Lying Under The Apple Tree By Alice Munro:

Lying Under the Apple Tree Alice Munro, 2014-05-08 Munro is still one of our most fearless explorers of the human being as she descends time and again headlamp on full beam pickaxe and butter knife at the ready The Times Spanning her last five collections and bringing together her finest work from the past fifteen years this new selection of Alice Munro's stories infuses everyday lives with a wealth of nuance and insight Beautifully observed and remarkably crafted written with emotion and empathy these stories are nothing short of perfection A masterclass in the genre from an author who deservedly lays claim to being one of the major fiction writers of our time The Cambridge Companion to Alice Munro David

Staines, 2016-03-10 This Companion is a complete introduction to the fictional and non-fictional writings of the Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro Reading Alice Munro's Breakthrough Books J.R. (Tim) Struthers, Ailsa Cox, Corinne

Bigot, Catherine Sheldrick Ross, What in terms of Alice Munro's creative artistry and creative power allowed her to become the first and only short story writer the first and only Canadian and just the thirteenth woman in history to win the Nobel Prize in Literature And exactly when during Munro's career did her artistry and power advance to ensure that she would earn such world wide renown The answers lie in studying the boldly innovative yet greatly under examined group of her four mid career breakthrough books Our volume therefore provides a carefully orchestrated analysis of Munro's subtle yet potent handling of form technique and style both within individual stories and across these special collections Reading Alice Munro's Breakthrough Books A Suite in Four Voices not only addresses a significant vacancy in Munro criticism and by extension in all short story criticism but equally importantly offers an exciting new model for how criticism can be collectively written

Alice Munro Mirosława Buchholtz, 2016-01-20 The book offers a new approach to the study of Alice Munro's fiction Its innovative quality consists in juxtaposing a variety of literary analyses of selected stories with two other ways of looking at her fiction the perspectives of film adaptation and of pedagogy The book is divided into three parts which mirror the key words in the title understanding adapting and teaching Part One consists of four articles on various aspects of Munro's short fiction from a literary perspective Part Two four essays addresses editing and film adaptations of Munro's stories both television and feature films Part Three consists of an essay on didactic aspects of Munro's fiction and of several interviews with teachers of Canadian literature who have included stories by Munro in their syllabi Selected Stories Volume Two:

1995-2009 Alice Munro, 2021-06-10 Covering the second half of Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro's career these are some of the best most touching and powerful short stories ever written Munro is still one of our most fearless explorers of the human being The Times Spanning her last five collections and bringing together her finest work from the past fifteen years this new selection of Alice Munro's stories infuses everyday lives with a wealth of nuance and insight Beautifully observed and remarkably crafted written with emotion and empathy these stories are nothing short of perfection A masterclass in the genre from an author who deservedly lays claim to being one of the major fiction writers of our time Winner of the Nobel

Prize in Literature Winner of the Man Booker International Prize 2009      The View from Castle Rock Alice Munro, 2010-08-31 Alice Munro turns to her family for inspiration and what follows is a fictionalised brilliantly imagined version of the past One of my very favourite writers Claire Tomalin From her ancestors view from Edinburgh's Castle Rock in the eighteenth century to her parents thwarted ambitions in Ontario and her own awakening in 1950s Canada Munro effortlessly weaves fact and myth to create an epic story of past and present proving that fiction has much to tell us about life

Winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature Winner of the Man Booker International Prize 2009      Alice Munro's Late Style Robert Thacker, 2025-04-24 Focusing on Alice Munro's last three collections this book examines the differences between these volumes and the rest of her work to analyse the emergence and the difference of her late style Alice Munro has effectively reshaped the short story as a form This book focuses on Munro's art of recursion an approach that has been evident throughout her career but came to the fore in her last three books The View from Castle Rock 2006 Too Much Happiness 2009 and especially Dear Life 2012 This recursion and return manifest themselves not only in Munro's return to previously published pieces but also to her discovery and meditations on her Scottish heritage which can be read as entrance to her own understanding of herself and her life Its provenance displayed through archival evidence is complex yet reveals a writer intent on a precise late style Munro's final works serve as a coda to both her late style and to her entire career as arguably one of the finest short story writers ever to put pen to paper

Ethics and Affects in the Fiction of Alice Munro Amelia DeFalco, Lorraine York, 2018-09-03 Ethics and Affects in the Fiction of Alice Munro explores the representation of embodied ethics and affects in Alice Munro's writing The collection illustrates how Munro's short stories powerfully intersect with important theoretical trends in literary studies including affect studies ethical criticism age studies disability studies animal studies and posthumanism These essays offer us an Alice Munro who is not the kindly Canadian icon reinforcing small town verities who was celebrated and perpetuated in acts of national pedagogy with her Nobel Prize win they ponder instead an edgier messier Munro whose fictions of affective and ethical perplexities disturb rather than comfort In Munro's fiction unruly embodiments and affects interfere with normative identity and humanist conventions of the human based on reason and rationality destabilizing prevailing gender and sexual politics ethical responsibilities and affective economies As these essays make clear Munro's fiction reminds us of the consequences of everyday affects and the extraordinary ordinariness of the ethical encounters we engage again and again
