Holland, 2019-08-01 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching the works of David Foster Wallace s novels short stories and essays Includes considerations of Wallace s literary techniques philosophy and literary ethics Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in American literature surveys first year composition courses world literature surveys and high school courses

Instigation Michael Arnzen, 2013-03-15 INSTIGATION Creative Prompts on the Dark Side by award winning horror author and writing professor Michael A Arnzen is a treasury of twisted tips strange scenarios and disturbing sparks to help ignite the fuel in your creative furnace Its aim To push you into the danger zone of your imagination by thinking in unconventional ways and trying things you never thought or dared to try before in your writing art or dreams Features include prompts for new stories revision memoir writing and NaNoWriMo Also includes articles by Arnzen on the writing process

Subversion and Conformity of Literary Collage Magda Dragu, 2024-04-30 Subversion and Conformity of Literary Collage Between Cut and Glue fills a gap in the current scholarship on literary collage by addressing how different the interpretations of the concept are depending on the author who uses the concept and the material and writers surveyed The book studies writers who employed literary collage during the twentieth and twenty first centuries some whose works have been intensely analyzed from this perspective William S Burroughs and Walter Benjamin but also some whose collage writing style has recently been investigated by writers being usually placed under the umbrella term of artist books Stelio Maria Martini

Theories of Forgetting Lance Olsen, 2014-02-28 Theories of Forgetting is concerned with how words matter the materiality of the page and how a literary work might react against mass reproduction and textual disembodiment in the digital age right from its use of two back covers one upside down and one right side up that allow the reader to choose which of the novel s two narratives to privilege Theories of Forgetting is a narrative in three parts The first is the story of Alana a filmmaker struggling to complete a short documentary about Robert Smithson s famous earthwork The Spiral Jetty located where the Great Salt Lake meets the desert Alana falls victim to a pandemic called The Frost whose symptoms include an increasing sensation of coldness and growing amnesia The second involves Alana s husband Hugh owner of a rare and used bookstore in Salt Lake City and his slow disappearance across Jordan while on a trip both to remember and to forget Alana s death The third involves marginalia added to Hugh s section by his daughter Aila an art critic living in Berlin Aila discovers a manuscript by her father after his disappearance and tries to make sense of it by means of a one sided dialogue with her brother Lance Each page of the novel is divided in half Alana s narrative runs across the top of the page from back to front

while Hugh's and his daughter's tale runs upside down across the bottom of the page from front to back How a reader initially happens to pick up Theories of Forgetting determines which narrative is read first and thereby establishing the reader's meaning making of the novel Collage in Twenty-First-Century Literature in English Wojciech Drag, 2019-11-12 Collage in Twenty First Century Literature in English Art of Crisis considers the phenomenon of the continued relevance of collage a form established over a hundred years ago to contemporary literature It argues that collage is a perfect artistic vehicle to represent the crisis ridden reality of the twenty first century Being a mixture of fragmentary incompatible voices collage embodies the chaos of the media dominated world Examining the artistic sociopolitical and personal crises addressed in contemporary collage literature the book argues that the 21st Century has brought a revival of collage like novels and essays Truthful Fictions: Conversations with American Biographical Novelists Michael Lackey, 2014-02-27 In this new collection of interviews some of America's most prominent novelists identify the key intellectual developments that led to the rise of the contemporary biographical novel discuss the kind of historical truth this novel communicates indicate why this narrative form is superior to the traditional historical novel and reflect on the ideas and characters central to their individual works These interviews do more than just define an innovative genre of contemporary fiction They provide a precise way of understanding the complicated relationship and pregnant tensions between contextualized thinking and historical representation interdisciplinary studies and truth production and fictional reality and factual constructions By focusing on classical and contemporary debates regarding the nature of the historical novel this volume charts the forces that gave birth to a new incarnation of this genre The Night, and the Rain, and the River Scott Sparling, Joanna Rose, Sage Cohen, 2014-05-01 A current of longing runs through twenty two short stories by Oregon writers As the characters strive for connection they make mistakes reach out to the wrong people and recalibrate their lives based on what they desire whether or not it's attainable or even a good idea Editor Liz Prato has curated a powerful collection of smart funny sad and exquisite stories about the losses that shape our lives Narrating Architecture James Madge, Andrew Peckham, 2006-09-27 This anthology brings together the best and most interesting papers from the first ten years of The Journal of Architecture published together for the first time in a single volume Covering a wide range of topics of central importance to architecture today the papers also address the related topics to which architecture and architectural studies are inextricably linked The invited authors draw on sociology philosophy cultural studies and the sciences to round out the collection and highlight the breadth and vitality of modern architectural studies offering perspectives from different disciplines as well as different corners of the globe Without the Novel Scott Black, 2019-08-23 No genre manifests the pleasure of reading and its power to consume and enchant more than romance In suspending the category of the novel to rethink the way prose fiction works Without the Novel demonstrates what literary history looks like from the perspective of such readerly excesses and adventures Rejecting the assumption that novelistic realism is the most significant tendency in the history of prose fiction

