Life After God By Douglas Coupland:

LIFE AFTER GOD Douglas Coupland, 2010-05-11 In this compellingly innovative collection of stories bestselling author Douglas Coupland cuts through the hype of modern living to find a rare grace amid our lives uncovering a new kind of truth for a culture stuck on fast forward a culture seemingly beyond God We are the first generation raised without God We are creatures with strong religious impulses yet they have nowhere to flow in this world of shopping and TV Kraft dinners and jets How do we cope with loneliness Anxiety The collapse of relationships How do we reach the quiet safe layer of our lives

Religion and Literature Robert Detweiler, David Jasper, 2000-01-01 Featuring a selection from over 80 key texts this anthology aims to help the reader to understand the common origins of religious expression and of literature The texts included cover classical literature the Bible English and European classics and contemporary works

Life After God Michael Lewis MacLennan, 2007 Adapted from the short story by Douglas Coupland

The Rhizomatic West Neil Campbell, 2008-12-01 Is the American West in Sergio Leone's spaghetti westerns the same American West we find in Douglas Coupland's Generation X In Jim Jarmusch's movies In Calexico's music Or is the American West as this book tells us a constantly moving mutating idea within a complex global culture And what precisely or better yet imprecisely does it mean Using Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of the rhizome Neil Campbell shows how the West or westness continually breaks away from a mainstream notion of American rootedness and renews and transforms itself in various cultural forms A region long traversed by various transient peoples from tribes and conquerors to immigrants traders and trappers the West reflects a mythic quest for settlement permanence and synthesis even notions of a national or global identity at odds with its rootless history culture and nature Crossing the concept of roots with routes this book shows how notions of the West in representations ranging from literature and film to photography music and architectural theory give expression to ideas about identity nationhood and belonging in a world increasingly defined by movement across time and borders The Rhizomatic West offers a new vision of the American West as a hybrid performative space a staging place for myriad intersecting and constantly changing identities

