The harrowing triumphant true story of an antiquated light cruiser and its crew suddenly under fire in the Pacific as WWII erupted An engrossing tale Naval Historical Foundation The old light cruiser Marblehead was living out her final years of naval service as a member of the United States Asiatic Fleet in 1941 The small group of mostly antiquated ships based in the Philippines sailed the waters of East Asia to show the American flag in places like China Hong Kong Japan and Singapore Then the sudden eruption of World War II in the Pacific put the warship on the front lines of the conflict as Imperial Japan unleashed a series of devastating attacks across the region On the morning of February 4 1942 the warship was surprised by Japanese planes northeast of Java Two large bombs slammed into Marblehead causing fires and casualties and knocking out her steering gear A third bomb exploded close by underwater The near miss ripped a large gash into her hull allowing a torrent of water to rush inside the ship Escape from Java takes us throughout the ship as the story unfolds next to gunners toiling to keep their guns firing with medical staff tending to the wounded and alongside damage control sailors working in flooded compartments The Japanese confidently radioed that they had sunk the ship but through courage sacrifice and superhuman effort Marblehead would set out on a harrowing 13 000 mile journey back to the US An engrossing tale of an obsolescent ship s survival amid great odds set against the brutal early fighting of the Pacific War This book will appeal to a wide audience not only as high wartime adventure but simply as a story of gritty perseverance when the odds are heavily against Naval Historical Foundation Navy Department Appropriation Bill United States.