Black asks three intertwined questions What is fiction without the novel What is literary history without the novel What is reading without the novel In answer this study draws on the neglected genre of romance to reintegrate eighteenth century British fiction with its classical and Continental counterparts Black addresses works of prose fiction that self consciously experiment with the formal structures and readerly affordances of romance Heliodorus s Ethiopian Story Cervantes s Don Quixote Fielding s Tom Jones Sterne s Tristram Shandy and Burney s The Wanderer Each text presents itself as a secondary satiric adaptation of anachronistic and alien narratives but in revising foreign stories each text also relays them The recursive reading that these works portray and demand makes each a self reflexive parable of romance itself Ultimately Without the Novel writes a wider weirder history of fiction organized by the recurrences of romance and informed by the pleasures of reading that define the genre

The Possibility of (an) Architecture Mark Goulthorpe, 2009-06-02
Articulating a radical agenda for the rethinking of the basic precepts of the construction industry in light of digital technologies this book explores the profound shift that is underway in all aspects of architectural process Essays and lectures from the last fifteen years discuss these changes in relation to dECOi Architects created in 1991 as a forward looking architectural practice This excellent collection is relevant to architectural professionals academics and students and also to practitioners in many related creative fields who are similarly engaged in trying to comprehend the significance of the import of digital media

Constructing a Place of Critical Architecture in China Guanghui Ding, 2016-03-09 For the past 30 years The Chinese journal Time Architecture Shidai Jianzhu has focused on publishing innovative and exploratory work by emerging architects based in private design firms who were committed to new material theoretical and pedagogical practices In doing so this book argues that the journal has engaged in the presentation and production of a particular form of critical architecture described as an intermediate criticality as a response to the particular constraints of the Chinese cultural and political context The journal s publications displayed a dual critique a resistant attitude to the dominant modes of commercial building practice characterised by rapid and large scale urban expansion and an alternative publishing practice focusing on emerging independent architectural practitioners through the active integration of theoretical debates architectural projects and criticisms This dual critique is illustrated through a careful review and analysis of the history and programme of the journal By showing how the work of emerging architects including Yung Ho Chang Wang Shu Liu Jiakun and Urbanus are situated within the context of the journal s special thematic editions on experimental architecture exhibition group design new urban space and professional system the book assesses the contribution the journal has made to the emergence of a critical architecture in China in the context of how it was articulated debated presented and perhaps even produced within the pages of the publication itself The protagonists of critical architecture have endeavoured to construct an alternative mode of form and space with strong aesthetic and socio political implications to the predominant production of architecture under the current Chinese socialist market economy To rebel against certain forms of domination and suppression by capital and power is by no means to completely reject them rather it is to use them

A Landscape of Architecture, History and Fiction Jonathan Hill, 2015-12-22 Architecture can be analogous to a history a fiction and a landscape We expect a history or a novel to be written in words but they can also be cast in concrete or seeded in soil The catalyst to this tradition was the simultaneous and interdependent emergence in the eighteenth century of new art forms the picturesque landscape the analytical history and the English novel Each of them instigated a creative and questioning response to empiricism's detailed investigation of subjective experience and the natural world and together they stimulated a design practice and lyrical environmentalism that profoundly influenced subsequent centuries Associating the changing natural world with journeys in self understanding and the design process with a visual and spatial autobiography this book describes journeys between London and the North Sea in successive centuries analysing an enduring and evolving tradition from the picturesque and romanticism to modernism Creative architects have often looked to the past to understand the present and imagine the future Twenty first century architects need to appreciate the shock of the old as well as the shock of the new

Always Crashing in the Same Car Lance Olsen, 2023-02-14 Always Crashing in the Same Car by Lance Olsen is a novel that explores the last months of David Bowie's life through multiple voices and perspectives the protean musician himself an academic trying to compose a critical monograph about him friends lovers musicologists and others in Bowie's orbit

