Understanding Colum McCann John Cusatis, 2012-08-24 The first critical approach to the literary career of the 2009 National Book Award winner Understanding Colum McCann chronicles the Irish born writer's journey to literary celebrity from his days as a teenage sportswriter for the Irish Press in the 1970s through the publication of his award winning first story Tresses in 1990 to his winning the 2009 National Book Award in fiction for the international bestseller Let the Great World Spin In this first critical study of McCann's body of work John Cusatis provides an introduction to McCann's life and career an overview of his major themes style and influences and close readings of his two short story collections and five novels Cusatis traces McCann's redefinition of the Irish novel exploring the author's propensity for transcending aesthetic cultural ethnic geographical and social boundaries in his ascent from the status of Irish novelist to international novelist In the process this study illuminates the various incarnations of McCann's perennial subject exile both geographical and emotional Cusatis also delineates how the influences of McCann's Irish upbringing penchant for international travel and exhaustive and eclectic reading of literature manifest themselves in his fiction Close attention is given to McCann's stylistic trademarks such as his poetic voice use of Christian symbolism Irish and classical mythology intertextuality multiple viewpoints nonlinear plot structure and the merger of what McCann deems factual truth and textual truth Understanding Colum McCann makes use of the existing body of published interviews profiles and critical articles as well as a decade of correspondence between Cusatis and McCann With international interest in McCann on the rise this first full length study of his career to date serves as an ideal point of entrance for students scholars and serious readers and offers the biographical and critical foundation necessary for a deeper understanding of McCann's fiction

Spider Web, Labyrinth, Tightrope Walk Regina Schober, 2023-08-07 Spider Web Labyrinth Tightrope Walk explores the shifting functions of the network as a metaphor model and as an epistemological framework in US American literature and culture from the 19th century until today The book critically inquires into the literary cultural philosophical and scientific rhetoric values and ideological underpinnings that have given rise to the network concept Literature and culture play a major role in the ways in which networks have been imagined and how they have evolved as conceptual models This study regards networks as historically emergent and culturally constructed formations closely tied with the development of knowledge technologies in the process of modernization as well as with an increasingly critical awareness of network technologies and infrastructures While the rise of the network in scientific philosophical political and sociological discourses has received wide attention this book contributes an important cultural and historical perspective to network theory by demonstrating how US American literature and culture have been key sites for thinking in and about networks in the past two centuries Fictions of Migration in Contemporary Britain and Ireland Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2020-04-30 This book examines how the transcultural and transnational migration of people texts and ideas has transformed the paradigm of national literature with Britain and Ireland as case studies The study questions definitions of migration and migrant literature that focus solely on the work of authors with migrant backgrounds and suggests that migration is not extraneous but intrinsic to contemporary understandings of national literature in a global context The fictional work of authors such as Caryl Phillips Colum McCann Abdulrazak Gurnah Rose Tremain Elif Shafak and Evelyn Conlon is analysed from a variety of perspectives including transculturality cosmopolitanism and Afropolitanism so as to emphasise how their work fosters an understanding of national literature as well as of individual and collective identities based on transborder interconnectivity Memory Frictions in Contemporary Literature María Jesús Martínez-Alfaro, Silvia Pellicer-Ortín, 2017-10-14 This volume explores the multifarious representational strategies used by contemporary writers to textualise memory and its friction areas through literary practices By focusing on contemporary narratives in English from 1990 to the present the essays in the collection delve into both the treatment of memory in literature and the view of literature as a medium of memory paying special attention to major controversies attending the representation and re construction of individual cultural and collective memories in the literary narratives published during the last few decades By analysing texts written by authors of such diverse origins as Great Britain South Korea the USA Cuba Australia India as well as Native American Indian and African American writers the contributors to the collection analyse a good range of memory frictions in connection with melancholic mourning immigration diaspora genocide perpetrator guilt dialogic witnessing memorialisation practices inherited traumatic memories sexual abuse prostitution etc through the recourse to various disciplines such as psychoanalysis ethics bio politics space theories postcolonial studies narratology gender studies resulting in a book that is expected to make a ground breaking contribution to a field whose possibilities have yet to be fully explored Conversations with Colum McCann Earl G. Ingersoll, Mary C. Ingersoll, 2017-07-13 Conversations with Colum McCann brings together eighteen interviews with a world renowned fiction writer Ranging from his 1994 literary debut Fishing the Sloe Black River to a new and unpublished interview conducted in 2016 these interviews represent the development as well as the continuation of McCann's interests The number and length of the later conversations attest to his star power Let the Great World Spin earned him the National Book Award and promises to become a major motion picture His most recent novel TransAtlantic has awed readers with its dynamic yoking of the 1845 1846 visit of Frederick Douglass to Ireland the 1919 first nonstop transatlantic flight of Alcock and Brown and Senator George Mitchell's 1998 efforts to achieve a peace accord in Northern Ireland An extensive interview by scholar Cecile

Maudet is included here as is an interview by John Cusatis who wrote Understanding Colum McCann the first extensive critical analysis of McCann's work. An author who actually enjoys talking about his work, McCann's 1965 offers insights into his method of writing, what he hopes to achieve as well as the challenge of writing each novel to go beyond his accomplishments in the novel. Before Readers will note how many of his responses include stories in which he himself is the object of the humor and how often his remarks reveal insights into his character as a man who sees the grittiness of the urban landscape but never loses faith in the strength of ordinary people and their capacity to prevail.

A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe Ullrich Kockel, Máiréad Nic Craith, Jonas Frykman, 2015-12-14. A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe. BLACKWELL. COMPANIONS TO ANTHROPOLOGY. A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe. The volume also deserves a place on the shelves of academic libraries as well as the larger public library. Reference Reviews. Summing Up. Highly recommended. All academic levels libraries. Choice. This important collection challenges all anthropologists to re-examine the importance of European perspectives on the most provocative debates of our time. It transcends regional interests to highlight the complex intellectual landscape of our field. Tracey Heatherington, University of Wisconsin Milwaukee. This significant volume critically interrogates assumptions about Europe as an idea and a place for research. It provides fresh perspectives on the past and future of anthropological studies of Europe. Deborah Reed Danahay, SUNY at Buffalo. President of the Society for the Anthropology of Europe. A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe offers a survey of contemporary Europeanist anthropology and European ethnology and a guide to emerging trends in this geographical field of research. Utilizing diverse approaches to the anthropological study of Europe, Kockel, Nic Craith, and Frykman provide a synthesis of the different traditions and contemporary practices. Investigating the subject both geographically and thematically, the companion covers key topics such as location, heritage, experience, and cultural practices. Written by leading international scholars in the field, the volume constitutes the first authoritative guide for researchers, instructors, and students of anthropology and European studies.

The Cambridge Introduction to Contemporary American Fiction Stacey Olster, 2017-06-09. The Cambridge Introduction to Contemporary American Fiction explores fiction written over the last thirty years in the context of the profound political, historical, and cultural changes that have distinguished the contemporary period. Focusing on both established and emerging writers and with chapters devoted to the American historical novel, regional realism, the American political novel, the end of the Cold War, and globalization, 9/11, borderlands, and border identities, race, and the legacy of postmodern aesthetics, this Introduction locates contemporary American fiction at the intersection of a specific time and long-standing traditions. In the process, it investigates the entire concept of what constitutes an American author while exploring the vexed yet resilient nature of what the concept of home has come to signify in so much writing today. This wide-ranging study will be invaluable to students, instructors, and general readers alike.
