Analyzing Eco-Architecture Beyond Performance Carmela Cucuzzella, 2020-01-01 At a time when environmental architecture is proliferating in all its forms around the world adopting ever more complex sets of tools this book provides an overview of the state of the field It provides a critical introduction to the study of environmentalism in architecture Written especially for students and researchers who work in the field of environmental architecture this book reveals the spectrum of approaches practiced today The text includes An abridged history and overview of environmentalism in the field of architecture A clear methodology for analyzing the included 29 cases which can also be adopted for further guidance in a variety of architectural design projects Assessments of 29 buildings 10 libraries 10 museums and 9 university buildings from around the world Analyzing Eco Architecture Beyond Performance is essential reading for students researchers and practitioners involved in the study and design of environmental architecture today Building Performance Evaluation Wolfgang F.E. Preiser, Andrea E. Hardy, Ulrich Schramm, 2017-08-30 The main aim of this book is to present an intriguing retrospective of Building Performance Evaluation BPE as it evolved from Post Occupancy Evaluation POE over the past 25 years On one hand this is done by updating original authors chapter content of Building Evaluation the first edition published in 1989 That in turn is augmented by an orientation toward current and future practice on the other including new authors who are engaged in ongoing cutting edge projects Therefore individual methodology oriented chapters covering the fundamental principles of POE and BPE go along with major thematic chapters topics of which like sustainability or integration of new technologies are addressed in a diversity of case studies from around the globe Research methodologies and framework of POEs continue to evolve POEs are one step on the larger scale of BPE in understanding how buildings function after they are occupied This resource helps architects building owners and facility managers understand the implications and reactions to the facilities that they designed built and or commissioned By considering the whole process from conception to future uses of the building there can be a more holistic approach to the planning programming design construction occupancy and future adaptability of the structure This book is dedicated to first editor Wolfgang F E Preiser who passed away during the process of editing and reviewing chapters of this volume A Practical Guide to Post-Occupancy Evaluation and Researching Building User Experience Nigel Oseland, 2023-09-11 A Practical Guide to Post Occupancy Evaluation offers high level pragmatic guidance and case study examples on how to conduct a Post Occupancy Evaluation POE to determine whether a workplace project is successful and uncover the lessons learned for future projects For designers POEs provide essential predesign feedback informing the design brief to determine occupant requirements and help focus expenditure For those in charge of a building or buildings POE offers proactive building management and can also be used as part of the change management programme in larger projects informing the occupants of progress The practical guidance offered in this book will help the workplace industry understand if a design meets the requirements of an occupier and measure the success of and value offered by a workplace project This book will be of interest to professionals in the workplace industry responsible for delivering and evaluating capital projects as well as those studying interior design architecture surveying facilities management and building services engineering The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume II Nikolina Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2024-11-22 Architecture and the urban are connected to challenges around violence security race and ideology spectacle and data The first volume of this handbook extensively explored these oppressive roles This second volume illustrates that escaping the corporatized and bureaucratized orders of power techno managerial and consumer oriented capitalist economic models is more urgent and necessary than ever before Herein lies the political role of architecture and urban space including the ways through which they can be transformed and alternative political realities constituted The volume explores the methods and spatial practices required to activate the political dimension and the possibility for alternative practices to operate in the existing oppressive systems while not being swallowed by these structures Fostering new political consciousness is explored in terms of the following themes Events and Dissidence Biopolitics Ethics and Desire Climate and Ecology Urban Commons and Social Participation Marginalities and Postcolonialism Volume II embraces engagement across disciplines and offers a wide range of projects and critical analyses across the so called Global North and South This multidisciplinary collection of 36 chapters provides the reader with an extensive resource of case studies and ways of thinking for architecture and urban space to become more emancipatory Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Influence and Resistance in Post-Independence Egyptian Architecture
Marwa M. El-Ashmouni, Ashraf M. Salama, 2022-07-22 This book is an effort towards an in depth understanding of the architectural discourse in Egypt developed over more than eight decades It offers a distinctive theoretical interpretation of the forces shaping the kaleidoscopic shifts in Egyptian architecture through the analysis of the micro space of architectural representation of twentieth century Egyptian architecture Predicated on historical contextualization theoretical integration and global conceptualization Edward Said's analytical method of contrapuntal reading and the spatial discourse analysis posited by C. Greig Crysler are lucidly assimilated to generate insights into various voices within the architectural discourse in Egypt The analysis and critique of two important professional magazines al Imarah 1939-1959 and Alam al Bana 1980-2000 which shaped the collective psyche of both the academic and professional communities in Egypt and the wider region coupled with the exploration of two other short lived magazines Mimariyah 1982-1989 Medina 1998-2002 and other less influential professional magazines discloses the structure of attitude and reference or the exclusions and inclusions that defined the boundaries of the space of the discourse Influence and Resistance in Post Independence Egyptian Architecture paves the way to genuinely debate a yet to mature twenty first century's architectural discourse in Egypt This book is a key resource for architects architectural historians and critical theorists and will appeal to academics and to both graduate and advanced undergraduate students in architectural history and theory and Middle East and Global South studies