The Hyphenateds Phil Snider, 2011-12-12 Though the emergent church was once viewed as a fringe movement with little to offer established congregations it is now seen as one of the central driving forces shaping the future of postmodern Christianity in North America As an increasing number of mainline communities wonder how the emergent church influences their own structures and practices this book brings together the perspectives of several of the most prominent Hyphenated Christians i.e. those with one foot in the emergent conversation and the other foot in the mainline church Presbyterians Anglicans Lutherans Methodists etc With a passion for both mainline traditions and the emergent conversation Hyphenateds offer a vibrant and contagious vision of the ways in which the church might undergo the transformation necessary to faithfully embody the love of Christ in the midst of an ever changing postmodern world The contributors of this book offer wisdom from a variety of contexts and The Hyphenateds reflects the changing dynamics currently taking place in the emergent conversation Imagination and the Journey of Faith Sandra M. Levy, 2008-09-05 This book will speak to all readers whether religious believers or not who wish to strengthen and deepen the imaginative power of their spiritual lives Do You Feel it Too? Nicoline Timmer, 2010 Do You Feel It Too explores a new sense of self that is becoming manifest in experimental fiction written by a generation of authors who can be considered the heirs of the postmodern tradition It offers a precise in depth analysis of a new post postmodern direction in fiction writing and highlights which aspects are most acute in the post postmodern novel Most notable is the emphatic expression of feelings and sentiments and a drive toward inter subjective connection and communication The self that is presented in these post postmodern works of fiction can best be characterized as relational To analyze this new sense of self a new interpretational method is introduced that offers a sophisticated approach to fictional selves combining the insights of post classical narratology and what is called narrative psychology Close analyses of three contemporary experimental texts Infinite Jest 1996 by David Foster Wallace A Heartbreaking Work of Staggering Genius 2000 by Dave Eggers and House of Leaves 2000 by Mark Danielewski provide insight into the typical problems that the self experiences in postmodern cultural contexts Three such problems or symptoms are singled out and analyzed in depth an inability to choose because of a lack of decision making tools a difficulty to situate or appropriate feelings and a structural need for a we a desire for connectivity and sociality The critique that can be distilled from these texts especially on the perceived solipsistic quality of postmodern experience worlds runs parallel to developments in recent critical theory These developments in fiction and theory both signal in the wake of poststructural conceptions of subjectivity a perhaps much awaited turn to the human in our culture at large today Auden's O Andrew W. Hass, 2013-11-01 Explores the rise of the idea of nothing in Western modernity and how its figuration is transforming and offering new possibilities In this groundbreaking interdisciplinary history of ideas Andrew W Hass explores the ascendancy of the concept of nothing into late modernity He argues that the rise of the reality of nothing in religion philosophy and literature has taken place only against the decline of the concept of One a shift from a sovereign understanding of the One unity universality toward the figure of the O a cipher figure that as nonentity is nevertheless determinant of other realities The figuring of this O culminates in a proliferation of literary expressions of nothingness void and absence from 1940 to 1960 but by century s end this movement has shifted from linear progression to mutation whereby religion theology philosophy literature and other critical modes of thought such as feminism merge into a shared circular activity The writer W H Auden lends his name to this O his long poetic work The Sea and the Mirror an exemplary manifestation of its implications Hass examines this work along with that of a host of writers philosophers and theologians to trace the revolutionary hermeneutics and creative space of the O and to provide the reasoning of why nothing is now such a powerful force in the imagination of the twenty first century and of how it might move us through and beyond our turbulent times ThirdWay , 2007 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture It Starts at Home Kurt D. Bruner, Stephen Stroope, 2010-04-01 As Your Children Grow Will Their Faith Grow Too As both stories and statistics attest the number of evangelical children who abandon Christianity in adulthood is staggering To see effective change parents cannot leave their child s faith to chance Rather families must start nurturing faith early you cannot start once your child is grown you must start at home Strengthening family and home life is the best way to encourage your children to maintain a lifelong faith It Starts at Home upholds marriage and family as the proving ground for lasting success Experienced pastors Kurt Bruner and Steve Stroope provide a clear purpose an effective strategy and a simple plan for anyone who wants to be intentional in their homes Their insights will help leaders recalibrate their priorities by asking them to evaluate their leadership where it counts most This newly revised edition evaluates the current trends families and young adults face that can contribute to this crisis Don t let your child s faith fade to memory learn how you can create a home that will prepare them for lifelong faith

Beyond Opinion Ravi Zacharias, 2010-01-10 A definitive master work from the world s leading Christian apologist Respected apologist Ravi Zacharias was once sharing his faith with a Hindu when the man asked If the Christian faith is truly supernatural why is it not more evident in the lives of so many Christians I know The question hit hard and this book is an answer Its purpose is to equip Christians everywhere to simultaneously defend the faith and be transformed by it into people of compassion In addition to writing several chapters himself Ravi Zacharias brings together many of today s leading apologists and Christian teachers including Alister McGrath and John Lennox to address topics present in the very future of worldwide Christianity from the process of spiritual transformation to the challenges posed by militant atheism and a resurgent Islam Destined to become a classic Beyond Opinion is a touchstone that will affect Christians around the world

Douglas Coupland Andrew Tate, 2013-07-19 This book is the first full length study of Douglas Coupland one of the twenty first century s most innovative and influential novelists The study explores the prolific first decade and a half of Coupland s career from Generation X Tales for an Accelerated Culture 1991 to JPod 2006 a period in which he published ten novels and four significant volumes of non fiction Emerging in the last decade of the twentieth century amidst the absurd contradictions of instantaneous global communication and acute poverty Coupland s novels short stories essays and visual art have intervened in specifically contemporary debates regarding authenticity artifice and art This book explores Coupland s response in ground breaking novels such as Microserfs Girlfriend in a Coma and Miss Wyoming to some of the most pressing issues of our times Designed for students researchers and general readers alike the study is structured around thematically focused chapters that consider Coupland s engagement with narrative consumer culture space religion and ideas of the future Broken Words Paul Scott Wilson, 2010-09-01 A look at what both our successes and failures in preaching can tell us about how to craft better sermons Paul Wilson has long been one of the most important figures among those who seek a richer and more complete understanding of what preaching is and how it might be made better In this new book he draws on his broad and deep work in homiletics to show preachers how to craft a variety of types of sermons How do you preach from the Old Testament What are the particular needs and challenges of preaching the Good Friday and then the Easter sermon What do you do when you want to address contemporary events Recognizing that all sermons are in some ways broken words he includes in each chapter an illustrative sermon some of which work well yet others of which don't If you stand in the pulpit long he reminds us you're going to preach your share of both You would do well to learn then how either kind of sermon the ones you're proud of and the ones you want to forget can provide ample opportunities to learn how to be a more effective and faithful preacher of the gospel Readers will learn how to vary the sources styles and substance of their sermons Key Benefits Will empower the reader to move outside their comfort zone in preaching thus engaging the broader possibilities for preaching Will help the reader to learn how to assess both their strong and weak sermons and learn from each

