us to care for them In this book Don George shares the story of how God touched his heart and changed the direction of his church If you want to stick with the status quo don't bother to read it But if you sense that God has something more for you and for your church open both the book and your heart to an adventure of love challenge and the thrill of knowing you're in alignment with God's deepest desires Page 4 of cover The Chautauquan, 1890 The Oberlin Evangelist, 1839 THE CHRISTIAN APOLOGIST Edward D. Andrews, 2016-11-03 Culturally Engaging Service-Learning With Diverse Communities Delano-Oriaran, Omobolade O., Penick-Parks, Marguerite W., Fondrie, Suzanne, 2017-09-13 Evaluating the experiences of racially marginalized and underrepresented groups is vital to creating equality in society Such actions have the potential to provoke an interest in universities to adopt high impact pedagogical practices that attempt to eliminate institutional injustices Culturally Engaging Service Learning With Diverse Communities is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on service learning models that recognize how systemic social injustices continue to pervade society Featuring extensive coverage on a broad range of topics and perspectives such as cultural humility oral histories and social ecology this book is ideally designed for scholars practitioners and students interested in engaging in thoughtful and authentic partnerships with diverse groups