Architecture of Resistance Yara Sharif, 2017-05-08 Architecture of Resistance investigates the relationship between architecture politics and power and how these factors interplay in light of the Palestinian Israeli conflict It takes Palestine as the key ground of spatial exploration looking at the spaces between people boundary lines documents and maps in a search for the meaning of architecture of resistance Stemming from the need for an alternative discourse that can nourish the Palestinian spaces of imagination the author reinterprets the land from a new perspective by stripping it of the dominant power of lines to expose the hidden dynamic topography born out of everyday Palestine It applies a hybrid approach of research through design and visual documentary through text illustrations mapping techniques and collages to capture the absent local narrative as an essential component of spatial investigation

The Architecture of Government Daniel Treisman, 2007-07-02 Since the days of Montesquieu and Jefferson political decentralization has been seen as a force for better government and economic performance It is thought to bring government closer to the people nurture civic virtue protect liberty exploit local information stimulate policy innovation and alleviate ethnic tensions Inspired by such arguments and generously funded by the major development agencies countries across the globe have been racing to devolve power to local governments This book re-examines the arguments that underlie the modern faith in decentralization Using logical analysis and formal modeling and appealing to numerous examples it shows that most are based on vague intuitions or partial views that do not withstand scrutiny A review of empirical studies of decentralization finds these as inconclusive and mutually contradictory as the theories they set out to test

The IT Revolution in Architecture. Thoughts on a Paradigm

Shift Antonino Saggio, 2008-11-29 Information Technology is imposing itself as the central paradigm for a new phase in all of architecture the dynamic interconnections at the heart of IT are being transferred from the world of digital models to the reality of a reactive sensitive interactive architecture The structure chosen for this book was to avoid a crib sheet on the IT Revolution in Architecture The formula of the treatise was just as impossible to use not only because many aspects of contemporary scientific research are oriented toward a structure that remains intentionally open and serves to launch new hypotheses rather than solidify certainties but also because this aspect is reinforced by the material that by its nature finds itself in an free interconnected intrinsically problematic dimension

Materiality and Architecture Sandra Loschke, 2016-03-17 Once regarded a secondary consideration in recent years materiality has emerged as a powerful concept in architectural discourse and practice Prompted in part by developments in digital fabrication and digital science the impact of materiality on design and practice is being widely reassessed and reimagined Materiality and Architecture extends architectural thinking beyond the confines of current design literatures to explore conceptions of materiality across the field of architecture Fourteen international contributors use elucidate the problems and possibilities of materiality based approaches in architecture from interdisciplinary perspectives The book includes contributions from the professions of architecture art architectural history theory and philosophy including essays from Gernot Böhme Jonathan Hill and Philip Ursprung Important immaterial aspects such as presentation agency ecology and concept are examined deepening our understanding of materiality's role in architectural processes the production of cultural identities the pursuit of political agendas and the staging of everyday environments and atmospheres In depth illustrated case studies examine works by Herzog de Meuron Zaha Hadid and Lacaton Vassal interspersed with visual essays and interviews with architects such as MVRDV providing a direct connection to practice Materiality and Architecture is an important read for researchers and students with an interest in architectural theory and related fields such as art art history or visual and cultural studies

Writing Architecture Carter Wiseman, 2014-07-21 Writing Architecture considers the process methods and value of architecture writing based on Wiseman's 30 years of experience in writing editing and teaching young architects how to write This book creatively tackles a problematic issue that Wiseman considers crucial to successful architecture writing clarity of thinking and expression He argues that because we live our lives within the built environment architecture is the most comprehensive and complex of all art forms Written as a primer for both college level students and practitioners Writing Architecture acknowledges and explores the boundaries between different techniques of architecture writing from myriad perspectives and purposes Using excerpts from writers in different genres and from different historical periods Wiseman offers a unique and authoritative perspective on the comprehensible writing skills needed for success

Architectures of Poetry María Eugenia Díaz Sánchez, Craig Douglas Dworkin, 2004 Architectures of Poetry is the first comprehensive accounting of the currently intense dialogue between the sister arts of poetry and architecture Refusing to take either term in a metaphoric sense the eleven essays collected in this volume exemplify an exciting methodological direction for work in the humanities a literal wager that is willing to take the unintended suggestions of language as reality At the same time they also provide close readings of the work of a number of important writers In addition to a suite of essays devoted to the team of Arakawa and Madeline Gins chapters focus on figures as diverse as Francesco Borromini Rainer Maria Rilke St phane Mallarm Friedrich Achleitner John Cage and Lyn Hejinian