Zacharias 2 in 1-Jesus Among Other Gods & Deliver Us from Evil Ravi Zacharias, 2009-09-10 Jesus Among Other Gods In his most important work to date apologetics scholar and popular speaker Ravi Zacharias shows how the blueprint for life and death itself is found in a true understanding of Jesus With a simple yet penetrating style Zacharias uses rich illustrations to celebrate the power of Jesus Christ to transform lives Jesus Among Other Gods contrasts the truth of Jesus with founders of Islam Hinduism and Buddhism strengthening believers and compelling them to share their faith with our post modern world Deliver Us From Evil With clarity and insight Zacharias shows how many of today's most popular ideas thoughts and beliefs are vandalizing our culture He shows how it is there in the depths of our innermost being That the work of God changes what we want to do This is not an ethical system calling us to civility This is the transforming work of the grace of God who calls us His children He shows how Secularization has led us to a loss of shame generating evil even against those we love Pluralization has led us to a loss of reason generating evil toward those we choose to hate Privatization has led us to loss of meaning generating evil against ourselves

The Other Journal: Authority Andrew Shutes-David, 2021-04-05 The Other Journal is a space for Christian interdisciplinary theological reflection that tackles the cultural crises of our time with verve and peculiar slant advancing a progressive provocative and charitable response in sync with the peacefully contrarian Christ In this issue we consider the theme of authority from the vantage point of pews and hospital rooms of jail cells low lit dining rooms and ancient coin collections We learn to hear the cries of those who have suffered abuse from the powerful to resist with the Apostle Paul and to consent to grace from the source of love beyond all earthly powers Our authority issue features prose by Andrew DeCort Lyle Enright Steven Felix Jager Richard C Goode Elizabeth Jarrett Andrew Vincent Lloyd Mary McCampbell Mary Lane Potter Gavin Richardson Hilary Jerome Scarsella

Rebecca Shirley Heidi Turner and Brandon Wrencher poetry by Jill Bergkamp Susan Carlson Barbara Crooker and Katie Manning an exhibition by Douglas Coupland mixed media by Sedrick Huckaby and multimedia by Brent Everett Dickinson and an interview with Devin Singh by Zachary Thomas Settle Greening the Red, White, and Blue Thomas Jundt, 2014 In popular imagination environmentalism is often linked to Rachel Carson's Silent Spring and the political activism of the 1960s and 70s that moved increasing numbers of Americans to insist on a better quality of life open spaces clean air and water beautification campaigns But these interpretations have obscured the significant origins of environmentalism as a moral and intellectual broadside against the growing power of corporate capitalism both domestically and in the postwar liberal international order the United States was enacting abroad In Greening the Red White and Blue Thomas Jundt shows how many Americans came to view powerful corporations and a federal government bent on economic growth as threats to human health and the environment Fallout from atomic testing air and water pollution the proliferation of pesticides and herbicides all connected to the growing dominance of technology and corporate capitalism in American life led a variety of constituencies to seek solutions in what came to be known as environmentalism In addition to political and legal campaigns to effect change an alternative form of civic participation emerged beginning in the late 1940s as growing numbers of citizens turned to what they deemed environmentally friendly consumption practices The goal of this politically charged consumption was not only to protect themselves and their families from harm but also to achieve social change at a time when many believed the government was placing the desires of business before the needs of its citizens Politicians responded to the growing environmental concerns of middle class Americans but in the end continual political compromises with corporate power meant weak laws and lax enforcement Many citizens sought refuge in an alternative green marketplace including organic foods natural fiber clothing alternative energy and everyday products designed to have minimal environmental impact In doing so they attempted to create a community for those who shared their concerns and frustrations as well as their vision for a different American Way Thomas Jundt's work highlights the intertwining of consumerism and environmentalism amidst the growing power of corporate capitalism and government in postwar America Christian Fundamentalism and the Culture of Disenchantment Paul Maltby, 2013-02-05 Within the familiar clash of religious conservatism and secular liberalism Paul Maltby finds a deeper discord an antipathy between Christian fundamentalism and the postmodern culture of disenchantment Arguing that each camp represents the poles of America's virulent culture wars he shows how the cultural identity lifestyle and political commitments of many Americans match either the fundamentalist profile of one who cleaves to metaphysical and authoritarian beliefs or the postmodern profile of one who is disposed to critical inquiry and radical democratic values Maltby offers a critique that operates in both directions His use of the resources of postmodern theory to contest fundamentalism's doctrinal claims ultra right politics anti environmentalism and conservative aesthetics informs his engagement with contemporary fundamentalist painting spiritual warfare fiction