Experiencing Architecture in the Nineteenth Century Edward Gillin, H. Horatio Joyce, 2020-04-30 Bringing together fourteen original essays this collection opens up new perspectives on the architectural history of the nineteenth century by examining the buildings of the period through the lens of experience With a focus on the experience of the ordinary building user rather than simply on the intentions of the designer the book shows that new and important insights can be brought to our understanding of Victorian architecture The chapters present a range of ideas and new research some examining individual building case studies from grand hotels and clubhouses in New York to the parliament buildings of Westminster and others exploring conceptual questions about the nature of architectural experience whether sensory or otherwise Yet they share the premise that the idea of the experience of architecture took on a new and particular significance with the rise of industrial modernity and they examine what contemporary people both architects and non architects understood by this idea The insights in this volume extend beyond the study of Victorian architecture Together they suggest how experience might be used as a framework to produce a more convincingly historical account of the artefacts of architectural history

Knowledge and Research Thomas W. Sanchez,2017-12-22 The field of urban planning is far reaching in breadth and depth This is due to the complex nature of cities regions and development processes The knowledge domain of planning includes social economic technological environmental and political systems that continue to evolve and expand rapidly Understanding these systems is an inter disciplinary endeavor at the scale of several academic fields The wide range of topics considered by planning educators and practitioners are often based on varying definitions of planning and modes of planning practice This unique book discusses various elements and contributions to urban planning research to show that seemingly disparate topics do in fact intersect and together contribute to ways of understanding urban planning The objective is not to discuss how to do research but rather to explore the context of urban planning scholarship with implications for the planning academy and planning practice This edited volume includes chapters contributed by a diverse range of planning scholars who consider the corpus of planning scholarship both historically and critically in their area of expertise It is essential reading for students of planning research and planning theory from around the world Rebuilding the Houses of Parliament Henrik Schoenefeldt,2020-12-30 Rebuilding the Houses of Parliament explores the history of the UK Houses of Parliament in Westminster from an environmental design perspective and the role David Boswell Reid played in the development of the original ventilation and climate control system in parliament This book retraces and critically examines the evolution of the environmental principles underlying the design of the Houses of Parliament engaging with fundamental questions about air quality energy efficiency and thermal comfort This yields insights into the historic methods of environmental design that were characterised by physical experimentation and post occupancy evaluation Rebuilding the Houses of Parliament examines the history of the buildings operation studying the practical reality of its performance in use and offers the opportunity to reflect on current challenges faced by architects and engineers adapting to the realities of climate change This book is an ideal read for academics politicians and practitioners with an interest in architectural history and heritage theory engineering and conservation Contemporary Urban Landscapes of the Middle East

Mohammad Gharipour,2016-03-17 The Middle East is well known for its historic gardens that have developed over more than two millenniums The role of urban landscape projects in Middle Eastern cities has grown in prominence with a gradual shift in emphasis from gardens for the private sphere to an increasingly public function The contemporary landscape projects either designed as public plazas or public parks have played a significant role in transferring the modern Middle Eastern cities to a new era and also in transforming to a newly shaped social culture in which the public has a voice This book considers what ties these projects to their historical context and what regional and local elements and concepts have been used in their design
