Head Trauma Gary Johnson, 2006-12 Head Trauma Sonnets and Other Poems is Emmy winning writer and producer Gary David Johnson s first book of poetry Though he has published short stories in the horror fantasy genre poetry remains his passion Until recently however creating the perfect poem seemed to be just out of his grasp In 2005 Johnson realized that his poetic compositions were far from his former idealistic definition of the perfect poem He wasn t even attempting to write a perfect poem he was expounding philosophizing meditating and reminiscing but he wasn t writing what he had long ago defined as poetry Poetry requires discipline and one of the definitions of discipline in Johnson's dictionary anyway is the sonnet. With determination renewed, he set out to write one. After rewriting, polishing, and rewriting again, Johnson felt that he had at last found his true poetic voice. Johnson's poetry is immortalized in Head Trauma. His hope for you is that you enjoy it and maybe find the inspiration to discover your own perfect poem somewhere along the way. The Applications (Close Attentions) of Christ Renee Hurt, 2019-03-08. Visit the authors online at WriteYourMemoirInSixMonths.com. Sensum N.R. Adams, 2015-11-10. When we are children, we are told that we'll understand once we are grown. But what I have come to see and understand is how frighteningly little I know. I'd imagine I am not alone in this. The distorted rhetoric of our families, educators, and cultural leaders is persistently being handed down through generations. All over the world, everything we do comes from our individual understanding of ourselves and the world around us. And whether our innate human understanding was never properly gained or lost along the way, what can bring it back or manifest it is our natural, simple sense and clarity contained within us. Here we will tell the truth. We will expose the deeply buried, insatiable hunger we as mankind have to love and to be loved against the backdrop of everyday hypocrisy, bias, confusion, greed, chaos, and violence. Choose love. Everything else is a side show. The Fall of Alice K. Jim Heynen, 2012. A seventeen-year-old star student and gifted athlete hides the painful truths about her private life, including a failing family farm, her mother's growing apocalyptic fears, the institutionalization of her special needs sister, and her romance with the son of Hmong immigrants. The Readers' Advisory Guide to Nonfiction Neal Wyatt, 2007-05-14. Navigating what she calls the extravagantly rich world of nonfiction, renowned readers advisor RA Wyatt builds readers advisory bridges from fiction to compelling and increasingly popular nonfiction to encompass the library's entire collection. She focuses on eight popular categories: history, true crime, true adventure, science, memoir, food, cooking, travel, and sports. Within each, she explains the scope, popularity, style, major authors, and works, and the subject's position in readers advisory interviews. Wyatt addresses who is reading nonfiction and why, while providing RAs with the tools and language to incorporate nonfiction into discussions that point readers to what to read next In easy to follow steps Wyatt Explains the hows and whys of offering fiction and nonfiction suggestions together Illustrates ways to get up to speed fast in nonfiction Shows how to lead readers to a variety of books using her read around and reading map strategies Provides tools to build nonfiction subject guides for the collection This hands on guide includes nonfiction bibliography key authors benchmark books with annotations and core collections It is destined to become the nonfiction bible for readers advisory and collection development helping librarians library workers and patrons select great reading from the entire library collection

The Risk of Us Rachel Howard,2019 A poignant dazzling debut novel about a woman who longs to be a mother and the captivating yet troubled child she and her husband take in Love in Condition Yellow Sophia Raday,2009-05-01 Go on a date with a soldier turned police officer Me And discuss Gandhi s experiments with truth with a gun toting Republican The last thing Berkeley dwelling peace activist Sophia Raday expected was to fall in love with a straightlaced Oakland police officer As someone who had run away from cops dressed in riot gear at protests Sophia was ambivalent to say the least at the prospect of dating Barrett who was not only a cop but also a West Point graduate an Airborne Ranger and a major in the Army Reserve During their courtship the two argued about many of the matters that divide the United States things like drug policy and race relations Startled by the freedom she found in a relationship of differences by the challenge of sparring with Barrett and by his steadfast acceptance of her Sophia unwittingly fell in love Then just when Sophia believed her family was starting a new chapter with the birth of their son came September 11 Barrett s belief that he must always stay in Condition Yellow the terminology coined by his favorite Guns Ammo writer for a state of alert in which you realize your life is in danger and you may need to shoot someone was suddenly in the forefront of their lives Sophia and Barrett began to confront on a very personal level their differing viewpoints on polarizing values like fear duty family and patriotism When Barrett s military duties escalated along with the country s Sophia found herself in the surprising position of military wife living on an army base during the 2004 elections and struggling to find peace with herself and her husband in this new world It was a struggle that would continue up to the point of Barrett s deployment to Iraq Love in Condition Yellow not only provides a vivid poignant portrait of this unusual union but also tells the larger story of how love doesn t necessarily come from sameness and peace doesn t necessarily come from agreement