dominionist attitudes to nature and a profoundly undemocratic interpretation of Christianity At the same time Maltby identifies some of fundamentalism s legitimate spiritual concerns assesses the cost of perpetual critique and exposes the deficit of spiritual meaning that haunts the culture of disenchantment The Blackwell Guide to Theology and Popular Culture Kelton Cobb,2008-04-15 The Blackwell Guide to Theology of Popular Culture outlines various general theories of popular culture identifies theologians and theological concepts that are conducive to analyzing popular culture and explores religious themes that are asserting themselves through popular movies novels music television shows and advertising A timely examination and contribution to the rapidly expanding field of theology and popular culture Locates the theological analysis of culture alongside political sociological economic aesthetic and psychological analyses Surveys the work of religious and theological scholars who have turned their attention to popular culture Considers classic Christian thinkers who have wrestled with culture such as St Paul Tertullian Augustine Schleiermacher Tillich and Ricoeur Proposes a method for analysing culture to discern its religious content Identifies religious themes in popular culture Uses illustrations ranging from the fiction of Nick Hornby to Six Feet Under An appendix provides lists of films novels television series consumer products architectural works cultural events and corporate icons that lend themselves to theological analysis Imagining Our Neighbors as Ourselves Mary W. McCampbell,2022-04-19 Anyone reading comments in online spaces is often confronted with a collective cultural loss of empathy This profound loss is directly related to the inability to imagine the life and circumstances of the other Our malnourished capacity for empathy is connected to an equally malnourished imagination In order to truly love and welcome others we need to exercise our imaginations to see our neighbors more as God sees them than as confined by our own inadequate and ungracious labels We need stories that can convict us about our own sins of omission or commission enabling us to see the beautiful complex world of our neighbors as we look beyond ourselves In this book Mary McCampbell looks at how narrative art whether literature film television or popular music expands our imaginations and in so doing emboldens our ability to love our neighbors as ourselves The prophetic artists in these pages Graham Greene Toni Morrison and Flannery O Connor among them show through the form and content of their narrative craft that in order to love we must be able to effectively imagine the lives of others But even though we have these rich opportunities to grow emotionally and spiritually we have been culturally trained as consumers to treat our practice of reading watching and listening as mere acts of consumption McCampbell instead insists that truly engaging with artists who have the prophetic capacity to create art that wakes us up can jolt us from our typically self concerned spiritual stupors She focuses on narrative art as a means of embodiment and an invitation to participation hospitality and empathy Reading seeing or listening to the story of someone seemingly different from us can awaken us to the very real spiritual similarities between human beings The intentionality that it takes to surrender a bit of our own default self centeredness is an act of spiritual formation Imagining Our Neighbors as Ourselves presents a journey through initial self reflection to a richer more compassionate look outward as narrative empowers us to exercise our imaginations for the sake of expanding our capacity for empathy
