Literary Performances of Post-Religious Memory in the Netherlands Jesseka M. Batteau, 2021-10-11 This book offers an in depth study of iconic literary narratives and images of religious transformation and secularisation in the Netherlands during the 1960s and 1970s Jesseka Batteau shows how Gerard Reve Jan Wolkers and Maarten t Hart texts and performances can be understood as instances of religious and post religious memory with a broad public impact They contributed to a widely shared perspective on the Dutch religious past and a collective understanding of what secularisation consists of This uniquely interdisciplinary approach combines insights from literary studies memory studies media studies and religious studies and traces the complex dynamics of the circulation of memory and meaning between literary texts mass media and embodied performances within a post religious society Literature of the Low Countries Reinder Meijer, 2012-12-06 In any definition of terms Dutch literature must be taken to mean all literature written in Dutch thus excluding literature in Frisian even though Friesland is part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in the same way as literature in Welsh would be excluded from a history of English literature Similarly literature in Afrikaans South African Dutch falls outside the scope of this book as Afrikaans from the moment of its birth out of seventeenth century Dutch grew up independently and must be regarded as a language in its own right Dutch literature then is the literature written in Dutch as spoken in the Kingdom of the Netherlands and the so called Flemish part of the Kingdom of Belgium that is the area north of the linguistic frontier which runs east west through Belgium passing slightly south of Brussels For the modern period this definition is clear enough but for former times it needs some explanation What do we mean for example when we use the term Dutch for the medieval period In the Middle Ages there was no standard Dutch language and when the term Dutch is used in a medieval context it is a kind of collective word indicating a number of different but closely related Frankish dialects The most important of those were the dialects of the duchies of Limburg and Brabant and of the counties of Flanders and Holland Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History Vol.2 Robert Aldrich, Garry Wotherspoon, 2005-07-25 Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History From World War II to the Present Day provides a comprehensive modern biographical survey of homosexuality in the Western world Among those included are Controversial political activists Peter Tatchell Guy Hocquenghem Harvey Milk Pop icons David Bowie k d lang Boy George Groundbreaking artists writers and filmmakers Pier Paolo Pasolini Derek Jarman David Hockney Intellectuals who have shaped and changed the modern understanding of sexuality Michel Foucault Simone de Beauvoir Alfred Kinsey Over 500 entries clear informative and enjoyable to read build up a superbly thorough overview of gay and lesbian life in our time Lieve jongens Gerard Reve, 1973 Chiem Van Houweninge Thomas Elsaesser, Robert Kievit, Jan Simons, 1994-01-01 Double Trouble highlights the career of Dutch scriptwriter and television producer Chiem van Houweninge well known for his long running TV comedy series and as author of episodes for TV detective series Double Trouble gives Van Houweninge's own views on writing and
